Representative Ken Ivory proposes the following substitute bill:

1	PRESUMPTION OF STATE JURISDICTION AMENDMENTS
2	2024 GENERAL SESSION
3	STATE OF UTAH
4	Chief Sponsor: Ken Ivory
5	Senate Sponsor:
7	LONG TITLE
8	General Description:
9	This bill affirms state sovereignty and establishes a presumption of state jurisdiction.
10	Highlighted Provisions:
11	This bill:
12	 establishes that jurisdiction over subject matters not enumerated to the federal
13	government in the United States Constitution remains with the state of Utah;
14	 provides that any presumption against state jurisdiction is overcome only by a
15	federal demonstration of specific constitutional authorization;
16	 places the burden on the federal government in disputes over non-enumerated
17	jurisdiction;
18	 provides that the Federalism Commission will coordinate with federal agencies
19	when issues about jurisdiction over federal lands arise;
20	• establishes a presumption that federal government has a proprietary interest over
21	federal lands in the state; and
22	 requires the Federalism Commission to provide time to hear from governmental
23	entities regarding jurisdictional disputes over federal lands.

1	AMENDS:
	63G-16-101, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2012, Chapter 38
I	ENACTS:
	63G-16-102 , Utah Code Annotated 1953
Ī	Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:
	Section 1. Section 63G-16-101 is amended to read:
	63G-16-101. State sovereignty and rights of set-off.
	(1) Pursuant to the Ninth and Tenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States of America, the state of Utah does solemnly affirm its state sovereignty and fully and ι	inconditionally reserves and asserts all rights and powers, directly and indirectly related to t	hose rights and powers.
	(2) (a) The state has inherent jurisdiction and authority under the state's traditional
ľ	police powers to enact legislation and regulations in subject areas affecting public welfare,
5	safety, health, and morality, as recognized under the Tenth Amendment to the United States (Constitution.
	(b) The subject areas within the state's police powers jurisdiction described in
-	Subsection (1) include:
	(i) natural resources;
	(ii) water resources and water rights;
	(iii) agriculture;
	(iv) education; and
	(v) energy resources.
	(3) Except as otherwise enumerated in the Constitution of the United States, as
2	amended, jurisdiction over all subject matters is presumed to reside with the state of Utah.
	(4) The presumption of state jurisdiction under Subsection (3) may only be overcome if t	he federal government demonstrates that jurisdiction over the subject matter in question is enecifically enumerated to the federal government under the Constitution of the United States

57	as amended.
58	(5) If a conflict arises between the state and federal government over jurisdiction not
59	enumerated under the Constitution of the United States, as amended, the burden is on the
60	federal government to establish constitutional authorization over the subject matter.
61	(6) This affirmation, reservation, and assertion includes rights and claims of set-off by
62	the state of Utah for any amounts it claims to have been inequitably or unlawfully caused or
63	imposed by the federal government.
64	(7) The provisions of this section may not be interpreted to limit or restrict the state's
65	authority to exercise rights under the Ninth, Tenth, or any other Amendment to the Constitution
66	of the United States.
67	Section 2. Section 63G-16-102 is enacted to read:
68	63G-16-102. Jurisdiction over federal land.
69	(1) As used in this section:
70	(a) "Commission" means the Federalism Commission created in Section 63C-4a-302.
71	(b) "Concurrent jurisdiction" means jurisdiction ceded to the United States by the
72	Legislature to be shared jointly between the state and federal government, where both the state
73	and federal government have the right to exercise authority concurrently over the same subject
74	matter and within the same territory.
75	(c) "Exclusive federal jurisdiction" means sole or complete federal jurisdiction, to the
76	exclusion of state jurisdiction, over land or an enclave ceded to the federal government by the
77	state pursuant to the United States Constitution, Article I, Section 8, Clause 17.
78	(d) "Federal land" means any land owned or controlled by the United States within the
79	exterior boundaries of the state.
80	(e) "Governmental entity" means any entity, office, or officer of the state or political
81	subdivision of the state that has responsibility for or jurisdiction over specified interests or
82	concerns relating to federal land within the state.
83	(f) "Partial jurisdiction" means jurisdiction ceded to the United States by the
84	Legislature over particular subject matter , while jurisdiction otherwise remains in the state.
85	(g) "Proprietorial interest" means the federal government retains rights only as a
86	landowner with respect to the land, where the exercise of governmental power over the land by
87	the state is not suspended, displaced, curtailed or otherwise subject to federal oversight.

88	(2) Federal land within the state is presumed to be under proprietorial interest, allowing
89	exercise of state authority while reserving the federal right to execute delegated constitutional
90	functions, unless the federal government demonstrates that jurisdiction over the federal land is:
91	(a) exclusive federal jurisdiction;
92	(b) concurrent jurisdiction; or
93	(c) partial jurisdiction.
94	(3) (a) The commission shall:
95	(i) provide time during at least one commission meeting in each year and as necessary
96	to hear from governmental entities regarding jurisdictional disputes over federal land within the
97	state;
98	(ii) under direction from the speaker of the House of Representatives and the president
99	of the Senate, conduct coordination hearings regarding any jurisdictional discrepancies between
100	federal agencies and governmental entities as may be appropriate.
101	(b) The commission shall notify the Legislative Management Committee of any dispute
102	or coordination hearing before the commission under Subsection (3)(a).
103	Section 3. Effective date.
104	This bill takes effect on May 1, 2024.
