59	(A) allows to access the facility; or
60	(B) prohibits from accessing the facility;
61	(ii) that a provider's access to the facility may change at any time; and
62	(iii) whether a person in the facility's leadership has a legal or financial interest in a
63	provider that is allowed to access the facility.
64	(c) If a facility refers a provider to a member of the facility's leadership under
65	Subsection (3)(a)(iii), the member of the facility's leadership:
66	(i) shall disclose whether the provider has access to the facility; and
67	(ii) may disclose any other information described in Subsection (3)(b).
68	(d) If a resident is being served by a provider that is later prohibited from accessing the
69	facility, the facility shall:
70	(i) allow the provider access to the facility to finish the resident's current episode of
71	care; or
72	(ii) provide to the resident a written explanation of why the provider no longer has
73	access to the facility.
73a	$\hat{H} \rightarrow$ (4) If a resident is responsible for the costs related to the services provided by a
