120 for their services. If a petition is filed which either directly or indirectly seeks approval of the 121 personal representative's compensation or the attorney's compensation and if no objection is 122 filed by an interested person to the compensation requested, reasonable compensation shall be 123 the compensation sought in the petition. When an interested person objects to the personal 124 representative's compensation, the court shall determine reasonable compensation for the 125 personal representative based on the quality, quantity, and value of the services rendered to the 126 estate and the circumstances under which those services were rendered, including the practice
127 for other fiduciaries who are in similar circumstances to the personal representative in question.
128 When an interested person objects to the attorney's compensation, the court shall determine

135 contract with the decedent regarding compensation, the personal representative may renounce
136 the provision before qualifying and be entitled to reasonable compensation. A personal 137 representative also may renounce his right to all or any part of the compensation. A written 138 renunciation of fee may be filed with the court.

139 Section 5. Section 77-32-202 is amended to read:

140 77-32-202. Procedure for determination of indigency -- Standards.

141 (1) A determination of indigency or continuing indigency of any defendant may be 142 made by the court at any stage of the proceedings.

143 (2) (a) Any defendant claiming indigency who is charged with a crime the penalty of 144 which is a class A misdemeanor or serious offense shall file with the court a fully complete
145 affidavit verified by a notary or other person authorized by law to administer an oath and file a
146 copy of that affidavit with the prosecuting entity. The affidavit shall contain the factual 147 information required in this section and by the court.

148 (b) A defendant claiming indigency who is charged with a crime the penalty of which 149 is less than a class A misdemeanor is not required to comply with the requirements of 150 Subsection (2)(a) and Subsection (4).

151 (3) (a) "Indigency" means that a person:

152 (i) does not have sufficient income, assets, credit, or other means to provide for the 153 payment of legal counsel and all other necessary expenses of representation without depriving 154 that person or the family of that person of food, shelter, clothing, and other necessities; or

155 (ii) has an income level at or below 150% of the United States poverty level as defined
156 by the most recently revised poverty income guidelines published by the United States
157 Department of Health and Human Services; and 158 (iii) has not transferred or otherwise disposed of any assets since the commission of the 159 offense with the intent of establishing eligibility for the appointment of counsel under this 160 chapter.

161 (b) In making a determination of indigency, the court shall consider:

162 (i) the probable expense and burden of defending the case;

163 (ii) the ownership of, or any interest in, any tangible or intangible personal property or 164 real property, or reasonable expectancy of any such interest;

165 (iii) the amounts of debts owned by the defendant or that might reasonably be incurred
166 by the defendant because of illness or other needs within the defendant's family;

167 (iv) number, ages, and relationships of any dependents;

168 (v) the reasonableness of fees and expenses charged to the defendant by the defendant's 169 attorney and the scope of representation undertaken where the defendant is represented by 170 privately retained defense counsel; and

171 (vi) other factors considered relevant by the court.

172 (4) (a) Upon making a finding of indigence, the court shall enter the findings on the 173 record and enter an order assigning a defense services provider to represent the defendant in the 174 case.

175 (b) Upon finding indigence when the defendant has privately retained counsel, the 176 court, subject to Section 77-32-303, shall enter the findings into the record and issue an order 177 directing the county or municipality to coordinate the providing of defense resources as 178 appropriate.

179 (c) The clerk of the court shall send a copy of the affidavit and order to the prosecutor
180 and to the county clerk or municipal recorder.

181 (5) If the county or municipality providing the defense services provider has any 182 objections to or concerns with the finding of indigency and assignment of a defense services
183 provider or the continuing of indigency status and assignment of a defense services provider, it 184 shall file notice with the court and a hearing shall be scheduled to review the findings and give 185 the county or municipality the opportunity to present evidence and arguments as to the reasons 186 the finding of indigency should be reversed and the court shall proceed as provided in 187 [~~Subsection~~] Section 77-32-302[(4)].

188 (6) (a) If the trial court finds within one year after the determination of indigency that 189 any defendant was erroneously or improperly determined to be indigent, the county or 190 municipality may proceed against that defendant for the reasonable value of the services 191 rendered to the defendant, including all costs paid by the county or municipality in providing 192 the legal defense.

193 (b) Subsection (6)(a) does not affect any restitution required of the defendant by the 194 court pursuant to Chapter 32a, Defense Costs.

