	Section 1. Section 62A-7-201 is amended to read:
	62A-7-201. Confinement Facilities Restrictions.
	(1) Children under 18 years of age, who are apprehended by any officer or brought
1	before any court for examination under any provision of state law, may not be confined in jails, lockups, or cells used for persons 18 years of age or older who are charged with crime, or in

	[in a jail or other place of detention used for adults] as provided in these sections.
	(b) Children detained in adult facilities under Section 78A-6-702 or 78A-6-703 prior to a hearing before a magistrate, or under Subsection 78A-6-113(3), may only be held in certified

,	The provisions of this Subsection (2)(b) do not apply to juveniles held in an adult detention facility in accordance with Subsection (2)(a).
	(3) In areas of low density population, the division may, by rule, approve juvenile
]	holding accommodations within adult facilities that have acceptable sight and sound
;	separation. Those facilities shall be used only for short-term holding purposes, with a
1	maximum confinement of six hours, for children alleged to have committed an act which

- would be a criminal offense if committed by an adult. Acceptable short-term holding purposes are: identification, notification of juvenile court officials, processing, and allowance of adequate time for evaluation of needs and circumstances regarding release or transfer to a shelter or detention facility. The provisions of this Subsection (3) do not apply to juveniles held in an adult detention facility in accordance with Subsection (2)(a).
- (4) Children who are alleged to have committed an act which would be a criminal offense if committed by an adult, may be detained in holding rooms in local law enforcement agency facilities for a maximum of two hours, for identification or interrogation, or while awaiting release to a parent or other responsible adult. Those rooms shall be certified by the division, according to the division's rules. Those rules shall include provisions for constant supervision and for sight and sound separation from adult inmates.
- (5) Willful failure to comply with any of the provisions of this section is a class B misdemeanor.
- (6) (a) The division is responsible for the custody and detention of children under 18 years of age who require detention care prior to trial or examination, or while awaiting assignment to a home or facility, as a dispositional placement under Subsection 78A-6-117(2)(f)(i) or 78A-6-1101(3)(a), and of youth offenders under Subsection 62A-7-504(8). The provisions of this Subsection (6)(a) do not apply to juveniles held in an adult detention facility in accordance with Subsection (2)(a).
- (b) The division shall provide standards for custody or detention under Subsections (2)(b), (3), and (4), and shall determine and set standards for conditions of care and confinement of children in detention facilities.
- (c) All other custody or detention shall be provided by the division, or by contract with a public or private agency willing to undertake temporary custody or detention upon agreed terms, or in suitable premises distinct and separate from the general jails, lockups, or cells used in law enforcement and corrections systems. The provisions of this Subsection (6)(c) do not apply to juveniles held in an adult detention facility in accordance with Subsection (2)(a).
 - Section 2. Section 78A-6-122 is enacted to read:
 - 78A-6-122. Restraint of juveniles.
- (1) As used in this section, "restrained" means the use of handcuffs, chains, shackles, zip ties, irons, straightjackets, and any other device or method which may be used to 90	immobilize a juvenile.

91	(2) A juvenile may not be restrained during a court proceeding unless restraint is
92	ordered by the court.
93	Section 3. Section 78A-6-701 is amended to read:
94	78A-6-701. Jurisdiction of district court.
95	(1) The district court has exclusive original jurisdiction over all persons 16 years of age
96	or older charged with:
97	(a) an offense which would be murder or aggravated murder if committed by an adult;
98	[or]
99	(b) [an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult] if the minor has
100	been previously committed to a secure facility as defined in Section 62A-7-101[. This
101	Subsection (1)(b) shall not apply if the offense is committed in a secure facility.], a felony
102	violation of:
103	(i) Section 76-6-103, aggravated arson;
104	(ii) Section 76-5-103, aggravated assault resulting in serious bodily injury to another;
105	(iii) Section 76-5-302, aggravated kidnapping;
106	(iv) Section 76-6-203, aggravated burglary;
107	(v) Section 76-6-302, aggravated robbery;

111	(ix) Section 76-5-203, attempted murder; or
112	(c) an offense other than those listed in Subsection (1)(b) involving the use of a
113	dangerous weapon, which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and the minor has been
114	previously adjudicated or convicted of an offense involving the use of a dangerous weapon,
115	which also would have been a felony if committed by an adult.
116	(2) When the district court has exclusive original jurisdiction over a minor under this
117	section, it also has exclusive original jurisdiction over the minor regarding all offenses joined
118	with the qualifying offense, and any other offenses, including misdemeanors, arising from the
119	same criminal episode. The district court is not divested of jurisdiction by virtue of the fact
120	that the minor is allowed to enter a plea to, or is found guilty of, a lesser or joined offense.

- (3) (a) Any felony, misdemeanor, or infraction committed after the offense over which the district court takes jurisdiction under Subsection (1) or (2) shall be tried against the defendant as an adult in the district court or justice court having jurisdiction.
- (b) If the qualifying charge under Subsection (1) results in an acquittal, a finding of not guilty, or a dismissal of the charge in the district court, the juvenile court under Section 78A-6-103 and the Division of Juvenile Justice Services regain any jurisdiction and authority previously exercised over the minor.
- (4) A minor arrested under this section shall be held in a juvenile detention facility until the district court determines where the minor shall be held until the time of trial, except for defendants who are otherwise subject to the authority of the Board of Pardons and Parole.
- (5) The district court shall consider the following when determining where the minor will be held until the time of trial:
 - (a) the age of the minor;

 - (1) Any action filed by a county attorney, district attorney, or attorney general charging a minor 16 years of age or older with a felony [shall] may be by criminal information and filed in the juvenile court if the minor was a principal actor in the offense and the information charges any of the following offenses:
- 166 (a) any felony violation of:
 - (i) Section 76-6-103, aggravated arson;
 - (ii) Section 76-5-103, aggravated assault resulting in serious bodily injury to another;

- 175 (ix) Section 76-5-203, attempted murder; or
 - (b) an offense other than those listed in Subsection (1)(a) involving the use of a dangerous weapon, which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and the minor has been previously adjudicated or convicted of an offense involving the use of a dangerous weapon, which also would have been a felony if committed by an adult.
 - (2) All proceedings before the juvenile court related to charges filed under Subsection (1) shall be conducted in conformity with the rules established by the Utah Supreme Court.
- 182 (3) (a) If the information alleges the violation of a felony listed in Subsection (1), the state shall have the burden of going forward with its case and the burden of proof to establish probable cause to believe that one of the crimes listed in Subsection (1) has been committed and that the defendant committed it. If proceeding under Subsection (1)(b), the state shall have the additional burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has previously been adjudicated or convicted of an offense involving the use of a dangerous weapon.

- (b) If the juvenile court judge finds the state has met its burden under this Subsection (3), the court shall order that the defendant be bound over and held to answer in the district court in the same manner as an adult unless the juvenile court judge finds that it would be contrary to the best interest of the minor and to the public to bind over the defendant to the jurisdiction of the district court.
- (c) In making the bind over determination in Subsection (3)(b), the judge shall consider only the following:
- (i) whether the minor has been previously adjudicated delinquent for an offense involving the use of a dangerous weapon which would be a felony if committed by an adult;
- (ii) if the offense was committed with one or more other persons, whether the minor appears to have a greater or lesser degree of culpability than the codefendants;
- (iii) the extent to which the minor's role in the offense was committed in a violent, aggressive, or premeditated manner;
 - (iv) the number and nature of the minor's prior adjudications in the juvenile court; and
- (v) whether public safety [is] and the interests of the minor are better served by adjudicating the minor in the juvenile court or in the district court, including whether the resources of the adult system or juvenile system are more likely to assist in rehabilitating the minor and reducing the threat which the minor presents to the public.
- (d) Once the state has met its burden under Subsection (3)(a) as to a showing of probable cause, the defendant shall have the burden of going forward and presenting evidence that in light of the considerations listed in Subsection (3)(c), it would be contrary to the best interest of the minor and the best interests of the public to bind the defendant over to the jurisdiction of the district court.
- (e) If the juvenile court judge finds by [clear and convincing] a preponderance of evidence that it would be contrary to the best interest of the minor and the best interests of the

- (4) If the juvenile court judge finds that an offense has been committed, but that the state has not met its burden of proving the other criteria needed to bind the defendant over under Subsection (1), the juvenile court judge shall order the defendant held for trial as a minor and shall proceed upon the information as though it were a juvenile petition.
- (5) At the time of a bind over to district court a criminal warrant of arrest shall issue. The defendant shall have the same right to bail as any other criminal defendant and shall be advised of that right by the juvenile court judge. The juvenile court shall set initial bail in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 20, Bail.
- (6) At the time the minor is bound over to the district court, the juvenile court shall make the initial determination on where the minor shall be held.
- (7) The juvenile court shall consider the following when determining where the minor shall be held until the time of trial:
 - (a) the age of the minor;
 - (b) the nature, seriousness, and circumstances of the alleged offense;
 - (c) the minor's history of prior criminal acts;
- (d) whether detention in a juvenile detention facility will adequately serve the need for community protection pending the outcome of any criminal proceedings;

