 - (b) For purposes of Subsection (1)(c):
- (i) another child residing in the same household may not be removed from the home unless that child is considered to be at substantial risk of being physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited as described in Subsection (1)(c) or Subsection (2)(b)(ii); and

663	(10) (a) (i) The court shall also make a determination on the record as to whether
664	reasonable efforts were made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the situation in which the child could not safely remain at home, the court shall make a finding that any lack of preplacement preventive efforts was appropriate.

- (12) In cases where actual sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved, neither the division nor the court has any duty to make "reasonable efforts" or to, in any other way, attempt to maintain a child in the child's home, return a child to the child's home, provide reunification services, or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.
- (13) The court may not order continued removal of a child solely on the basis of educational neglect as described in Subsection 78A-6-105(35)(b), truancy, or failure to comply with a court order to attend school.
- (14) (a) Whenever a court orders continued removal of a child under this section, the court shall state the facts on which that decision is based.
- (b) If no continued removal is ordered and the child is returned home, the court shall state the facts on which that decision is based.
- (15) If the court finds that continued removal and temporary custody are necessary for the protection of a child pursuant to Subsection (9)(a), the court shall order continued removal regardless of:

- (a) make any of the dispositions described in Section 78A-6-117;
- (b) place the minor in the custody or guardianship of any:
- 700 (i) individual; or
- 701 (ii) public or private entity or agency; or

702	(c) order:
703	(i) protective supervision;
704	(ii) family preservation;
705	(iii) subject to Subsections (12)(b), 78A-6-105(35)(d)(i) through (iii), and
706	78A-6-117(2) and Section 78A-6-301.5, medical or mental health treatment;
707	(iv) sibling visitation; or
708	(v) other services.
709	(2) Whenever the court orders continued removal at the dispositional hearing, and that
710	the minor remain in the custody of the division, the court shall first:
711	(a) establish a primary permanency plan for the minor; and
712	(b) determine whether, in view of the primary permanency plan, reunification services
713	are appropriate for the minor and the minor's family, pursuant to Subsections (21) through (23).
714	(3) Subject to Subsections (6) and (7), if the court determines that reunification
715	services are appropriate for the minor and the minor's family, the court shall provide for
716	reasonable parent-time with the parent or parents from whose custody the minor was removed,
717	unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the minor.
718	(4) In cases where obvious sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe
719	abuse, or severe neglect are involved, neither the division nor the court has any duty to make
720	"reasonable efforts" or to, in any other way, attempt to provide reunification services, or to
721	attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.
722	(5) In all cases, the minor's health, safety, and welfare shall be the court's paramount
723	concern in determining whether reasonable efforts to reunify should be made.
724	(6) For purposes of Subsection (3), parent-time is in the best interests of a minor unless
725	the court makes a finding that it is necessary to deny parent-time in order to:
726	(a) protect the physical safety of the minor;
727	(b) protect the life of the minor; or

(c) prevent the minor from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the minor's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

728

730 (7) Notwithstanding Subsection (3), a court may not deny parent-time based solely on a 731 parent's failure to: 732 (a) prove that the parent has not used legal or illegal substances; or 733 (b) comply with an aspect of the child and family plan that is ordered by the court. 734 (8) (a) In addition to the primary permanency plan, the court shall establish a 735 concurrent permanency plan that shall include: 736 (i) a representative list of the conditions under which the primary permanency plan will 737 be abandoned in favor of the concurrent permanency plan; and 738 (ii) an explanation of the effect of abandoning or modifying the primary permanency 739 plan. 740 (b) In determining the primary permanency plan and concurrent permanency plan, the 741 court shall consider: 742 (i) the preference for kinship placement over nonkinship placement; 743 (ii) the potential for a guardianship placement if the parent-child relationship is legally 744 terminated and no appropriate adoption placement is available; and 745 (iii) the use of an individualized permanency plan, only as a last resort. 746 (9) A permanency hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Subsection 747 78A-6-314(1)(b) within 30 days after the day on which the dispositional hearing ends if 748 something other than reunification is initially established as a minor's primary permanency 749 plan. 750 (10) (a) The court may amend a minor's primary permanency plan before the 751 establishment of a final permanency plan under Section 78A-6-314. 752 (b) The court is not limited to the terms of the concurrent permanency plan in the event 753 that the primary permanency plan is abandoned. 754 (c) If, at any time, the court determines that reunification is no longer a minor's primary permanency plan, the court shall conduct a permanency hearing in accordance with Section 755

- 759 (ii) the day on which the provision of reunification services, described in Section 760 78A-6-314, ends.
 - (11) (a) If the court determines that reunification services are appropriate, the court shall order that the division make reasonable efforts to provide services to the minor and the minor's parent for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family, for a specified period of time.
 - (b) In providing the services described in Subsection (11)(a), the minor's health, safety, and welfare shall be the division's paramount concern, and the court shall so order.
 - (12) (a) The court shall:
 - (i) determine whether the services offered or provided by the division under the child and family plan constitute "reasonable efforts" on the part of the division;
 - (ii) determine and define the responsibilities of the parent under the child and family plan in accordance with Subsection 62A-4a-205(6)(e); and

(b) If, at any time, continuation of reasonable efforts to reunify a minor is determined 790 791 to be inconsistent with the final permanency plan for the minor established pursuant to Section 792 78A-6-314, then measures shall be taken, in a timely manner, to: 793 (i) place the minor in accordance with the permanency plan; and 794 (ii) complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the 795 minor. 796 (15) Any physical custody of the minor by the parent or a relative during the period 797 described in Subsections (11) through (14) does not interrupt the running of the period. 798 (16) (a) If reunification services are ordered, a permanency hearing shall be conducted 799 by the court in accordance with Section 78A-6-314 at the expiration of the time period for 800 reunification services. 801 (b) The permanency hearing shall be held no later than 12 months after the original 802 removal of the minor. 803 (c) If reunification services are not ordered, a permanency hearing shall be conducted 804 within 30 days, in accordance with Section 78A-6-314. 805 (17) With regard to a minor in the custody of the division whose parent or parents are 806 ordered to receive reunification services but who have abandoned that minor for a period of six 807 months from the date that reunification services were ordered: 808
