28 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

29 Section 1. Section 53A-26a-102 is amended to read:

30 53A-26a-102. Definitions.

31 As used in this chapter:

32 (1) "Advisory board" or "board" means the Interpreters Certification Board created in 33 Section 53A-26a-201.

34 (2) "Certified interpreter" means a person who is certified as meeting the certification
35 requirements of this chapter.

36 (3) "Hearing impaired" means a hearing loss which:

37 (a) necessitates the visual acquisition of language; or

38 (b) adversely affects the acquisition of language but which does not preclude the 39 auditory acquisition of language.

40 (4) "Interpreter services" means ~~[those services provided for payment by an individual~~
41 ~~holding one's self out to be a certified interpreter to facilitate effective communication between~~ 42 ~~hearing and hearing impaired persons]~~ services that facilitate effective communication between 43 a hearing person and a person who is hearing impaired as defined by Subsection
44 53A-26a-102(3), through American Sign Language or a language system or code that is 45 modeled after American Sign Language, in whole or in part, or is in any way derived from 46 American Sign Language.

47 Section 2. Section 53A-26a-301 is amended to read:

48 53A-26a-301. Certification required -- Classes of certification.

49 (1) ~~[Certification is required to provide interpretive services, except]~~ Except as 50 specifically provided in Section 53A-26a-305, an individual is required to be certified as a
51 certified interpreter if that individual provides interpretive services and a state or federal law
52 requires the interpreter to be certified or qualified.

53 (2) The State Board of Education shall issue a certification to any person who qualifies
54 under this chapter in classifications determined by the board based upon recommendations
55 from the advisory board.

56 Section 3. Section 53A-26a-305 is amended to read:

57 53A-26a-305. Exemptions from certification -- Temporary or restricted
58 certification.

59 (1) The following individuals may engage in the practice of a certified interpreter,
60 subject to the stated circumstances and limitations, without being certified under this chapter:

61 (a) an individual serving in the Armed Forces of the United States, the United States
62 Public Health Service, the United States Department of Veterans Affairs, or other federal 63 agencies while engaged in activities regulated under this chapter as a part of employment with 64 that federal agency if the person holds a valid certificate or license to provide interpreter
65 services issued by any other state or jurisdiction recognized by the State Board of Education;

66 (b) a student engaged in providing interpreter services while in training in a recognized
67 school approved by the State Board of Education to the extent the student's activities are 68 supervised by qualified faculty, staff, or designee, and the services are a defined part of the 69 training program;

70 (c) an individual engaged in an internship, residency, apprenticeship, or on-the-job
71 training program approved by the State Board of Education while under the supervision of 72 qualified persons;

73 (d) an individual residing in another state and certified or licensed to provide
74 interpreter services in that state, who is called in for a consultation by an individual certified to 75 provide interpreter services in this state, and the services provided are limited to that 76 consultation;

77 (e) an individual who is invited by a recognized school, association, or other body
78 approved by the State Board of Education to conduct a lecture, clinic, or demonstration on 79 interpreter services if the individual does not establish a place of business or regularly engage 80 in the practice of providing interpreter services in this state; ~~and~~

81 (f) an individual licensed in another state or country who is in this state temporarily to 82 attend to the needs of an athletic team or group, except that the individual may only attend to 83 the needs of the team or group, including all individuals who travel with the team or group,
84 except as a spectator[-]; or

85 (g) an individual who is providing interpreter services for a religious entity, to the 86 extent that the religious entity is specifically exempted from liability under federal law.

87 (2) (a) An individual temporarily in this state who is exempted from certification under 88 Subsection (1) shall comply with each requirement of the jurisdiction from which the 89 individual derives authority to practice.

90 (b) Violation of any limitation imposed by this section is grounds for removal of 91 exempt status, denial of certification, or another disciplinary proceeding.

92 (3) (a) Upon the declaration of a national, state, or local emergency, the State Board of 93 Education, in collaboration with the advisory board, may suspend the requirements for 94 permanent or temporary certification of persons who are certified or licensed in another state.

95 (b) Individuals exempt under Subsection (3)(a) shall be exempt from certification for 96 the duration of the emergency while engaged in providing interpreter services for which they 97 are certified or licensed in the other state.

98 (4) The State Board of Education, after consulting with the advisory board, may adopt
99 rules for the issuance of temporary or restricted certifications if their issuance is necessary to or 100 justified by:

101 (a) a lack of necessary available interpretive services in any area or community of the 102 state, if the lack of services might be reasonably considered to materially jeopardize 103 compliance with state or federal law; or

104 (b) a need to first observe an applicant for certification in a monitored or supervised
105 practice of providing interpretive services before a decision is made by the board either to grant 106 or deny the applicant a regular certification.
