Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 34-51-101 is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 51. POST-EMPLOYMENT RESTRICTIONS ACT

Part 1. General Provisions

34-51-101. Title.

This chapter is known as the "Post-Employment Restrictions Act."

Section 2. Section 34-51-102 is enacted to read:

34-51-102. Definition.

As used in this chapter, "post-employment restrictive covenant," also known as a "covenant not to compete" or "non compete agreement," means an agreement, written or oral, ~~{express or implied, }~~ between an employer and employee under which the employee agrees that the employee, either alone or as an employee of another person, will not compete with the employer in providing products, processes, or services that are similar to the employer's products, processes, or services.

Section 3. Section 34-51-201 is enacted to read:

Part 2. Scope of Post-Employment Restrictions

34-51-201. Post-employment restrictive covenants.

An employer and an employee may not enter into a post-employment restrictive covenant for a period of more than one year from the day on which the employee is no longer employed by the employer. A post-employment restrictive covenant that violates this section is void.

Section 4. Section 34-51-301 is enacted to read:

Part 3. Remedies

34-51-301. Award of arbitration costs, attorney fees and court costs, and damages.

~~fff~~(1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, if an employer ~~that~~ seeks to enforce a post-employment restrictive covenant through arbitration or by filing a civil action and it is determined that the post-employment restrictive covenant is unenforceable ~~for any reason~~, the employer is liable for the employee's:

~~(1)~~a) costs associated with arbitration;

~~(2)~~b) attorney fees and court costs; and

~~(3)~~c) actual damages.

~~(2) This section only applies to an employer who employs 20 or more employees within the state for each working day in each of 20 calendar weeks or more in the current or preceding calendar year.~~
