Section 1. Section 54-7-12 is amended to read:

54-7-12. Rate increase or decrease --
 Procedure -- Effective dates -- Electrical or telephone cooperative.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) (i) “Base rates” means those charges included in a public utility’s generally applicable rate tariffs, including:

- (A) a fare;
- (B) a rate;
- (C) a rental;
- (D) a toll; or

(E) any other charge generally applicable to a public utility’s rate tariffs.

(ii) Unless included by a commission order, “base rates” does not include charges included in:

- (A) a deferred account;
- (B) a balancing account;
- (C) a major plant addition surcharge;
- (D) a major plant addition surcredit;
- (E) a special contract; or
- (F) a public utility program offering.

(b) (i) “Complete filing” means an application filed by a public utility that substantially complies with minimum filing requirements established by the commission, by rule, for a general rate increase or decrease.

(ii) The commission shall within 180 days after March 25, 2009 create and finalize rules concerning the minimum requirements to be met for an application to be considered a complete filing.

(c) “General rate decrease” means:

(i) any direct decrease to a public utility’s base rates; or

(ii) any modification of a classification, contract, practice, or rule that decreases a public utility’s base rates.

(d) “General rate increase” means:

(i) any direct increase to a public utility’s base rates; or

(ii) any modification of a classification, contract, practice, or rule that increases a public utility’s base rates.

(2) (a) A public utility that files for a general rate increase or general rate decrease shall file a complete filing with the commission setting forth the proposed rate increase or decrease.

(b) (i) For purposes of this Subsection (2), a public utility’s application for a general rate increase or decrease shall be considered a complete filing unless within 30 days after the day on which the commission receives the public utility’s application, the commission issues an order describing information that the public utility must provide for the application to be considered a complete filing.

(ii) Subject to Subsection (2)(b)(iii) and within 14 days after the day on which the application is received by the commission, a party or a person may file a motion to challenge whether an application for a general rate increase or decrease is a complete filing.

(iii) A party or a person may not file a motion described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii) unless the person or party has first filed a motion to intervene with the commission.

(c) If, in accordance with Subsection (2)(b)(i), the commission issues an order that an application is not a complete filing, the commission shall:

(i) determine the materiality of an application deficiency; and

(ii) (A) if the deficiencies are not material, issue an order that the 240-day period described in Subsection (3)(a) shall continue without delay or be suspended and resume when the public utility files the required information; or

(B) if the deficiencies are material, issue an order that the 240-day period described in Subsection (3)(a) shall start over when the public utility files the required information.

(d) (i) The commission shall, after reasonable notice, hold a hearing to determine whether the proposed rate increase or decrease, or some other rate increase or decrease, is just and reasonable.

(ii) If a rate decrease is proposed by a public utility, the commission may waive a hearing unless it seeks to suspend, alter, or modify the rate decrease.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2)(d), (3), or (4), a proposed rate increase or decrease is not effective until after completion of the hearing and issuance of a final order by the commission concerning the proposed increase or decrease.

(3) (a) Within 240 days after a public utility submits a complete filing, the commission shall issue a final order to:

(i) grant the proposed general rate increase or decrease;

(ii) grant a different general rate increase or decrease; or

(iii) deny the proposed general rate increase or decrease.

(b) If the commission does not issue a final written order within 240 days after the public utility submits a complete filing in accordance with Subsection (3)(a):

(i) the public utility's proposed rate increase or decrease is final; and

(ii) the commission may not order a refund of any amount already collected or returned by the public utility under Subsection [(4)] (3)(a).

(4) (a) (i) A request for interim rates shall be made within 90 days after the day on which a public utility files a complete filing for a general rate increase or a general rate decrease.

(ii) The commission, on its own initiative or in response to an application by a public utility or other party, may, after a hearing, allow any rate increase or decrease proposed by a public utility, or a reasonable part of the rate increase or decrease, to take effect on an interim basis within 45 days after the day on which the request is filed, subject to the commission's right to order a refund or surcharge.

(iii) The evidence presented in the hearing held pursuant to this Subsection (4) need not encompass all issues that may be considered in a rate case hearing held pursuant to Subsection (2)(d), but shall establish an adequate prima facie showing that the interim rate increase or decrease is justified.

