- ▶ congratulates the Utah Farm Bureau on its 100 years of leadership and service to its members and the state.

Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, 100 years ago on December 4, 1916, farmers and ranchers from across the state gathered at the Hotel Utah in downtown Salt Lake City to create the Utah Farm Bureau Federation;

WHEREAS, these agricultural leaders laid the foundation for a state organization that continues to provide a voice for all farmers and ranchers in Utah, improve farm income, and give representation to our state's food producers;

28 WHEREAS, the Utah Farm Bureau was established to serve and strengthen agriculture,
29 supply valuable member services to family farms and ranches, and maximize production
30 agriculture's ability to engage in national, state, and local policy decisions;

31 WHEREAS, the Utah Farm Bureau is a true grassroots organization dedicated to 32 ensuring that agriculture remains healthy and vibrant;

33 WHEREAS, the Utah Farm Bureau achieves these goals through the organization's 34 unique individual member-driven policy development process and active legislative and 35 regulatory advocacy programs;

36 WHEREAS, the Utah Farm Bureau worked closely with Utah State University
37 Extension Service to provide valuable information from the land grant system to improve 38 production and farm income;

39 WHEREAS, in 1921, the Utah Farm Bureau established the Women's Program to focus
40 on farm life, rural community life, and leadership opportunities;

41 WHEREAS, in 1939, the Utah Farm Bureau established the Young Farmers Program,
42 the precursor to the Utah Young Farmer and Rancher Program, to provide leadership
43 development, training, and opportunities for young members;

44 WHEREAS, Utah Farm Bureau agriculture education outreach efforts include the 45 "Share-A-Book" campaign to place fact-based books in Utah schools, the "Agriculture in the 46 Classroom" initiative, the "Our Food Link" program to introduce thousands of Utah school
47 children and other Utahns to the family farms and ranches dotting the state's landscape, "Farm 48 Field Days" hosted by county farm bureaus across the state, and "Farm Bureau Day" at the 49 Utah State Fair;

50 WHEREAS, approximately 29,000 member families from all 29 counties in the state
51 comprise the Utah Farm Bureau, making it the largest agriculture organization in the state and 52 the recognized "Voice of Agriculture";

53 WHEREAS, the vision, commitment, and service of the Utah Farm Bureau boards of 54 directors, volunteer members, and staff have built partnerships and industry coalitions for the 55 past 100 years;

56 WHEREAS, these partnerships and coalitions have developed and implemented
57 initiatives and projects focused on the United States Constitution and fundamental principles
58 such as limited government, private property rights, and free enterprise;

59 WHEREAS, the Utah Farm Bureau has been a leader in meeting the insurance needs of 60 farmers and ranchers, establishing Utah's first "Farmers Market," and advocating for policies
61 that support farmers including the "Greenbelt Amendment" and production-based property
62 taxes;

63 WHEREAS, these efforts have enabled farmers and ranchers to produce and sell their 64 products, provide nutritious and affordable locally grown foods, serve as vital contributors to 65 our state's economy by providing more than 80,000 jobs, and serve as environmental stewards
66 protecting and enhancing our state's natural resources; and

67 WHEREAS, Thomas Jefferson, third President of the United States of America and 68 principal author of the Declaration of Independence, said, "Agriculture is our wisest pursuit, 69 because it will in the end contribute most to real wealth, good morals and happiness":

70 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the 71 Governor concurring therein, recognizes the Utah Farm Bureau for strengthening agriculture
72 and rural communities and improving the lives of all Utahns through its leadership, service to 73 its members and the state of Utah, and efforts to champion the production of food and fiber and 74 the noble professions of farming and ranching.

75 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor congratulate and 76 salute the Utah Farm Bureau Federation as it enters into its centennial celebration in 2016.
