152 (b) The prosecuting attorney is not required to serve a copy of the complaint or the 173 claimant may file an answer to the complaint.

174 (b) The answer shall be filed within 30 days after the complaint is served upon the 175 claimant as provided in Subsection (2)(b).

176 (4) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, forfeiture proceedings are governed
177 by the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

178 (5) The court shall take all reasonable steps to expedite civil forfeiture proceedings and 179 shall give these proceedings the same priority as is given to criminal cases.

180 (6) In all suits or actions brought under this section for the civil forfeiture of any 181 property, the burden of proof is on the prosecuting attorney to establish by clear and convincing 182 evidence the extent to which, if any, the property is subject to forfeiture.

183 (7) A claimant may file an answer to a complaint for civil forfeiture without posting 184 bond with respect to the property subject to forfeiture.

185 (8) If the prosecuting attorney does not file a civil complaint for forfeiture within 60
186 days of the seizure of the property, as required by Subsection 24-4-104(1):

187 (a) the seizing agency shall promptly return the property to the claimant; and

188 (b) the prosecuting attorney may take no further action to effect the forfeiture of the 189 property.

190 Section 3. Section 24-4-105 is amended to read:

191 24-4-105. Criminal forfeiture procedure.

192 (1) If a claimant is criminally prosecuted for conduct giving rise to the forfeiture, the 193 prosecuting attorney may elect to seek forfeiture of the claimant's interest in the property
194 through the criminal case.

195 (2) If the prosecuting attorney elects to seek forfeiture of the claimant's interest in the 196 property through the criminal case, the information or indictment shall state that the claimant's
197 interest in the property is subject to forfeiture and the basis for the forfeiture.

198 (3) (a) Upon application of the prosecuting attorney, the court may enter restraining 199 orders or injunctions, or take other reasonable actions to preserve for forfeiture under this 200 section, any property subject to forfeiture if, after notice to known claimants and claimants who 201 can be identified after due diligence and who are known to have an interest in the property, and 202 after affording those persons an opportunity for a hearing, the court determines that:

203 (i) there is a substantial probability that the state will prevail on the issue of forfeiture
204 and that failure to enter the order will result in the property being sold, transferred, destroyed, 205 or removed from the jurisdiction of the court or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture; and

206 (ii) the need to preserve the availability of the property or prevent its sale, transfer, 207 destruction, or removal through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship against 208 any party against whom the order is to be entered.

209 (b) A temporary restraining order may be entered ex parte upon application of the 210 prosecuting attorney before or after an information or indictment has been filed with respect to 211 the property, if the prosecuting attorney demonstrates that:

212 (i) there is probable cause to believe that the property with respect to which the order is 213 sought would, in the event of a conviction, be subject to forfeiture under this section; and

214 (ii) provision of notice would jeopardize the availability of the property for forfeiture
215 or would jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation.

216 (c) The temporary order expires not more than 10 days after entry unless extended for 217 good cause shown or unless the party against whom it is entered consents to an extension.

218 (d) After service of the temporary order upon any claimants known to the prosecuting 219 attorney, a hearing concerning the order entered under this section shall be held as soon as 220 practicable and prior to the expiration of the temporary order.

221 (e) The court is not bound by the Utah Rules of Evidence regarding evidence it may 222 receive and consider at any hearing under this section.

223 (4) (a) Upon conviction of a claimant for conduct giving rise to criminal forfeiture, the 224 prosecutor shall ask the finder of fact to make a specific finding as to whether the property or 225 any part of it is subject to forfeiture.

226 (b) A determination of whether property is subject to forfeiture under this section shall 227 be proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

228 (5) (a) Upon conviction of a claimant for violating any provision of state law
229 subjecting a claimant's property to forfeiture and a finding by the trier of fact that the property 230 is subject to forfeiture, the court shall enter a judgment and order the property forfeited to the 231 state upon the terms stated by the court in its order.

232 (b) Following the entry of an order declaring property forfeited, the court may, upon 233 application of the prosecuting attorney, enter appropriate restraining orders or injunctions,
234 require the execution of satisfactory performance bonds, appoint receivers, conservators,
235 appraisers, accountants, or trustees, or take any other action to protect the interest of the state in 236 property ordered forfeited.

237 (6) (a) (i) After property is ordered forfeited under this section, the seizing agency shall 238 direct the disposition of the property under Section 24-4-115.

239 (ii) Any property right or interest under this Subsection (6)(a) not exercisable by or 240 transferable for value to the state expires and does not revert to the defendant.

241 (iii) The defendant or any person acting in concert with or on behalf of the defendant is 242 not eligible to purchase forfeited property at any sale held by the seizing agency unless 243 approved by the judge.

244 (b) The court may stay the sale or disposition of the property pending the conclusion of

245 any appeal of the criminal case giving rise to the forfeiture if the defendant demonstrates that 246 proceeding with the sale or disposition of the property may result in irreparable injury, harm, or 247 loss.

248 (7) Except as provided under Subsection (3) or (10), a party claiming an interest in 249 property subject to forfeiture under this section:

250 (a) may not intervene in a trial or appeal of a criminal case involving the forfeiture of 251 property under this section; and 252 (b) may not commence an action at law or equity concerning the validity of the party's 253 alleged interests in the property subsequent to the filing of an indictment or an information

254 alleging that the property is subject to forfeiture under this section.

255 (8) The district court that has jurisdiction of a case under this part may enter orders 256 under this section without regard to the location of any property that may be subject to 257 forfeiture under this section or that has been ordered forfeited under this section.

258 (9) To facilitate the identification or location of property declared forfeited and to 259 facilitate the disposition of petitions for remission or mitigation of forfeiture after the entry of 260 an order declaring property forfeited to the state, the court may, upon application of the 261 prosecuting attorney, order that the testimony of any witness relating to the forfeited property
262 be taken by deposition, and that any book, paper, document, record, recording, or other 263 material shall be produced as provided for depositions and discovery under the Utah Rules of 264 Civil Procedure.

265 (10) (a) (i) Following the entry of an order of forfeiture under this section, the 266 prosecuting attorney shall publish notice of the order's intent to dispose of the property by 267 [electronic] publication. Service by publication shall be by publication of two notices, in two 268 successive weeks, of the forfeiture proceeding:

269 (A) in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the seizure occurred;
270 and

271 (B) on Utah's Public Legal Notice Website established in Subsection 45-1-101(2)(b).

272 (ii) The prosecuting attorney shall also send written notice to any claimants, other than 273 the defendant, known to the prosecuting attorney to have an interest in the property, at the 274 claimant's known address.

275 (b) (i) Any claimant, other than the defendant, asserting a legal interest in property that

276 has been ordered forfeited to the state under this section may, within 30 days after the notice
277 has been published or the claimant receives the written notice under Subsection (10)(a),
278 whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the claimant's
279 alleged interest in the property.

280 (ii) Any genuine issue of material fact, including issues of standing, may be tried to a
281 jury upon demand of any party.

282 (c) The petition shall:

283 (i) be in writing and signed by the claimant under penalty of perjury;

284 (ii) set forth the nature and extent of the claimant's right, title, or interest in the 285 property, the time and circumstances of the claimant's acquisition of the right, title, or interest 286 in the property; and

287 (iii) set forth any additional facts supporting the claimant's claim and the relief sought.

288 (d) The trial or hearing on the petition shall be expedited to the extent practicable. The 289 court may consolidate a trial or hearing on the petition and any petition filed by any claimant
290 other than the defendant under this section. The court shall permit the parties to conduct 291 pretrial discovery pursuant to the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

292 (e) (i) At the trial or hearing, the claimant may testify and present evidence and 293 witnesses on the claimant's own behalf and cross-examine witnesses who appear at the hearing.
294 The prosecuting attorney may present evidence and witnesses in rebuttal and in defense of the 295 claim to the property and cross-examine witnesses who appear.

296 (ii) In addition to testimony and evidence presented at the trial or hearing, the court 297 may consider the relevant portion of the record of the criminal case that resulted in the order of 298 forfeiture.

299 (iii) Any trial or hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the Utah Rules of Evidence.

300 (f) The court shall amend the order of forfeiture in accordance with its determination, if 301 after the trial or hearing, the court or jury determines that the petitioner has established by a 302 preponderance of the evidence that:

303 (i) the claimant has a legal right, title, or interest in the property, and the right, title, or 304 interest renders the order of forfeiture invalid in whole or in part because the right, title, or 305 interest was vested in the claimant rather than the defendant or was superior to any right, title,
306 or interest of the defendant at the time of the commission of the acts or conduct that gave rise

307 to the forfeiture of the property under this section; or

308 (ii) the claimant acquired the right, title, or interest in the property in a bona fide 309 transaction for value, and, at the time of acquisition, the claimant did not know that the 310 property was subject to forfeiture.

311 (g) Following the court's disposition of all petitions filed under this Subsection (10), or 312 if no petitions are filed following the expiration of the period provided in Subsection (10)(b)
313 for the filing of petitions, the state has clear title to property subject to the order of forfeiture
314 and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

315 Section 4. Section 24-4-110 is amended to read:

316 24-4-110. Attorney fees and costs.

317 (1) In any forfeiture proceeding under this chapter, the court [~~may~~] shall award a 318 prevailing [~~party~~] property owner reasonable:

319 (a) legal costs; and

320 (b) attorney fees.

321 (2) The legal costs and attorney fees awarded by the court to the prevailing party may 322 not exceed 20% of the value of the property.

323 (3) A [~~party~~] property owner that prevails only in part is entitled to recover reasonable 324 legal costs and attorney fees only on those issues on which the party prevailed.

325 Section 5. Section 24-4-114 is amended to read:

326 24-4-114. Transfer and sharing procedures.

327 (1) (a) Seizing agencies or prosecuting attorneys authorized to bring forfeiture 328 proceedings under this chapter may not directly or indirectly transfer property held for 329 forfeiture and not already named in a criminal indictment to any federal agency or any 330 governmental entity not created under and subject to state law ~~unless~~ the court enters an 331 order, upon petition of the prosecuting attorney, authorizing the property to be transferred.

332 (b) The court may not enter an order authorizing a transfer under Subsection (1)(a) 333 unless:

334 (i) the conduct giving rise to the investigation or seizure is interstate in nature and 335 sufficiently complex to justify the transfer;

336 (ii) the property may only be forfeited under federal law; or

337 (iii) pursuing forfeiture under state law would unreasonably burden prosecuting

338 attorneys or state law enforcement agencies.

339 ~~[(b) In making a determination under this section, a court may conduct an in camera~~
340 ~~inspection of evidence provided by the prosecuting attorney or seizing agency.]~~

341 (c) A petition to transfer property to a federal agency under this section shall include:

342 (i) a detailed description of the property seized;

343 (ii) the location where the property was seized;

344 (iii) the date the property was seized;

345 (iv) the case number assigned by the seizing law enforcement agency; and

346 (v) a declaration that:

347 (A) states the basis for relinquishing jurisdiction to a federal agency;

348 (B) contains the names and addresses of any claimants then known; and 349 (C) is signed by the prosecutor.

350 (d) The court may not authorize the transfer of property to the federal government if 351 the transfer would circumvent the protections of the Utah Constitution or of this chapter that 352 would otherwise be available to the property owner.

353 (e) (i) Prior to granting any order to transfer pursuant to this section, the court shall 354 give any claimant the right to be heard with regard to the transfer by the mailing of a notice to 355 each address contained in the declaration.

356 (ii) If no claimant objects to the petition to transfer property within 10 days of the 357 mailing of the notice, the court shall issue its order under this section.

358 (iii) If the declaration does not include an address for a claimant, the court shall delay 359 its order under this section for 20 days to allow time for the claimant to appear and make an 360 objection.

361 (f) (i) If a claimant contests a petition to transfer property to a federal agency, the court
362 shall promptly set the matter for hearing.

363 (ii) (A) The court shall determine whether the state may relinquish jurisdiction by a
364 standard of preponderance of the evidence.

365 (B) In making the determination, the court shall consider evidence regarding hardship,
366 complexity, judicial and law enforcement resources, and any other matter the court determines 367 to be relevant.

368 (2) All property, money, or other things of value received by an agency pursuant to

369 federal law, which authorizes the sharing or transfer of all or a portion of forfeited property or 370 the proceeds of the sale of forfeited property to an agency:

371 (a) shall be used in compliance with federal laws and regulations relating to equitable 372 sharing;

373 (b) may be used for those law enforcement purposes specified in Subsection 374 24-4-117(9); and

375 (c) may not be used for those law enforcement purposes prohibited in Subsection 376 24-4-117(10).

377 (3) A state or local law enforcement agency awarded any equitable share of property
378 forfeited by the federal government may only use the award money after approval of the use by 379 the agency's legislative body.

380 (4) Each year, every agency awarded any equitable share of property forfeited by the 381 federal government shall file with the commission:

382 (a) a copy of that agency's federal equitable sharing certification; and

383 (b) information, on a form provided by the commission, that details all awards received 384 from the federal government during the preceding reporting period, including:

385 (i) the agency's case number or other identification;

386 (ii) the amount of the award;

387 (iii) the date of the award;

388 (iv) the identity of any federal agency involved in the forfeiture;

389 (v) how the awarded property has been used; and

390 (vi) a statement signed by both the agency's executive officer or designee and by the 391 agency's legal counsel confirming that the agency has only used the awarded property for crime
392 reduction or law enforcement purposes authorized under Section 24-4-117, and only upon 393 approval by the agency's legislative body.

394 Section 6. Section 24-4-115 is amended to read:

395 24-4-115. Disposition and allocation of forfeiture property.

396 (1) Upon finding that property is subject to forfeiture under this chapter, the court shall 397 order the property forfeited to the state.

398 (2) (a) If the property is not currency, the seizing agency shall authorize a public or 399 otherwise commercially reasonable sale of that property that is not required by law to be 400 destroyed and that is not harmful to the public.

401 (b) If the property forfeited is an alcoholic product as defined in Section 32B-1-102, it
402 shall be disposed of as follows:

403 (i) an alcoholic product shall be sold if the alcoholic product is:

404 (A) unadulterated, pure, and free from any crude, unrectified, or impure form of ethylic 405 alcohol, or any other deleterious substance or liquid; and

406 (B) otherwise in saleable condition; or

407 (ii) an alcoholic product and its package shall be destroyed if the alcoholic product is 408 impure, adulterated, or otherwise unfit for sale.

409 (c) If the property forfeited is a cigarette or other tobacco product as defined in Section
410 59-14-102, it shall be destroyed, except that prior to the destruction of any cigarette or other 411 tobacco product seized pursuant to this part, the lawful holder of the trademark rights in the 412 cigarette or tobacco product brand shall be permitted to inspect the cigarette.