195 (c) A defendant claiming indigency has a continuing duty to inform the court of any 196 material changes or change in circumstances that may affect the determination of his eligibility 197 for indigency.

198 (d) Any person who intentionally or knowingly makes a material false statement or 199 omits a material fact in an affidavit for indigency is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

200 Section 6. Section 77-36-2.5 is amended to read:

201 77-36-2.5. Conditions for release after arrest for domestic violence -- Jail release
202 agreements -- Jail release court orders.

203 (1) (a) Upon arrest for domestic violence, and before the person is released on bail, 204 recognizance, or otherwise, the person may not personally contact the alleged victim of 205 domestic violence.

206 (b) A person who violates Subsection (1)(a) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

207 (2) Upon arrest for domestic violence, a person may not be released on bail, 208 recognizance, or otherwise prior to the close of the next court day following the arrest, unless 209 as a condition of that release the person is ordered by the court or agrees in writing that until 210 further order of the court, the person will:

211 (a) have no personal contact with the alleged victim;

212 (b) not threaten or harass the alleged victim; and

213 (c) not knowingly enter onto the premises of the alleged victim's residence or any 214 premises temporarily occupied by the alleged victim.

215 (3) (a) The jail release agreement or jail release court order expires at midnight on the 216 day on which the person arrested appears in person or by video for arraignment or an initial 217 appearance.

218 (b) (i) If criminal charges have not been filed against the arrested person, the court
219 may, for good cause and in writing, extend the jail release agreement or jail release court order
220 beyond the time period under Subsection (3)(a) as provided in Subsection (3)(b)(ii).

221 (ii) (A) The court may extend a jail release agreement or jail release court order under 222 Subsection (3)(b)(i) to no longer than midnight of the third business day after the arrested 223 person's first court appearance.

224 (B) If criminal charges are filed against the arrested person within the three business
225 days under Subsection (3)(b)(ii)(A), the jail release agreement or the jail release court order
226 continues in effect until the arrested person appears in person or by video at the arrested 227 person's next scheduled court appearance.

228 (c) If criminal charges have been filed against the arrested person the court may, upon 229 the request of the prosecutor or the victim or upon the court's own motion, issue a pretrial 230 protective order.

231 (4) As a condition of release, the court may order the defendant to participate in an 232 electronic or other monitoring program and to pay the costs associated with the program.

233 (5) (a) Subsequent to an arrest for domestic violence, an alleged victim may waive in 234 writing any or all of the release conditions described in Subsection (2)(a) or (c). Upon waiver, 235 those release conditions do not apply to the alleged perpetrator.

236 (b) A court or magistrate may modify the release conditions described in [~~Subsections~~
237 ~~(4)~~] Subsection (2)(a) or (c), in writing or on the record, and only for good cause shown.

238 (6) (a) When a person is released pursuant to Subsection (2), the releasing agency shall 239 notify the arresting law enforcement agency of the release, conditions of release, and any 240 available information concerning the location of the victim. The arresting law enforcement 241 agency shall then make a reasonable effort to notify the victim of that release.

242 (b) (i) When a person is released pursuant to Subsection (2) based on a written jail

243 release agreement, the releasing agency shall transmit that information to the statewide
244 domestic violence network described in Section 78B-7-113.

245 (ii) When a person is released pursuant to Subsection (2) or (3) based upon a jail
246 release court order or if a jail release agreement is modified pursuant to Subsection (5)(b), the 247 court shall transmit that order to the statewide domestic violence network described in Section 248 78B-7-113.

249 (iii) A copy of the jail release court order or written jail release agreement shall be 250 given to the person by the releasing agency before the person is released.

251 (c) This Subsection (6) does not create or increase liability of a law enforcement officer
252 or agency, and the good faith immunity provided by Section 77-36-8 is applicable.

253 (7) (a) If a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a person has 254 violated a jail release court order or jail release agreement executed pursuant to Subsection (2)
255 the officer shall, without a warrant, arrest the alleged violator.

256 (b) Any person who knowingly violates a jail release court order or jail release
257 agreement executed pursuant to Subsection (2) is guilty as follows:

258 (i) if the original arrest was for a felony, an offense under this section is a third degree 259 felony; or

260 (ii) if the original arrest was for a misdemeanor, an offense under this section is a class
261 A misdemeanor.

262 (c) City attorneys may prosecute class A misdemeanor violations under this section.

