Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 63G-2-201 is amended to read:

63G-2-201. Right to inspect records and receive copies of records.

(1) Every person has the right to inspect a public record free of charge, and the right to take a copy of a public record during normal working hours, subject to Sections 63G-2-203 and 63G-2-204.

(2) A record is public unless otherwise expressly provided by statute.

(3) The following records are not public:

(a) a record that is private, controlled, or protected under Sections 63G-2-302, 63G-2-303, 63G-2-304, and 63G-2-305; and

(b) a record to which access is restricted pursuant to court rule, another state statute, federal statute, or federal regulation, including records for which access is governed or restricted as a condition of participation in a state or federal program or for receiving state or federal funds.

HB0300S01 compared with HB0300

(4) Only a record specified in Section 63G-2-302, 63G-2-303, 63G-2-304, or 63G-2-305 may be classified private, controlled, or protected.

(5) (a) A governmental entity may not disclose a record that is private, controlled, or protected to any person except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), Subsection (5)(c), Section 63G-2-202, 63G-2-206, or 63G-2-303.

(b) A governmental entity may disclose a record that is private under Subsection 63G-2-302(2) or protected under Section 63G-2-305 to persons other than those specified in Section 63G-2-202 or 63G-2-206 if the head of a governmental entity, or a designee, determines that:

(i) there is no interest in restricting access to the record; or

(ii) the interests favoring access are greater than or equal to the interest favoring restriction of access.

(c) In addition to the disclosure under Subsection (5)(b), a governmental entity may disclose a record that is protected under Subsection 63G-2-305(51) if:

(i) the head of the governmental entity, or a designee, determines that the disclosure:

(A) is mutually beneficial to:

(I) the subject of the record;

(II) the governmental entity; and

(III) the public; and

(B) serves a public purpose related to:

(I) public safety; or

(II) consumer protection; and

(ii) the person who receives the record from the governmental entity agrees not to use or allow the use of the record for advertising or solicitation purposes.

(6) (a) The disclosure of a record to which access is governed or limited pursuant to court rule, another state statute, federal statute, or federal regulation, including a record for which access is governed or limited as a condition of participation in a state or federal program or for receiving state or federal funds, is governed by the specific provisions of that statute, rule, or regulation.

(b) This chapter applies to records described in Subsection (6)(a) insofar as this chapter is not inconsistent with the statute, rule, or regulation.

HB0300S01 compared with HB0300

- (7) A governmental entity shall provide a person with a certified copy of a record if:
- (a) the person requesting the record has a right to inspect it;
  - (b) the person identifies the record with reasonable specificity; and
  - (c) the person pays the lawful fees.
- (8) (a) In response to a request, a governmental entity is not required to:
- (i) create a record;
  - (ii) compile, format, manipulate, package, summarize, or tailor information;
  - (iii) provide a record in a particular format, medium, or program not currently maintained by the governmental entity;
  - (iv) fulfill a person's records request if the request unreasonably duplicates prior records requests from that person; or
  - (v) fill a person's records request if:
    - (A) the record requested is accessible in the identical physical form and content in a public publication or product produced by the governmental entity receiving the request;
    - (B) the governmental entity provides the person requesting the record with the public publication or product; and
    - (C) the governmental entity specifies where the record can be found in the public publication or product.
- (b) Upon request, a governmental entity may provide a record in a particular form under Subsection (8)(a)(ii) or (iii) if:
- (i) the governmental entity determines it is able to do so without unreasonably interfering with the governmental entity's duties and responsibilities; and
  - (ii) the requester agrees to pay the governmental entity for providing the record in the requested form in accordance with Section 63G-2-203.
- (9) (a) A governmental entity may allow a person requesting more than 50 pages of records to copy the records if:
- (i) the records are contained in files that do not contain records that are exempt from disclosure, or the records may be segregated to remove private, protected, or controlled information from disclosure; and
  - (ii) the governmental entity provides reasonable safeguards to protect the public from the potential for loss of a public record.

HB0300S01 compared with HB0300

(b) When the requirements of Subsection (9)(a) are met, the governmental entity may:

(i) provide the requester with the facilities for copying the requested records and require that the requester make the copies; or

(ii) allow the requester to provide the requester's own copying facilities and personnel to make the copies at the governmental entity's offices and waive the fees for copying the records.

(10) (a) A governmental entity that owns an intellectual property right and that offers the intellectual property right for sale or license may control by ordinance or policy the duplication and distribution of the material based on terms the governmental entity considers to be in the public interest.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit or impair the rights or protections granted to the governmental entity under federal copyright or patent law as a result of its ownership of the intellectual property right.

(11) A governmental entity may not use the physical form, electronic or otherwise, in which a record is stored to deny, or unreasonably hinder the rights of a person to inspect and receive a copy of a record under this chapter.

(12) Subject to the requirements of Subsection (8), a governmental entity shall provide access to an electronic copy of a record in lieu of providing access to its paper equivalent if:

(a) the person making the request requests or states a preference for an electronic copy;

(b) the governmental entity currently maintains the record in an electronic format that is reproducible and may be provided without reformatting or conversion; and

(c) the electronic copy of the record:

(i) does not disclose other records that are exempt from disclosure; or

(ii) may be segregated to protect private, protected, or controlled information from disclosure without the undue expenditure of public resources or funds.

(13) In determining whether a record is properly classified as private under Subsection 63G-2-302(2)(d), the governmental entity, State Records Committee, local appeals board or court shall consider and weigh:

(a) any personal privacy interests, including those in images, that would be affected by disclosure of the records in question; and

(b) any public interests served by disclosure.