(b) The commission may, after a hearing, issue a final order before the expiration of 240 days after the day on which the public utility files a complete filing establishing the utility's revenue requirement and fixing the utility's allowable rates before the commission determines the final allocation of the increase or decrease among categories of customers and classes of service.

(c) (i) If the commission in the commission's final order on a public utility's revenue requirement finds that the interim increase ordered under Subsection (4)(a)(ii) exceeds the increase finally ordered, the commission shall order the public utility to refund the excess to customers.

(ii) If the commission in the commission's final order on a public utility's revenue requirement finds that the interim decrease ordered under Subsection (4)(a)(ii) exceeds the decrease finally ordered, the commission shall order a surcharge to customers to recover the excess decrease.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, any schedule, classification, practice, or rule filed by a public utility with the commission that does not result in any rate increase shall take effect 30 days after the date of filing or within any lesser time the commission may grant, subject to its authority after a hearing to suspend, alter, or modify that schedule, classification, practice, or rule.

(b) When the commission suspends a schedule, classification, practice, or rule, the commission shall hold a hearing on the schedule, classification, practice, or rule before issuing its final order.

(c) For purposes of this Subsection (5), any schedule, classification, practice, or rule that introduces a service or product not previously offered may not result in a rate increase.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, whenever a public utility files with the commission any schedule, classification, practice, or rule that does not result in an increase in any rate, fare, toll, rental, or charge, the schedule, classification, practice, or rule shall take effect 30 days after the date of filing or at any earlier time the commission may grant, subject to the authority of the commission, after a hearing, to suspend, alter, or modify the schedule, classification, practice, or rule.

(7) This section does not apply to any rate changes of an electrical or telephone cooperative that meets all of the requirements of this Subsection (7).

(a) (i) The cooperative is organized for the purpose of either distributing electricity or providing telecommunication services to its members and the public at cost.

(ii) "At cost" includes interest costs and a reasonable rate of return as determined by the cooperative's board of directors.

(b) The cooperative's board of directors and any appropriate agency of the federal government have approved the rate increase or other rate change and all necessary tariff revisions reflecting the increased rate or rate change.

(c) Before implementing any rate increases, the cooperative has held a public meeting for all its customers and members. The cooperative shall mail a notice of the meeting to all of the cooperative's customers and members not less than 10 days prior to the date that the meeting is held.

(d) The cooperative has filed its tariff revisions reflecting the rate increase or other rate change with the commission, who shall make the tariffs available for public inspection.

(8) Notwithstanding Subsections (2) and (4), the procedures for implementing a proposed rate increase by a telephone corporation having less than 30,000 subscriber access lines in the state are provided in this Subsection (8).

(a) (i) The proposed rate increase by a telephone corporation subject to this Subsection (8) may become effective on the day the telephone corporation files with the commission the proposed tariff revisions and necessary information to support a determination by the commission that the proposed rate increase is just and reasonable.

(ii) The telephone corporation shall notify the commission and all potentially affected access line subscribers of the proposed rate increase 30 days before filing the proposed rate increase or change.

(b) (i) The commission may investigate whether the proposed rate increase is just and reasonable.

(ii) If the commission determines, after notice and hearing, that the rate increase is unjust or unreasonable in whole or in part, the commission may establish the rates, charges, or classifications that the commission finds to be just and reasonable.

(c) The commission shall investigate and hold a hearing to determine whether any proposed rate increase is just and reasonable if 10% or more of the telephone corporation's potentially affected access line subscribers file a request for agency action requesting an investigation and hearing.

(9) For a rebate received by an end-use customer under a demand side management program of a large-scale natural gas utility's approved schedule, the commission shall allow the end-use customer to continue receiving the rebate for up to one calendar year if:

(a) the end-use customer:

(i) is currently participating in the demand side management program; and

(ii) has completed new construction within the previous 12 months; and

(b) the schedule under which the rebate was created is modified due to a change in:

(i) standards adopted under Title 15A, State Construction and Fire Codes Act; or

(ii) 10 C.F.R. Chapter 2, Chapter 3, and Chapter 5.