263 (8) An individual who was originally arrested for a felony under this chapter and 264 released pursuant to this section may subsequently be held without bail if there is substantial 265 evidence to support a new felony charge against him.

266 (9) At the time an arrest for domestic violence is made, the arresting officer shall 267 provide the alleged victim with written notice containing:

268 (a) the release conditions described in Subsection (2), and notice that those release 269 conditions shall be ordered by a court or must be agreed to by the alleged perpetrator prior to 270 release;

271 (b) notification of the penalties for violation of any jail release court order or any jail
272 release agreement executed under Subsection (2);

273 (c) notification that the alleged perpetrator is to personally appear in court on the next

274 day the court is open for business after the day of the arrest;

275 (d) the address of the appropriate court in the district or county in which the alleged 276 victim resides;

277 (e) the availability and effect of any waiver of the release conditions; and

278 (f) information regarding the availability of and procedures for obtaining civil and 279 criminal protective orders with or without the assistance of an attorney.

280 (10) At the time an arrest for domestic violence is made, the arresting officer shall 281 provide the alleged perpetrator with written notice containing:

282 (a) notification that the alleged perpetrator may not contact the alleged victim before 283 being released;

284 (b) the release conditions described in Subsection (2) and notice that those release 285 conditions shall be ordered by a court or shall be agreed to by the alleged perpetrator prior to 286 release;

287 (c) notification of the penalties for violation of any jail release court order or any 288 written jail release agreement executed under Subsection (2); and

289 (d) notification that the alleged perpetrator is to personally appear in court on the next
290 day the court is open for business after the day of the arrest.

291 (11) (a) If the alleged perpetrator fails to personally appear in court as scheduled, the 292 jail release court order or jail release agreement does not expire and continues in effect until the 293 alleged perpetrator makes the personal appearance in court as required by Section 77-36-2.6.

294 (b) If, when the alleged perpetrator personally appears in court as required by Section 295 77-36-2.6, criminal charges have not been filed against the arrested person, the court may allow 296 the jail release court order or jail release agreement to expire at midnight on the day of the 297 court appearance or may extend it for good cause.

298 (12) In addition to the provisions of Subsections (2) through (8), because of the unique
299 and highly emotional nature of domestic violence crimes, the high recidivism rate of violent 300 offenders, and the demonstrated increased risk of continued acts of violence subsequent to the 301 release of an offender who has been arrested for domestic violence, it is the finding of the 302 Legislature that domestic violence crimes, as defined in Section 77-36-1, are crimes for which 303 bail may be denied if there is substantial evidence to support the charge, and if the court finds 304 by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged perpetrator would constitute a substantial

305 danger to an alleged victim of domestic violence if released on bail.

306 Section 7. Section 77-40-107 is amended to read:

314 most recent address of record on file.

315 (b) The notice shall include a copy of the petition, certificate of eligibility, statutes and 316 rules applicable to the petition, state that the victim has a right to object to the expungement,

319 by filing a recommendation or objection with the court within 30 days after receipt of the 320 petition.

321 (4) (a) The court may request a written response to the petition from the Division of 322 Adult Probation and Parole within the Department of Corrections.

323 (b) If requested, the response prepared by Adult Probation and Parole shall include:

324 (i) the reasons probation was terminated; and

325 (ii) certification that the petitioner has completed all requirements of sentencing and

327 (c) A copy of the response shall be provided to the petitioner and the prosecuting 328 attorney.

330 the victim and the response prepared by Adult Probation and Parole within 15 days after 331 receipt.

332 (6) (a) If the court receives an objection concerning the petition from any party, the 333 court shall set a date for a hearing and notify the petitioner[;] and the prosecuting attorney[;

337 relevant information about the petitioner may testify at the hearing.

338 (c) The court shall review the petition, the certificate of eligibility, and any written 339 responses submitted regarding the petition.

340 (7) If no objection is received within 60 days from the date the petition for 341 expungement was filed with the court, the expungement may be granted without a hearing.

342 (8) The court shall issue an order of expungement if it finds by clear and convincing 343 evidence that:

344 (a) the petition and certificate of eligibility are sufficient;

345 (b) the statutory requirements have been met; and 346 (c) it is not contrary to the interests of the public to grant the expungement.

347 (9) A court may not expunge a conviction of an offense for which a certificate of 348 eligibility may not be or should not have been issued under Section 77-40-104 or 77-40-105.
349 Section 8. Section 78A-2-220 is amended to read:
