that were not contemplated at the time of the repayment contracts.

Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, Utah Code Subsection 73-1-1(1) states, "All waters in this state, whether above or under the ground, are hereby declared to be the property of the public, subject to all existing rights to the use thereof";

WHEREAS, California v. United States, 438 U.S. 645, 653 (1978), states that, "The history of the relationship between the Federal Government and the States in the reclamation of the arid lands of the Western States is both long and involved, but through it runs the consistent thread of purposeful and continued deference to state water law by Congress";

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 8 of the Reclamation Act of 1902, state law governs the distribution of water from a reclamation project, except as expressly stated by Congress;

WHEREAS, water rights for reclamation projects were acquired pursuant to state law;

WHEREAS, Utah Code Section 73-1-3 states, "Beneficial use shall be the basis, the measure and the limit of all rights to the use of water in this state";

WHEREAS, the future of the state of Utah depends upon the proper and economical administration of water rights and the proper and economical distribution and use of water;

WHEREAS, water rights can be best and most economically administered by the local water users ~~{organizations }~~ that are subject to state law and most accountable to the local water users;

WHEREAS, the United States Congress has always anticipated that, upon repayment, reclamation projects would be transferred to the local water users ~~{organization responsible for repayment}~~;

WHEREAS, water users organizations in Utah have sought, are seeking, and will continue to seek title transfer of water projects from Congress, including title to the Strawberry Valley Project, the Moon Lake Project, ~~{and }~~ the Emery County Project, the Sanpete Project, and the Provo River Project; and

WHEREAS, transferring title to the Strawberry Valley, Moon Lake, ~~{and }~~ Emery County, Sanpete, and Provo River water projects to the appropriate local water users