- (11) A minor 16 years of age or older whose conduct or condition endangers the safety or welfare of others in the juvenile detention facility may, by court order that specifies the reasons, be detained in another place of pretrial confinement considered appropriate by the court, including jail or other place of confinement for adults.
- (12) The district court may reconsider the decision on where the minor will be held pursuant to Subsection (6).
- (13) If an indictment is returned by a grand jury charging a violation under this section, the preliminary examination held by the juvenile court judge need not include a finding of probable cause that the crime alleged in the indictment was committed and that the defendant committed it, but the juvenile court shall proceed in accordance with this section regarding the additional considerations listed in Subsection (3)(b).
- (14) When a defendant is charged with multiple criminal offenses in the same information or indictment and is bound over to answer in the district court for one or more charges under this section, other offenses arising from the same criminal episode and any subsequent misdemeanors or felonies charged against him shall be considered together with those charges, and where the court finds probable cause to believe that those crimes have been committed and that the defendant committed them, the defendant shall also be bound over to the district court to answer for those charges.
- (15) When a minor has been bound over to the district court under this section, the jurisdiction of the Division of Juvenile Justice Services and the juvenile court over the minor is terminated regarding that offense, any other offenses arising from the same criminal episode, and any subsequent misdemeanors or felonies charged against the minor, except as provided in Subsection (19) or Section 78A-6-705.

276 (16) A minor who is bound over to answer as an adult in the district court under this 277 section or on whom an indictment has been returned by a grand jury is not entitled to a 278 preliminary examination in the district court. 279 (17) Allegations contained in the indictment or information that the defendant has 280 previously been adjudicated or convicted of an offense involving the use of a dangerous

- (17) Allegations contained in the indictment or information that the defendant has previously been adjudicated or convicted of an offense involving the use of a dangerous weapon, or is 16 years of age or older, are not elements of the criminal offense and do not need to be proven at trial in the district court.
- (18) If a minor enters a plea to, or is found guilty of, any of the charges filed or any other offense arising from the same criminal episode, the district court retains jurisdiction over the minor for all purposes, including sentencing.

- (2) At the preliminary hearing the state shall have the burden of going forward with its case and the burden of establishing:
- (a) probable cause to believe that a crime was committed and that the defendant committed it; and
- (b) by a preponderance of the evidence, that it would be contrary to the best interests of the minor or of the public for the juvenile court to retain jurisdiction.
- (3) In considering whether or not it would be contrary to the best interests of the minor or of the public for the juvenile court to retain jurisdiction, the juvenile court shall consider, and may base its decision on, the finding of one or more of the following factors:
- (a) the seriousness of the offense and whether the protection of the community requires isolation of the minor beyond that afforded by juvenile facilities;
 - (b) whether the alleged offense was committed by the minor under circumstances which would subject the minor to enhanced penalties under Section 76-3-203.1 if the minor were adult and the offense was committed:

- (i) in concert with two or more persons;
- (ii) for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with any criminal street gang as defined in Section 76-9-802; or

- (e) the maturity of the minor as determined by considerations of the minor's home, environment, emotional attitude, and pattern of living;
 - (f) the record and previous history of the minor;
- (g) the likelihood of rehabilitation of the minor by use of facilities available to the juvenile court;
- (h) the desirability of trial and disposition of the entire offense in one court when the minor's associates in the alleged offense are adults who will be charged with a crime in the district court;
 - (i) whether the minor used a firearm in the commission of an offense; and
- (j) whether the minor possessed a dangerous weapon on or about school premises as provided in Section 76-10-505.5.
- (4) The amount of weight to be given to each of the factors listed in Subsection (3) is discretionary with the court.
- (5) (a) Written reports and other materials relating to the minor's mental, physical, educational, and social history may be considered by the court.
- (b) If requested by the minor, the minor's parent, guardian, or other interested party, the court shall require the person or agency preparing the report and other material to appear and be subject to both direct and cross-examination.
- (6) At the conclusion of the state's case, the minor may testify under oath, call witnesses, cross-examine adverse witnesses, and present evidence on the factors required by

 - (b) directing that the minor be held for criminal proceedings in the district court.
- (15) If an indictment is returned by a grand jury, the preliminary examination held by the juvenile court need not include a finding of probable cause, but the juvenile court shall proceed in accordance with this section regarding the additional consideration referred to in Subsection (2)(b).

405	the Division of Juvenile Justice Services regarding the potential risk to other juveniles if the
406	minor were to be committed to the custody of the division. The division shall submit the
407	requested report to the court as part of the pre-sentence report or as a separate report.
408	(2) If, after receiving the report described in Subsection (1), the court determines that
409	probation is not appropriate and commitment to prison is an appropriate sentence, the court
410	shall order the minor committed to prison and the minor shall be provisionally housed in a
411	secure facility operated by the Division of Juvenile Justice Services until the minor reaches 18
412	years of age, unless released earlier from incarceration by the Board of Pardons and Parole.
