H.B. 259

H.B. 259

28	Section 1. Section 80-6-206 is amended to read:
29	80-6-206. Interrogation of a child Presence of a parent, legal guardian, or other
30	adult Prohibition on false information or unauthorized statement Admissibility of
31	admission, confession, or statement by child.
32	(1) As used in this section:
33	(a) "Custodial interrogation" means any interrogation of a [minor] child while the
34	individual is in custody.
35	(b) (i) "Friendly adult" means an adult:
36	(A) who has an established relationship with the child to the extent that the adult can
37	provide meaningful advice and concerned help to the child should the need arise; and
38	(B) who is not hostile or adverse to the child's interest.
39	(ii) "Friendly adult" does not include a parent or guardian of the child.
40	(c) (i) "Interrogation" means any express questioning or any words or actions that are
41	reasonably likely to elicit an incriminating response.
42	(ii) "Interrogation" does not include words or actions normally attendant to arrest and
43	custody.
44	(2) (a) If a child is subject to a custodial interrogation for an offense, the child has the
45	right to have:
46	[(a)] (i) [to have] the child's parent or guardian present during an interrogation of the
47	child; or
48	[(b)] (ii) [to have] a friendly adult present during an interrogation of the child if:
49	[(i)] (A) there is reason to believe that the child's parent or guardian has abused or
50	threatened the child; or
51	[(ii)] (B) the child's parent's or guardian's interest is adverse to the child's interest,
52	including that the parent or guardian is a victim or a codefendant of the offense alleged to have
53	been committed by the child.
54	(b) A child's parent or guardian, or a friendly adult, is present at a custodial
55	interrogation if the parent, guardian, or friendly adult attends the custodial interrogation in
56	person or by video.
57	(3) If a child is subject to a custodial interrogation for an offense, the child may not be
58	interrogated unless:

59	(a) the child has been advised, in accordance with Subsection (4), of:
60	(i) the child's constitutional rights; and
61	(ii) if the child has a right to have a parent, guardian, or friendly adult present during
62	the interrogation under this section, the child's right to have a parent or guardian, or a friendly
63	adult [if applicable under Subsection (2)(b),] present during the interrogation;
64	(b) the child has waived the child's constitutional rights;
65	(c) [except as provided in Subsection (6), the child's parent or guardian, or the friendly
66	adult if applicable under Subsection (2)(b),] if the child has a right to have a parent, guardian,
67	or friendly adult present during the interrogation under this section, the child's parent or
68	guardian, or a friendly adult, was present during the child's waiver under Subsection (3)(b) and
69	has given permission for the child to be interrogated; [and]
70	(d) if the child is being held in a detention facility or a secure care facility, the child has
71	had a meaningful opportunity to consult with the child's appointed or retained attorney and the
72	child's appointed or retained attorney is present for the interrogation; and
73	[(d)] (e) if the child is in the custody of the Division of Child and Family Services and
74	a guardian ad litem has been appointed for the child, the child's guardian ad litem has given
75	consent to an interview of the child as described in Section 80-2-705.
76	(4) Before the custodial interrogation of a child by a peace officer or a juvenile
77	probation officer, the peace officer or juvenile probation officer shall disclose the following to
78	the child:
79	(a) You have the right to remain silent.
80	(b) If you do not want to talk to me, you do not have to talk to me.
81	(c) If you decide to talk to me, you have the right to stop answering my questions or
82	talking to me at any time.
83	(d) Anything you say can and will be used against you in court.
84	(e) If you talk to me, I can tell a judge and everyone else in court everything that you
85	tell me.
86	(f) You have the right to have a parent or guardian, or a friendly adult if applicable,
87	with you while I ask you questions.
88	(g) You have the right to a lawyer.
89	(h) You can talk to a lawyer before I ask you any questions and you can have that

120 [individual] child may not be interrogated unless:	119	secure care facility and the child is subject to a custodial interrogation for an offense, the
	120	[individual] child may not be interrogated unless:

121	(i) the [individual] child has had a meaningful opportunity to consult with the
122	[individual's] child's appointed or retained attorney;
123	(ii) the [individual] child waives the individual's constitutional rights after consultation
124	with the [individual's] child's appointed or retained attorney; and
125	(iii) the [individual's] child's appointed or retained attorney is present for the
126	interrogation.
127	(b) Subsection (7)(a) does not apply to a juvenile probation officer or a staff member of
128	a detention facility, unless the juvenile probation officer or the staff member is interrogating
129	the [individual] child on behalf of a peace officer or a law enforcement agency.
130	(c) A child's appointed or retained attorney is present at a custodial interrogation as
131	described in this Subsection (7) if the attorney attends the custodial interrogation in person or
132	by video.
133	(8) If a child is subject to a custodial interrogation for an offense, a peace officer, or an
134	individual interrogating a child on behalf of a peace officer or a law enforcement agency, may
135	not knowingly:
136	(a) provide false information about evidence that is reasonably likely to elicit an
137	incriminating response from the child; or
138	(b) make an unauthorized statement about leniency for the offense.
139	(9) A law enforcement agency shall make an audio recording or an audio-video
140	recording that accurately records a custodial interrogation of a child.
141	(10) (a) If a peace officer or juvenile probation officer intentionally, knowingly,
142	recklessly, or negligently fails to comply with the requirements for a custodial interrogation of
143	a child as described in this section, any admission, confession, or statement made by the child
144	as a result of the custodial interrogation is presumed:
145	(i) to not be voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently made; and
146	(ii) to not be admissible as evidence against the child.
147	(b) A prosecuting attorney may only overcome the presumption described in
148	Subsection (10)(a) by a preponderance of the evidence showing that the child had the ability to
149	comprehend and waive:
150	(i) the child's constitutional rights; and
151	(ii) if the child has a right to have a parent, guardian, or friendly adult present under

H.B. 259

152 this section, the child's right to have a parent or guardian, or a friendly adult, present during the 153 custodial interrogation. (c) When a custodial interrogation of a child is not accurately recorded as described in 154 Subsection (9), a court shall determine whether a statement made by the child in the custodial 155 156 interrogation is admissible in accordance with Rule 616 of the Utah Rules of Evidence. [(9)] (11) A minor may only waive the minor's right to be represented by counsel at all 157 158 stages of court proceedings as described in Section 78B-22-204. Section 2. Effective date. 159 160 This bill takes effect on May 1, 2024.