CHAPTER 7a. LAW ENFORCEMENT USE OF BODY-WORN CAMERAS

77-7a-101. Title.

This chapter is known as "Law Enforcement Use of Body-Worn Cameras."

Section 4. Section 77-7a-102 is enacted to read:

77-7a-102. Body-worn cameras -- Written policies and procedures.

(1) Any law enforcement agency that uses body-worn cameras shall have a written policy governing the use of body-worn cameras that is consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) (a) Any written policy regarding the use of body-worn cameras by a law enforcement agency shall, at a minimum<sup>f,t</sup>:

(i) comply with and include the requirements in this chapter; and

(ii) address the security, storage and maintenance of data collected from body-worn cameras.

(b) This chapter does not prohibit a law enforcement agency from adopting body-worn camera policies that are more expansive than the minimum guidelines provided in this chapter.

(3) This chapter does not require an officer to jeopardize the safety of the public, other law enforcement officers, or himself or herself in order to activate or deactivate a body-worn camera.

Section 5. Section 77-7a-103 is enacted to read:

77-7a-103. Definitions.

(1) (a) "Body-worn camera" means a video recording device that is carried by, or worn on the body of, a law enforcement officer and that is capable of recording the operations of the officer.

(b) "Body-worn camera" does not include a dashboard mounted camera or a camera intended to record clandestine investigation activities.

(2) "Law enforcement agency" means any public agency having general police power and charged with making arrests in connection with enforcement of the criminal statutes and ordinances of this state or any political subdivision.

HB0300S01 compared with HB0300

(3) "Law enforcement encounter" means:

(a) an enforcement stop;

(b) a dispatched call;

(c) a field interrogation or interview;

(d) use of force;

(e) execution of a warrant;

(f) a traffic stop, including:

(ii) stranded motorist assistance; and

(iii) any crime interdiction stop; or

(g) any other contact that becomes adversarial after the initial contact in a situation that would not otherwise require recording.

Section 6. Section 77-7a-104 is enacted to read:

77-7a-104. Activation and use of body-worn cameras.

(1) An officer using a body-worn camera shall verify that the equipment is properly functioning as is reasonably within the officer's ability.

(2) An officer shall report any malfunctioning equipment to the officer's supervisor if:

(a) the body-worn camera issued to the officer is not functioning properly upon initial inspection; or

(b) an officer determines that the officer's body-worn camera is not functioning properly at any time while the officer is on duty.

(3) An officer shall wear the body-worn camera so that it is clearly visible to the person being recorded.

(4) An officer shall activate the body-worn camera prior to any law enforcement encounter, or as soon as reasonably possible.

(5) An officer shall record in an uninterrupted manner until after the conclusion of a law enforcement encounter, except as an interruption of a recording is allowed under this section.

(6) When going on duty and off duty, an officer who is issued a body-worn camera shall record the officer's name, identification number, and the current time and date, unless the information is already available due to the functionality of the body-worn camera.

HB0300S01 compared with HB0300

(7) If a body-worn camera was present during a law enforcement encounter, the officer shall document the presence of the body-worn camera in any report or other official record of a contact.

(8) When a body-worn camera has been activated, the officer may not deactivate the body-worn camera until the officer's direct participation in the law enforcement encounter is complete, except as provided in Subsection (9).

(9) An officer may deactivate a body-worn camera:

(a) to consult with a supervisor or another officer;

(b) during a significant period of inactivity; and

(c) during a conversation with a sensitive victim of crime, a witness of a crime, or an individual who wishes to report or discuss criminal activity if:

(i) the individual who is the subject of the recording requests that the officer deactivate the officer's body-worn camera; and

(ii) the officer believes that the value of the information outweighs the value of the potential recording and records the request by the individual to deactivate the body-worn camera.

(10) If an officer deactivates a body-worn camera, the officer shall ~~+~~

~~(a) vocalize the purpose for which the body-worn camera is being deactivated so that the reason for deactivation is captured on the recording; and~~

~~(b) ~~+~~ document the reason for deactivating a body-worn camera in a written report.~~

Section 7. Section 77-7a-105 is enacted to read:

77-7a-105. Notice and privacy.

(1) When an officer with a body-worn camera enters a private residence, the officer shall give notice, when reasonable under the circumstances, to the occupants of the residence that a body-worn camera is in use ~~+~~ either by:

(a) wearing a body-worn camera in a clearly visible manner; or

(b) giving an audible notice that the officer is using a body-worn camera.

(2) An agency shall make the agency's policies regarding the use of body-worn cameras available to the public, and shall place the policies on the agency's public website when possible.

Section 8. Section 77-7a-106 is enacted to read:

HB0300S01 compared with HB0300

77-7a-106. Prohibited Activities.

An officer is prohibited from:

- (1) using a body-worn camera for personal use;
- (2) making a personal copy of a recording created while on duty or acting in an official capacity as a law enforcement officer;
- (3) retaining a recording of any activity or information obtained while on duty or acting in an official capacity as a law enforcement officer;
- (4) duplicating or distributing a recording except as authorized by the employing law enforcement agency; and
- (5) altering or deleting a recording in violation of this chapter.

Section 9. Section 77-7a-107 is enacted to read:

77-7a-107. Retention and release of recordings.

Any recording made by an officer while on duty or acting in the officer's official capacity as a law enforcement officer shall be retained in accordance with applicable federal, state, and local laws.
