24 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

25   Section 1. Section 20A-7-211 is amended to read:

26   20A-7-211.   Return and canvass -- Conflicting measures -- Law effective on 27 proclamation.

28   (1) The votes on the law proposed by the initiative petition shall be counted,

29 canvassed, and delivered as provided in Title 20A, Chapter 4, Part 3, Canvassing Returns.

30   (2) After the state board of canvassers completes its canvass, the lieutenant governor

31 shall certify to the governor the vote for and against the law proposed by the initiative petition.

32   (3) (a) The governor shall immediately issue a proclamation that:

33   (i) gives the total number of votes cast in the state for and against each law proposed by

34 an initiative petition; and

35   (ii) declares those laws proposed by an initiative petition that were approved by

36 majority vote to be in full force and effect [as the law of Utah] on the date described in

37 Subsection 20A-7-212(2).

38   (b) When the governor believes that two proposed laws, or that parts of two proposed

39 laws approved by the people at the same election are entirely in conflict, he shall proclaim that

40 measure to be law that has received the greatest number of affirmative votes, regardless of the 41 difference in the majorities which those measures have received.

42   (c) [(i)] Within 10 days after the governor's proclamation, any qualified voter who

43 signed the initiative petition proposing the law that is declared by the governor to be

44 superseded by another measure approved at the same election may [apply to the Supreme

45 Court] bring an action in the appropriate court to review the governor's decision.

46   [(ii) The court shall:]

47   [(A) consider the matter and decide whether or not the proposed laws are in conflict;

48 and]

49   [(B) certify its decision to the governor.]

50   (4) Within 10 days after the [Supreme Court certifies its decision] day on which the

51 court issues an order in an action described in Subsection (3)(c), the governor shall:

52   (a) proclaim all those measures approved by the people as law that the [Supreme

53 Court] court has determined are not entirely in conflict; and

54   (b) of all those measures approved by the people as law that the [Supreme Court has

55 determined] court determines to be entirely in conflict, proclaim as law [the one], regardless of

56 the difference in majorities, the law that received the greatest number of affirmative votes[,

57 regardless of difference in majorities] to be in full force and effect on the date described in

58 Subsection 20A-7-212(2).

59   Section 2. Section 20A-7-212 is amended to read:

60   20A-7-212.   Effective date.

61   (1) A proposed law submitted to the Legislature by initiative petition and [enacted by

62   them] passed by the Legislature takes effect 60 days after the [final adjournment of the session

63   of the Legislature that passed it, unless a different] last day of the session of the Legislature in

64   which the law passed, unless:

65   (a) a later effective date is included in the proposed law; or

66   (b) an earlier effective date is included in the proposed law and the proposed law

67   passes the Legislature by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to each house of the 68   Legislature.

69   (2) [(a) Any] A proposed law submitted to the people by initiative petition that is

70   approved by the voters at [any election does not take effect until at least five days after the date

71   of the official proclamation of the vote by the governor.] an election takes effect the later of:

72   (a) the day after the day on which the governor issues the proclamation described in

73   Subsection 20A-7-211(3); or

74   (b) the effective date specified in the proposed law.

75   [(b) Any act or law submitted to the people by initiative that is approved by the voters

76   at any election takes effect on the date specified in the initiative petition.]

77   [(c) If the initiative petition does not specify an effective date, a law approved by the

78   voters at any election takes effect five days after the date of the official proclamation of the

79   vote by the governor.]

80   (3) (a) The governor may not veto a law adopted by the people.

81   (b) The Legislature may amend any initiative approved by the people at any legislative 82   session.
