Part 2. Government Entities Prohibited from Certain Burdens on

Religious Beliefs about Marriage, Family, or Sexuality

63G-20-201. Provisions governing solemnizing or recognizing a marriage --

Prohibition against employment actions.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a state or local government or a state or local government official may not:

(a) require a religious official, when acting as such, or religious organization to solemnize or recognize a marriage that is contrary to that religious official's or religious organization's religious beliefs;

(b) if the religious official or religious organization is authorized to solemnize a

marriage by Section 30-1-6, deny a religious official, when acting as such, or religious organization the authority to legally solemnize a legal marriage based on the religious official's or religious organization's refusal to solemnize any legal marriage that is contrary to the religious official's or religious organization's religious beliefs:

(c) require a religious official, when acting as such, or religious organization to provide goods, accommodations, advantages, privileges, services, facilities, or grounds for activities connected with the solemnization or celebration of a marriage that is contrary to that religious official's or religious organization's religious beliefs; or

(d) require a religious official, when acting as such, or religious organization to promote marriage through religious programs, counseling, courses, or retreats in a way that is contrary to that religious official's or religious organization's religious beliefs.

(2) Except as required by Section 17-20-4, and notwithstanding any other provision of law other than Section 17-20-4, a state or local government or a state or local government official may not terminate, discriminate against, discipline, penalize, retaliate against, reprimand, censure, or otherwise disadvantage an officer or employee of the state or local government for refusing to solemnize a marriage as authorized by Subsection 30-1-6(5).

Section 7. Section 63G-20-202 is enacted to read:

63G-20-202. Prohibition on government retaliation.

~~{(1)}~~ Notwithstanding any other law, a state or local government or a state or local government official may not engage in government retaliation against an individual, a religious official when acting as such, or a religious organization~~;~~

63G-20-204. Remedies -- Attorney fees and costs.

- (1) (a) A person aggrieved by a violation of this part may:
 - (i) file an extraordinary writ under Rule 19, Utah Rules of Appellate Procedure, to require a state or local government or a state or local government official to comply with the requirements of this part; or
 - (ii) seek removal of the local government official for malfeasance in office according to the procedures and requirements of Title 77, Chapter 6, Removal by Judicial Proceedings.
- (b) The court may award reasonable attorney fees and costs to the prevailing party.
- (2) (a) In addition to other remedies available under this section and civil or criminal law, a person aggrieved by a violation of this part may bring a civil action in district court by filing a sworn, written accusation detailing the violation.

(b) If the plaintiff establishes one or more violations of this part by a preponderance of the evidence, the court:

(i) shall grant the plaintiff appropriate legal or equitable relief; and

(ii) may award reasonable attorney fees and costs to the prevailing party.

Section 10. Section 63G-20-301 is enacted to read:

Part 3. Prohibitions on Certain Burdens on a Religious Official's or Religious Organization's Religious Beliefs about Marriage, Family, or Sexuality 63G-20-301. Prohibitions relating to refusing to solemnize a marriage.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an individual may not require a religious official, when acting as such, or religious organization to provide goods, accommodations, advantages, privileges, services, facilities, or grounds for activities connected with the solemnization or celebration of a marriage that is contrary to that religious official's or religious organization's religious beliefs about marriage, family, or sexuality.

Section 11. Section 63G-20-302 is enacted to read:

63G-20-302. Remedies -- Civil action -- Attorney fees and costs.

(1) In addition to any other remedies available under this section and civil or criminal law, a person aggrieved by a violation of this part may bring a civil action in district court by filing a sworn, written accusation detailing the violation.

(2) If the plaintiff establishes one or more violations of this part by a preponderance of the evidence, the court:

(a) shall grant the plaintiff appropriate legal or equitable relief; and

(b) may award reasonable attorney fees and costs to the prevailing party.

Section 12. Section 63G-20-303 is enacted to read:

63G-20-303. Severability clause.

If any provision of this bill or its application to any person or circumstance is found to be unconstitutional, or in conflict with or superseded by federal law, the remainder of the bill and the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected by the finding.

Section 13. Revisor instructions.

It is the intent of the Legislature that, in preparing the Utah Code database for publication, the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel shall replace the phrases "this bill" and "the bill" in Section 63G-20-303 with the bills designated chapter number in the 2015 Laws of Utah.

SB0297S01 compared with SB0297
