19   Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

20           WHEREAS, a therapy animal is a domesticated animal that provides animal-assisted 21 interventions to an individual with whom the therapy animal visits to assist the individual to 22 achieve therapeutic gains and improved health and wellness;

23           WHEREAS, a therapy animal meets the accepted standards for client safety and animal 24 welfare when the therapy animal has a handler and the therapy animal and handler are trained,
25 tested, insured, evaluated on a regular basis, and registered by an organization that follows best 26 practices for animal-assisted interventions;

27           WHEREAS, a therapy animal provides physical, psychological, and emotional benefits;

28 WHEREAS, a therapy animal has no special rights of access, except in a facility where 29 the therapy animal is welcomed;

30 WHEREAS, therapy animals are currently welcomed, engaged with, promoted, and 31 enlisted for interventions in Utah's schools, hospitals, senior residential facilities, domestic 32 violence shelters, and juvenile courts; and

33 WHEREAS, Utahns of all backgrounds, ages, and needs have been helped by therapy
34 animals, including patients in recovery, individuals with intellectual disabilities, seniors living 35 with Alzheimer's, students with literacy challenges, veterans with PTSD, and those 36 approaching end of life:

37 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah 38 recognizes and supports the contributions of therapy animals to the people of Utah and 39 celebrates the benefits of the human-animal bond on health and well being; and

40 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah encourages 41 organizations in Utah to welcome, engage with, promote, or enlist therapy animals who meet 42 accepted standards for client safety and animal welfare.
