309 Section 7. Section 76-10-3108 is amended to read:

310           76-10-3108. Attorney general may bring action for injunctive relief, damages, 311 and civil penalty.

312           (1) The attorney general may bring an action for appropriate injunctive relief, [~~and for~~ 313 ~~damages or~~] a civil penalty, and damages in the name of the state, any of its political 314 subdivisions or agencies, or as parens patriae on behalf of natural persons in this state, for a 315 violation of this act. Actions may be brought under this section regardless of whether the 316 plaintiff dealt directly or indirectly with the defendant. This remedy is an additional remedy to 317 any other remedies provided by law. It may not diminish or offset any other remedy.

318           (2) Any individual who violates this act is subject to a civil penalty of not more than 319 $100,000 for each violation. Any person, other than an individual, who violates this act is 320 subject to a civil penalty of not more than $500,000 for each violation.

321           Section 8. Section 76-10-3109 is amended to read:

322           76-10-3109. Person may bring action for injunctive relief and damages -- Treble
323 damages -- Recovery of actual damages or civil penalty by state or political subdivisions
324 -- Immunity of political subdivisions from damages, costs, or attorney fees.

325           (1) (a) A person who is a citizen of this state or a resident of this state and who is 326 injured or is threatened with injury in his business or property by a violation of the Utah 327 Antitrust Act may bring an action for injunctive relief and damages, regardless of whether the 328 person dealt directly or indirectly with the defendant. This remedy is in addition to any other 329 remedies provided by law. It may not diminish or offset any other remedy.

330           (b) Subject to the provisions of Subsections (3), (4), and (5), the court shall award three 331 times the amount of damages sustained, plus the cost of suit and a reasonable attorney fees, in 332 addition to granting any appropriate temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief.

333           (2) (a) If the court determines that a judgment in the amount of three times the damages 334 awarded plus attorney fees and costs will directly cause the insolvency of the defendant, the 335 court shall reduce the amount of judgment to the highest sum that would not cause the 336 defendant's insolvency.

337           (b) The court may not reduce a judgment to an amount less than the amount of 338 damages sustained plus the costs of suit and reasonable attorney fees.

339 (3) The state or any of its political subdivisions may recover [~~the actual~~] three times the 340 amount of damages it sustains[~~, or~~] and the civil penalty provided by the Utah Antitrust Act, in 341 addition to injunctive relief, costs of suit, and reasonable attorney fees.

342 (4) No damages, costs, or attorney fees may be recovered under this section:

343 (a) from any political subdivision;

344 (b) from the official or employee of any political subdivision acting in an official 345 capacity; or

346 (c) against any person based on any official action directed by a political subdivision or 347 its official or employee acting in an official capacity.

348 (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to cases filed before April 27, 1987, unless the 349 defendant establishes and the court determines that in light of all the circumstances, including 350 the posture of litigation and the availability of alternative relief, it would be inequitable not to 351 apply Subsection (4) to a pending case.

352 (6) When a defendant has been sued in one or more actions by both direct and indirect 353 purchasers, whether in state court or federal court, a defendant shall be entitled to prove as a 354 partial or complete defense to a claim for damages that the damages incurred by the plaintiff or 355 plaintiffs have been passed on to others who are entitled to recover so as to avoid duplication 356 of recovery of damages. In an action by indirect purchasers, any damages or settlement 357 amounts paid to direct purchasers for the same alleged antitrust violations shall constitute a 358 defense in the amount paid on a claim by indirect purchasers under this chapter so as to avoid 359 duplication of recovery of damages.

360 (7) It shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the injured 361 persons who dealt directly with the defendant incurred at least 1/3 of the damages, and shall, 362 therefore, recover at least 1/3 of the awarded damages. It shall also be presumed, in the 363 absence of proof to the contrary, that the injured persons who dealt indirectly with the 364 defendant incurred at least 1/3 of the damages, and shall, therefore, recover at least 1/3 of the 365 awarded damages. The final 1/3 of the damages shall be awarded by the court to those injured

366 persons determined by the court as most likely to have absorbed the damages.

367 (8) There is a presumption, in the absence of proof to the contrary and subject to 368 Subsection (7), that each level in a product's or service's distribution chain passed on any and 369 all increments in its cost due to an increase in the cost of an ingredient or a component product 370 or service that was caused by a violation of this chapter. This amount will be presumed, in the 371 absence of evidence to the contrary, to be equal to the change in the cost, in dollars and cents, 372 of the ingredient, component product, or service to its first purchaser.

373 (9) The attorney general shall be notified by the plaintiff about the filing of any class
374 action involving antitrust violations that includes plaintiffs from this state. The attorney
