78A-10-103, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2016, Third Special Session, Chapter 7

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 78A-10-103 is amended to read:

78A-10-103. Procedures governing meetings of judicial nominating commissions.

(1) The Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall:

(a) in consultation with the Judicial Council, enact rules establishing procedures

28 governing the meetings of the judicial nominating commissions in accordance with Title 63G,
29 Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act; and

30 (b) ensure that those procedures include:

31 (i) a minimum recruitment period of at least 30 days but not more than 90 days, unless
32 fewer than nine applications are received for a judicial vacancy, in which case the recruitment
33 period may be extended up to 30 days;

34 (ii) standards for maintaining the confidentiality of the applications and related
35 documents;

36 (iii) standards governing the release of applicant names before nomination;

37 (iv) standards for destroying the records of the names of applicants, applications, and 38 related documents upon completion of the nominating process;

39 (v) an opportunity for public comment concerning the nominating process,
40 qualifications for judicial office, and individual applicants;

41 [~~(vi) evaluation criteria for the selection of judicial nominees;~~]

42 [~~(vii)~~] (vi) procedures for taking summary minutes at nominating commission
43 meetings;

44 [~~(viii)~~] (vii) procedures for simultaneously forwarding the names of nominees to the 45 governor, the president of the Senate, and the Office of Legislative Research and General
46 Counsel;

47 [~~(ix)~~] (viii) standards governing a nominating commissioner's disqualification and 48 inability to serve; and

49 [~~(x)~~] (ix) procedures that require the Administrative Office of the Courts to 50 immediately inform the governor when a judge is removed, resigns, or retires.

51 (2) In determining which of the applicants are the most qualified, the nominating 52 commissions shall determine by a majority vote of the commissioners present which of the 53 applicants best possess the ability, temperament, training, and experience that qualifies them
54 for the office.

55 (3) (a) Except as provided under Subsection (3)(b):

56 (i) the appellate court nominating commission shall certify to the governor a list of the 57 seven most qualified applicants per vacancy; and

58 (ii) trial court nominating commissions shall certify to the governor a list of the five

59 most qualified applicants per vacancy.

60 (b) If a nominating commission is considering applicants for more than one judicial 61 vacancy existing at the same time and for the same court, the nominating commission shall
62 include one additional applicant for each additional vacancy in the court in the list of applicants
63 the commission certifies to the governor.

64 (4) Nominating commissions shall ensure that the list of applicants submitted to the 65 governor:

66 (a) meet the qualifications required by law to fill the office; and

67 (b) are willing to serve.

68 (5) In determining which of the applicants are the most qualified, nominating 69 commissions may not decline to submit a candidate's name to the governor merely because:

70 (a) the nominating commission had declined to submit that candidate's name to the 71 governor to fill a previous vacancy;

72 (b) a previous nominating commission had declined to submit that candidate's name to 73 the governor; or

74 (c) that nominating commission or a previous nominating commission had submitted
75 the applicant's name to the governor and the governor selected someone else to fill the vacancy.

76 (6) A judicial nominating commission may not nominate a justice or judge who was 77 not retained by the voters for the office for which the justice or judge was defeated until after 78 the expiration of that term of office.

79 (7) Judicial nominating commissions are exempt from the requirements of Title 52,
80 Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act.