Section 2. Section 54-7-12.8 is amended to read:

54-7-12.8. Electric energy efficiency, sustainable transportation and energy, and conservation tariff.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Demand side management" means an activity or program that promotes electric energy efficiency or conservation, the use of heat pumps, or more efficient management of electric energy loads.

(b) "Pilot program period" means a period of five years, beginning on January 1, 2017, during which the sustainable transportation and energy plan is effective.

(c) "Sustainable transportation and energy plan" means the same as that term is defined in Section 54-20-102.

(d) "Utah solar incentive program" means the eligible utility rooftop solar pilot program established by commission order in 2012.

(2) (a) As provided in this section, the commission may approve a tariff under which an electrical corporation includes a line item charge on the electrical corporation's customers' bills to recover costs incurred by the electrical corporation for demand side management.

(b) The commission shall authorize a large-scale electric utility that is allowed to charge a customer for demand side management under Subsection (2)(a) to:

(i) if requested by the large-scale electric utility, capitalize the annual costs incurred for demand side management provided in Subsection (2)(a);

(ii) amortize the annual cost for demand side management over a period of 10 years;

(iii) apply a carrying charge to the unamortized balance that is equal to the large-scale electric utility's pretax weighted average cost of capital approved by the commission in the large-scale electric utility's most recent general rate proceeding; and

(iv) recover the amortization cost described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii) and the carrying charge described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii) in customer rates.

(3) The commission shall, before January 1, 2017, authorize a large-scale electric utility to implement a combined line item charge on the large-scale electric utility's customers' bills to recover the cost to the large-scale electric utility of:

(a) demand side management, including the cost of amortizing a deferred balance;

(b) the sustainable transportation and energy plan; and

(c) the additional expense described in Subsection (5)(a)(i).

(4) On December 31, 2016, the commission shall end the Utah solar incentive program and surcharge tariff and the large-scale electric utility shall stop accepting new applications for solar incentive program incentives.

(5) (a) The commission may authorize a large-scale electric utility that capitalizes demand side management costs under Subsection (2)(b) to:

(i) recognize the difference between the annual revenues the large-scale electric utility collects for demand side management and the annual amount of the large-scale electric utility's demand side management cost amortization expense as an additional expense;

(ii) establish and fund, via the additional expense described in Subsection (5)(a)(i), a regulatory liability; and

(iii) use the regulatory liability described in Subsection (5)(a)(ii) to depreciate thermal generation plant.

(b) (i) The commission may authorize the large-scale electric utility to use the regulatory liability described in Subsection (5)(a)(ii) to depreciate thermal generation plant for which the commission determines depreciation is in the public interest for compliance with an environmental regulation or another purpose.

(ii) The commission may not consider the existence of the regulatory liability described in Subsection (5)(a)(ii) in a determination to accelerate depreciation under Subsection (5)(b)(i).

(c) The commission shall allow the large-scale electric utility to apply a carrying charge to the regulatory liability described in Subsection (5)(a)(ii) in an amount equal to the large-scale electric utility's pretax average weighted cost of capital approved by the commission in the large-scale electric utility's most recent general rate proceeding.

(d) The commission may allow a large-scale electric utility to use the regulatory liability carrying charge described in Subsection (5)(c) to offset the carrying charge described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii).

(e) The large-scale electric utility shall apply the carrying charge described in Subsection (5)(c) to funds that a large-scale electric utility is authorized to use to depreciate thermal generation plant under Subsection (5)(a) until the reduction in the large-scale electric utility's rate base associated with the thermal generation plant depreciation for which the funds are used is reflected in the large-scale electric utility's customers' rates.

(f) If the commission determines that funds established in the regulatory liability under Subsection (5)(a) are no longer needed for the purpose of depreciating thermal generation plant, the large-scale electric utility shall use the balance of the funds in the regulatory liability to offset the capitalized demand side management costs described in Subsection (2)(b)(i).

