78A-7-203, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2012, Chapter 205

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 78A-7-201 is amended to read:

78A-7-201. Justice court judge eligibility -- Mandatory retirement.

(1) A justice court judge shall be:

(a) a citizen of the United States;

(b) 25 years of age or older;

(c) a resident of Utah for at least three years immediately preceding his appointment;

(d) a resident of the county in which the court is located or an adjacent county for at least six months immediately preceding appointment; and

(e) a qualified voter of the county in which the judge resides.

(2) [Justice] Effective May 10, 2016, a justice court [judges are] judge is not required to be admitted to practice law in the state as a qualification to hold office but;

(a) in counties of the first ~~1, 2~~ and second ~~1, 2, and 3~~ class, a justice court judge shall have a degree from a law school that makes one eligible to apply for admission to a bar in any state; and

(b) in counties of the ~~1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6~~ third, fourth, fifth, and sixth class, a justice court judge shall have at the minimum a diploma of graduation from high school or its equivalent.

(3) A justice court judge shall be a person who has demonstrated maturity of judgment, integrity, and the ability to understand and apply appropriate law with impartiality.

(4) [Justice] A court [judges] judge shall retire upon attaining the age of 75 years.

(5) In counties of the first ~~1, 2~~ and second ~~1, 2, and 3~~ class, if there are not at least three applicants for a justice court judge position who meet the requirements of Subsection (2)(a), the justice court nominating commission shall re-advertise the position, and may accept applications from persons who do not meet the requirements of Subsections (1)(d) and (2)(a).

(6) (a) In accordance with Subsection 78A-7-202(3), the Administrative Office of the Courts shall provide notice to all attorneys in the county and adjacent counties when a justice court judge position is vacant.

(b) If the justice court nominating commission waives the requirement of Subsection (1)(d) in accordance with Subsection (5), the Administrative Office of the Courts shall provide notice to all attorneys in the state.

(7) A justice court judge sitting on the bench on May 10, 2016 who does not meet the qualification in Subsection (2)(a) may continue in the judge's position until the judge resigns, retires, is not retained in a retention election, or is removed from office.

Section 2. Section 78A-7-203 is amended to read:

78A-7-203. Term of office for justice court judge -- Retention -- Reduction in force.

(1) The term of a justice court judge is six years beginning the first Monday in January following the date of election.

(2) Upon the expiration of a justice court judge's term of office, the judge shall be subject to an unopposed retention election in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 20A-12-201:

(a) in the county or counties in which the court to which the judge is appointed is located if the judge is a county justice court judge or a municipal justice court judge in a town or city of the fourth or fifth class; or

(b) in the municipality in which the court to which the judge is appointed is located if the judge is a municipal justice court judge and Subsection (2)(a) does not apply.

(3) Before each retention election, each justice court judge shall be evaluated in accordance with the performance evaluation program established in Title 78A, Chapter 12, Judicial Performance Evaluation Commission Act.

(4) Notwithstanding Subsection (3), each justice court judge who is subject to a retention election in 2012, 2014, and 2016, and who is not a full-time justice court judge on July 1, 2012, shall be evaluated by the Judicial Performance Evaluation Commission according to the following performance standards:

(a) the justice court judge shall have at least 30 annual hours of continuing legal
