

1 JOINT RESOLUTION AMENDING CIVIL PROCEDURE

2 RULE 62

3 2014 GENERAL SESSION

4 STATE OF UTAH

5 Chief Sponsor: Douglas V. Sagers

6 Senate Sponsor: _____

7

LONG TITLE

8 General Description:

9 This joint resolution amends Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 62.

10 Highlighted Provisions:

11 This resolution:

12 ▶ amends Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 62, by eliminating the requirement that
13 municipalities post a bond when appealing a judgment over $5,000,000.
14

15 Special Clauses:

16 This resolution provides an immediate effective date.

17 Utah Rules of Civil Procedure Affected:

18 AMENDS:

19 Rule 62, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure

20

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, two-thirds of all members elected to each 21 of the two houses voting in favor thereof:

22 As provided in Utah Constitution Article VIII, Section 4, the Legislature may amend
23 rules of procedure and evidence adopted by the Utah Supreme Court upon a two-thirds vote of 24 all members of both houses of the Legislature:
25

26 Section 1. Rule 62, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

27 Rule 62. Stay of proceedings to enforce a judgment.

28 (a) Delay in execution. No execution or other writ to enforce a judgment may issue
29 until the expiration of ten days after entry of judgment, unless the court in its discretion
30 otherwise directs.

31 (b) Stay on motion for new trial or for judgment. In its discretion and on such
32 conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the court may stay the execution
33 of, or any proceedings to enforce, a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new
34 trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to Rule 59, or of a motion for relief from a
35 judgment or order made pursuant to Rule 60, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a
36 motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to Rule 50, or of a motion for amendment to the 37 findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Rule 52(b).

38 (c) Injunction pending appeal. When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory order or 39 final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the court in its discretion may 40 suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such 41 conditions as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

42 (d) Stay upon appeal. When an appeal is taken, the appellant by giving a supersedeas
43 bond may obtain a stay, unless such a stay is otherwise prohibited by law or these rules. The 44 bond may be given at or after the time of filing the notice of appeal. The stay is effective when 45 the supersedeas bond is approved by the court.

46 (e) [(†)] Stay in favor of the state, or agency thereof. When an appeal is taken by the 47 United States, the state of Utah, or an officer or agency of either, or by direction of any
48 department of either, and the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond,
49 obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.

50 ~~[(e)(2) For purposes of this rule, a municipality shall not be considered a state agency~~
51 ~~exempt from the requirement of posting a bond, obligation, or other security when appealing a~~
52 ~~judgment for any amounts in excess of $5,000,000. To stay the enforcement of any judgment~~
53 ~~over $5,000,000, the municipality shall be required to post security with the appellate court in~~
54 ~~the amount by which the judgment exceeds the sum of $5,000,000 and for any interest that may~~
55 ~~accrue during the appeal.]~~

56 (f) Stay in quo warranto proceedings. Where the defendant is adjudged guilty of 57 usurping, intruding into or unlawfully holding public office, civil or military, within this state,
58 the execution of the judgment shall not be stayed on an appeal.

59 (g) Power of appellate court not limited. The provisions in this rule do not limit any 60 power of an appellate court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings or to suspend,
61 modify, restore, or grant an injunction, or extraordinary relief or to make any order appropriate
62 to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.

63 (h) Stay of judgment upon multiple claims. When a court has ordered a final judgment
64 on some but not all of the claims presented in the action under the conditions stated in Rule
65 54(b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent 66 judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the 67 benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

68 (i) Form of supersedeas bond; deposit in lieu of bond; waiver of bond; jurisdiction over
69 sureties to be set forth in undertaking.

70 (i) (1) A supersedeas bond given under Subdivision (d) may be either a commercial
71 bond having a surety authorized to transact insurance business under Title 31A, or a personal
72 bond having one or more sureties who are residents of Utah having a collective net worth of at 73 least twice the amount of the bond, exclusive of property exempt from execution. Sureties on 74 personal bonds shall make and file an affidavit setting forth in reasonable detail the assets and 75 liabilities of the surety.

76 (i) (2) Upon motion and good cause shown, the court may permit a deposit of money in
77 court or other security to be given in lieu of giving a supersedeas bond under Subdivision (d).

78 (i) (3) The parties may by written stipulation waive the requirement of giving a
79 supersedeas bond under Subdivision (d) or agree to an alternate form of security.

80 (i) (4) A supersedeas bond given pursuant to Subdivision (d) shall provide that each
81 surety submits to the jurisdiction of the court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the court as 82 the surety's agent upon whom any papers affecting the surety's liability on the bond may be 83 served, and that the surety's liability may be enforced on motion and upon such notice as the 84 court may require without the necessity of an independent action.

85 (j) Amount of supersedeas bond.

86 (j) (1) Except as provided in subsection (j)(2), a court shall set the supersedeas bond in 87 an amount that adequately protects the judgment creditor against loss or damage occasioned by 88 the appeal and assures payment in the event the judgment is affirmed. In setting the amount,
89 the court may consider any relevant factor, including:

- 90 (j) (1) (A) the judgment debtor's ability to pay the judgment;
- 91 (j) (1) (B) the existence and value of security;
- 92 (j) (1) (C) the judgment debtor's opportunity to dissipate assets;
- 93 (j) (1) (D) the judgment debtor's likelihood of success on appeal; and
- 94 (j) (1) (E) the respective harm to the parties from setting a higher or lower amount.

95 (j) (2) Notwithstanding subsection (j)(1):

96 (j) (2) (A) the presumptive amount of a bond for compensatory damages is the amount
97 of the compensatory damages plus costs and attorney fees, as applicable, plus 3 years of
98 interest at the applicable interest rate;

99 (j) (2) (B) the bond for compensatory damages shall not exceed $25 million in an
100 action by plaintiffs certified as a class under Rule 23 or in an action by multiple plaintiffs in 101 which compensatory damages are not proved for each plaintiff individually; and

102 (j) (2) (C) no bond shall be required for punitive damages.

103 (j) (3) If the court permits a bond that is less than the presumptive amount of 104 compensatory damages, the court may also enter such orders as are necessary to protect the 105 judgment creditor during the appeal.

106 (j) (4) If the court finds that the judgment debtor has violated an order or has otherwise
107 dissipated assets, the court may set the bond under subsection (j)(1) without regard to the limits
108 in subsection (j)(2).

109 (k) Objecting to sufficiency or amount of security. Any party whose judgment is 110 stayed or sought to be stayed pursuant to Subdivision (d) may object to the sufficiency of the 111 sureties on the supersedeas bond or the amount thereof, or to the sufficiency or amount of other
112 security given to stay the judgment by filing and giving notice of such objection. The party so
113 objecting shall be entitled to a hearing thereon upon five days notice or such shorter time as the 114 court may order. The burden of justifying the sufficiency of the sureties or other security and 115 the amount of the bond or other security, shall be borne by the party seeking the stay, unless the 116 objecting party seeks a bond greater than the presumed limits of this rule. The fact that a
117 supersedeas bond, its surety or other security is generally permitted under this rule shall not be 118 conclusive as to its sufficiency or amount.

119 Section 2. Effective date.

120 This resolution takes effect upon approval by a constitutional majority vote of all

121 members of the Senate and House of Representatives.
