757 knowledge of the facts and circumstances relating to the production.

758 (b) The affidavit shall state that all of the documentary material required by the 759 demand and in the possession, custody, or control of the person to whom the demand is 760 directed has in good faith been produced and made available to the Office of the Attorney 761 General.

762 (c) The affidavit shall identify any demanded documents that are not produced and 763 state the reason why each document was not produced.

764 (5) (a) The examination of any person pursuant to a demand for oral testimony served 765 under this section shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths or affirmations 766 by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held. The officer 767 before whom the testimony is to be taken shall put the witness on oath or affirmation and shall 768 personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony
769 of the witness. If the testimony is taken stenographically, it shall be transcribed and the officer 770 before whom the testimony is taken shall promptly transmit the transcript of the testimony to 771 the Office of the Attorney General.

772 (b) When taking oral testimony, all persons other than personnel from the attorney 773 general's office, the witness, counsel for the witness, and the officer before whom the testimony 774 is to be taken shall be excluded from the place where the examination is held.

775 (c) The oral testimony of any person taken pursuant to a demand served under this 776 section shall be taken in the county where the person resides or transacts business or in any 777 other place agreed upon by the attorney general and the person.

783 manner provided in Rule 30 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure for changing deposition

785 (f) Any person compelled to appear under a demand for oral testimony under this 786 section may be accompanied, represented, and advised by counsel. Counsel may advise the 787 person, in confidence, either upon the request of the person or upon counsel's own initiative, 788 with respect to any question asked of the person. The person or counsel may object on the 789 record to any question, in whole or in part, and shall briefly state for the record the reason for 790 the objection. An objection may properly be made, received, and entered upon the record when 791 it is claimed that the person is entitled to refuse to answer the question on grounds of any 792 constitutional or other legal right or privilege, including the privilege against 793 self-incrimination. If the person refuses to answer any question, the attorney general may 794 petition the district court for an order compelling the person to answer the question.

795 (g) If any person compelled to appear under a demand for oral testimony or other 796 information pursuant to this section refuses to answer any questions or produce information on 797 grounds of the privilege against self-incrimination, the testimony of that person may be 798 compelled as in criminal cases.

799 (h) Any person appearing for oral examination pursuant to a demand served under this 800 section is entitled to the same fees and mileage which are paid to witnesses in the district courts 801 of the state of Utah. Witness fees and expenses shall be tendered and paid as in any civil 802 action.

803 (6) The providing of any testimony, documents, or objects in response to a civil 804 investigative demand issued pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be considered part of an 805 official proceeding as defined in Section 76-8-501.

806 (7) (a) If a person fails to comply with the demand served upon him under this section, 807 the attorney general may file in the district court of the county in which the person resides, is 808 found, or does business, a petition for an order compelling compliance with the demand.
809 Notice of hearing of the petition and a copy of the petition shall be served upon the person, 810 who may appear in opposition to the petition. If the court finds that the demand is proper, that 811 there is reasonable cause to believe there has been a violation of this act, and that the 812 information sought or document or object demanded is relevant to the violation, it shall order 813 the person to comply with the demand, subject to modifications the court may prescribe.

814 (b) (i) At any time before the return date specified in a demand or within 30 days after 815 the demand has been served, whichever period is shorter, the person who has been served may 816 file a petition for an order modifying or setting aside the demand. This petition shall be filed in 817 the district court in the county of the person's residence, principal office, or place of business, 818 or in the district court in Salt Lake County. The petition shall specify each ground upon which 819 the petitioner relies in seeking the relief sought. The petition may be based upon any failure of 820 the demand to comply with the provisions of this section or upon any constitutional or other 821 legal right or privilege of the petitioner. The petitioner shall serve notice of hearing of the 822 petition and a copy of the petition upon the attorney general. The attorney general may submit 823 an answer to the petition within 30 days after receipt of the petition.

824 (ii) After hearing on the petition described in Subsection (7)(b)(i), and for good cause 825 shown, the court may make any further order in the proceedings that justice requires to protect 826 the person from unreasonable annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, burden, or expense. At 827 any hearing pursuant to this section it is the attorney general's burden to establish that the 828 demand is proper, that there is reasonable cause to believe that there has been a violation of this 829 act, and that the information sought or document or object demanded is relevant to the 830 violation.

831 (8) (a) Any procedure, testimony taken, or material produced under this section shall be 832 kept confidential by the attorney general unless confidentiality is waived in writing by the 833 person who has testified, or produced documents or objects.

834 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the attorney general may 835 disclose testimony or documents obtained under this section, without either the consent of the 836 person from whom it was received or the person being investigated, to:

837 (i) any grand jury; and

838 (ii) officers and employees of federal or state law enforcement agencies, provided the 839 person from whom the information, documents, or objects were obtained is notified 20 days 840 prior to disclosure, and the federal or state law enforcement agency certifies that the 841 information will be:

842 (A) maintained in confidence, as required by Subsection (8)(a); and 843 (B) used only for official law enforcement purposes.

844 (9) Use of a civil investigative demand under this action precludes the invocation by 845 the attorney general of Section 77-22-2.

846 Section 28. Section 76-10-3108, which is renumbered from Section 76-10-918 is 847 renumbered and amended to read:

848 ~~[76-10-918]~~. 76-10-3108. Attorney general may bring action for injunctive 849 relief, damages, or civil penalty.

850 (1) The attorney general may bring an action for appropriate injunctive relief, and for 851 damages or a civil penalty in the name of the state, any of its political subdivisions or agencies, 852 or as parens patriae on behalf of natural persons in this state, for a violation of this act. Actions 853 may be brought under this section regardless of whether the plaintiff dealt directly or indirectly 854 with the defendant. This remedy is an additional remedy to any other remedies provided by 855 law. It may not diminish or offset any other remedy.

856 (2) Any individual who violates this act is subject to a civil penalty of not more than 857 $100,000 for each violation. Any person, other than an individual, who violates this act is 858 subject to a civil penalty of not more than $500,000 for each violation.

859 Section 29. Section 76-10-3109, which is renumbered from Section 76-10-919 is 860 renumbered and amended to read:

861 ~~[76-10-919]~~. 76-10-3109. Person may bring action for injunctive relief 862 and damages -- Treble damages -- Recovery of actual damages or civil penalty by state or 863 political subdivisions -- Immunity of political subdivisions from damages, costs, or 864 attorney fees.

865 (1) (a) A person who is a citizen of this state or a resident of this state and who is 866 injured or is threatened with injury in his business or property by a violation of the Utah 867 Antitrust Act may bring an action for injunctive relief and damages, regardless of whether the 868 person dealt directly or indirectly with the defendant. This remedy is in addition to any other 869 remedies provided by law. It may not diminish or offset any other remedy.

870 (b) Subject to the provisions of Subsections (3), (4), and (5), the court shall award three 871 times the amount of damages sustained, plus the cost of suit and a reasonable attorney fees, in 872 addition to granting any appropriate temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief.

873 (2) (a) If the court determines that a judgment in the amount of three times the damages 874 awarded plus attorney fees and costs will directly cause the insolvency of the defendant, the 875 court shall reduce the amount of judgment to the highest sum that would not cause the 876 defendant's insolvency.

877 (b) The court may not reduce a judgment to an amount less than the amount of 878 damages sustained plus the costs of suit and a reasonable attorney fees.

879 (3) The state or any of its political subdivisions may recover the actual damages it 880 sustains, or the civil penalty provided by the Utah Antitrust Act, in addition to injunctive relief,

882 (4) No damages, costs, or attorney fees may be recovered under this section:

883 (a) from any political subdivision;

884 (b) from the official or employee of any political subdivision acting in an official 885 capacity; or

886 (c) against any person based on any official action directed by a political subdivision or 887 its official or employee acting in an official capacity.

888 (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to cases filed before April 27, 1987, unless the 889 defendant establishes and the court determines that in light of all the circumstances, including 890 the posture of litigation and the availability of alternative relief, it would be inequitable not to 891 apply Subsection (4) to a pending case.

892 (6) When a defendant has been sued in one or more actions by both direct and indirect 893 purchasers, whether in state court or federal court, a defendant shall be entitled to prove as a 894 partial or complete defense to a claim for damages that the damages incurred by the plaintiff or 895 plaintiffs have been passed on to others who are entitled to recover so as to avoid duplication 896 of recovery of damages. In an action by indirect purchasers, any damages or settlement 897 amounts paid to direct purchasers for the same alleged antitrust violations shall constitute a

898 defense in the amount paid on a claim by indirect purchasers under this chapter so as to avoid 899 duplication of recovery of damages.

900 (7) It shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the injured 901 persons who dealt directly with the defendant incurred at least 1/3 of the damages, and shall, 902 therefore, recover at least 1/3 of the awarded damages. It shall also be presumed, in the 903 absence of proof to the contrary, that the injured persons who dealt indirectly with the 904 defendant incurred at least 1/3 of the damages, and shall, therefore, recover at least 1/3 of the 905 awarded damages. The final 1/3 of the damages shall be awarded by the court to those injured 906 persons determined by the court as most likely to have absorbed the damages.

907 (8) There is a presumption, in the absence of proof to the contrary and subject to 908 Subsection (7), that each level in a product's or service's distribution chain passed on any and 909 all increments in its cost due to an increase in the cost of an ingredient or a component product 910 or service that was caused by a violation of this chapter. This amount will be presumed, in the 911 absence of evidence to the contrary, to be equal to the change in the cost, in dollars and cents, 912 of the ingredient, component product, or service to its first purchaser.

913 (9) The attorney general shall be notified by the plaintiff about the filing of any class
914 action involving antitrust violations that includes plaintiffs from this state. The attorney 915 general shall receive a copy of each filing from each plaintiff. The attorney general may, in his 916 or her discretion, intervene or file amicus briefs in the case, and may be heard on the question 917 of the fairness or appropriateness of any proposed settlement agreement.

918 (10) If, in a class action or parens patriae action filed under this chapter, including the 919 settlement of any action, it is not feasible to return any part of the recovery to the injured 920 plaintiffs, the court shall order the residual funds be applied to benefit the specific class of 921 injured plaintiffs, to improve antitrust enforcement generally by depositing the residual funds 922 into the Attorney General Litigation Fund created by Section ~~[76-10-922]~~ 76-10-3114, or both.

923 (11) In any action brought under this chapter, the court shall approve all attorney fees

932 notwithstanding Sections 76-3-301 and 76-3-302:

933 (i) if an individual, by a fine not to exceed $100,000 or by imprisonment for an

939 commodity or service both directly and through distributors or subdistributors in competition 940 with itself.

941 (2) A defendant may plead nolo contendere to a charge brought under this title but only

950 has criminally violated this act, other than a judgment entered pursuant to a nolo contendere 951 plea or a decree entered prior to the taking of any testimony, shall be prima facie evidence 952 against that person in any action brought pursuant to ~~[section 76-10-919]~~ Section 76-10-3109, 953 as to all matters with respect to which the judgment or decree would be an estoppel between
