Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:		Section 1. Section 53A-3-302 is amended to read:
		53A-3-302. Business administrator Term Oath.

H.B. 218 Enrolled Copy

30	(1) [Each] Subject to Subsection (5), a local school board shall appoint a business
31	administrator.
32	(2) (a) The business administrator's term of office is for two years and until, subject to
33	Subsection (5), a successor is appointed and qualified.
34	(b) A local school board that appoints a business administrator in accordance with this
35	section may not, on or after May 8, 2012, enter into an employment contract that contains an
36	automatic renewal provision with the business administrator.
37	(3) [Hf] Unless a vacancy occurs during an interim vacancy period subject to Subsection
38	(5), if it becomes necessary to appoint an interim business manager due to a vacancy in the
39	office of business administrator, then the local school board shall make an appointment during
40	a public meeting for an indefinite term not to exceed one year, which term shall end upon the
41	appointment and qualification of a new business manager.
42	(4) The business administrator qualifies for office by taking the constitutional oath of
43	office.
44	(5) (a) As used in this Subsection (5), "interim vacancy period" means the period of
45	time that:
46	(i) begins on the day on which a general election described in Section 20A-1-202 is
47	held to elect a member of a local school board; and
48	(ii) ends on the day on which the member-elect begins the member's term.
49	(b) (i) A local school board may not appoint a business administrator during an interim
50	vacancy period.
51	(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (5)(b)(i):
52	(A) the local school board may appoint an interim business administrator during an
53	interim vacancy period; and
54	(B) the interim business administrator's term shall expire once a new business
55	administrator is appointed by the new local school board after the interim vacancy period has
56	ended.
57	(c) Subsection (5)(b) does not apply if all the local school board members who held
