90	candidate for United States Senate from Utah.
91	Section 2. Section 20A-13-301 is amended to read:
92	20A-13-301. Presidential elections Effect of vote.
93	(1) (a) Each registered political party shall choose persons to act as presidential electors
94	and to fill vacancies in the office of presidential electors for [their party's candidates for
95	President and Vice President] president and vice president of the United States according to the
96	procedures established in their bylaws.
97	(b) Each registered political party shall certify to the lieutenant governor the names and
98	addresses of the persons selected by the political party as the party's presidential electors by
99	August 31.
100	(2) The highest number of votes cast for a political party's president and vice president
101	candidates elects the presidential electors selected by that political party.
102	Section 3. Section 20A-13-304 is amended to read:
103	20A-13-304. Meeting to ballot Casting ballot for person not nominated by
104	elector's party.
104	ciccion's party.
104	(1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at
	• •
105	(1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at
105 106	(1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day
105106107	(1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day designated by the Congress of the United States of America.
105 106 107 108	 (1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day designated by the Congress of the United States of America. (2) After convening, the electors shall perform their duties in conformity with the
105 106 107 108 109	 (1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day designated by the Congress of the United States of America. (2) After convening, the electors shall perform their duties in conformity with the United States Constitution and laws.
105 106 107 108 109 110	 (1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day designated by the Congress of the United States of America. (2) After convening, the electors shall perform their duties in conformity with the United States Constitution and laws. (3) Any elector who casts an electoral ballot for a person [not nominated by the party
105 106 107 108 109 110	 (1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day designated by the Congress of the United States of America. (2) After convening, the electors shall perform their duties in conformity with the United States Constitution and laws. (3) Any elector who casts an electoral ballot for a person [not nominated by the party of which he is an elector] other than a candidate for president or vice president of the United
105 106 107 108 109 110 111 112	 (1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day designated by the Congress of the United States of America. (2) After convening, the electors shall perform their duties in conformity with the United States Constitution and laws. (3) Any elector who casts an electoral ballot for a person [not nominated by the party of which he is an elector] other than a candidate for president or vice president of the United States who wins the majority vote of the state, except in the cases of death or felony conviction
105 106 107 108 109 110 111 112 113	 (1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day designated by the Congress of the United States of America. (2) After convening, the electors shall perform their duties in conformity with the United States Constitution and laws. (3) Any elector who casts an electoral ballot for a person [not nominated by the party of which he is an elector] other than a candidate for president or vice president of the United States who wins the majority vote of the state, except in the cases of death or felony conviction of a candidate, is:
105 106 107 108 109 110 111 112 113	(1) The electors shall meet at the office of the lieutenant governor at the state capitol at noon of the first Wednesday of the January after their election, or at noon of any other day designated by the Congress of the United States of America. (2) After convening, the electors shall perform their duties in conformity with the United States Constitution and laws. (3) Any elector who casts an electoral ballot for a person [not nominated by the party of which he is an elector] other than a candidate for president or vice president of the United States who wins the majority vote of the state, except in the cases of death or felony conviction of a candidate, is: (a) considered to have resigned from the office of elector, [his] the elector's vote may