(6) (a) During the pilot program period, of the funds a large-scale electric utility collects via the line item charge described in Subsection (3), the commission shall authorize the large-scale electric utility to allocate on an annual basis:

(i) $10,000,000 to the sustainable transportation and energy plan; and

(ii) the funds not allocated to the sustainable transportation and energy plan to demand side management.

(b) The commission shall authorize a large-scale electric utility to spend up to:

(i) $2,000,000 annually for the electric vehicle incentive program described in Section 54-20-103; and

(ii) an annual average of:

(A) $1,000,000 for the clean coal technology program described in Section 54-20-104; and

(B) $3,400,000 for the innovative utility programs described in Section 54-20-105.

(c) The commission shall authorize a large-scale electric utility to recoup the large-scale electric utility's unrecovered costs paid through the Utah solar incentive program from the funds allocated under Subsection (6)(a)(i).

(d) The commission may authorize a large-scale electric utility to allocate funds the large-scale electric utility collects via the line item charge described in Subsection (3) not spent under this Subsection (6) to a conservation, efficiency, or new technology program if the conservation, efficiency, or new technology program is cost-effective and in the public interest.

(7) A large-scale electric utility shall establish a balancing account that includes:

(a) funds allocated under Subsection (6)(a)(i);

(b) the program expenditures described in Subsection (6)(b);

(c) the unrecovered Utah solar incentive program costs described in Subsection (6)(c); and

(d) a carrying charge in an amount determined by the commission.

(8) A customer that is paying a contract rate under an agreement with a large-scale electric utility as of January 1, 2016, is exempt from the costs recovered under Subsection (3), except for costs created by or arising from the Utah solar incentive program included in Subsection 54-7-12.8(3)(b).

(9) (a) In any proceeding commenced under Section 54-3-32, the commission may not consider or assess to an eligible customer an expenditure, cost, amortization, charge, or liability of any kind that is created by or arises in whole or in part from:

(i) any program created under Title 54, Chapter 20, Sustainable Transportation and Energy Plan Act; or

(ii) this section, except for costs created by or arising from the Utah solar incentive program included in Subsection 54-7-12.8(3)(b).

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(a) and in Section 54-3-33, this section and Title 54, Chapter 20, Sustainable Transportation and Energy Plan Act, do not:

(i) amend or repeal any provision of Section 54-3-32; or

(ii) affect any right, defense, or credit available to an eligible customer under Section 54-3-32.

(10) Each electrical corporation proposing a tariff under this section shall, before submitting the tariff to the commission for approval, seek input from:

(a) the Division of Public Utilities;

(b) the Office of Consumer Services; and

(c) a person that files a request for notice with the commission.

(11) Before approving a tariff under this section, the commission shall hold a hearing if:

(a) requested in writing by the electrical corporation, a customer of the electrical corporation, or any other interested party within 15 days after the tariff filing; or

(b) the commission determines that a hearing is appropriate.

(12) (a) The commission may approve a demand side management tariff under this section either with or without a provision allowing an end-use customer to receive a credit against the charges imposed under the tariff for electric energy efficiency measures that:

~~[(a)]~~ (i) the customer implements or has implemented at the customer's expense; and

~~[(b)]~~ (ii) qualify for the credit under criteria established by the commission.

(b) For a credit that an end-use customer receives under an approved demand side management tariff pursuant to Subsection (12)(a), the commission shall allow the end-use customer to continue receiving the credit for up to one calendar year if:

(i) the end-use customer:

(A) is currently participating in the demand side management tariff; and

(B) has completed new construction within the previous 12 months; and

(ii) the tariff under which the credit was created is modified due to a change in:

(A) standards adopted under Title 15A, State Construction and Fire Codes Act; or

(B) 10 C.F.R. Chapter 2, Chapter 3, and Chapter 5.

(13) In approving a tariff under this section, the commission may impose whatever conditions or limits it considers appropriate, including a maximum annual cost.

(14) Unless otherwise ordered by the commission, each tariff under this section approved by the commission shall take effect no sooner than 30 days after the electrical corporation files the tariff with the commission.

(2) The court shall include the following in every decree of divorce:

(b) (i) if coverage is or becomes available at a reasonable cost, an order requiring the purchase and maintenance of appropriate health, hospital, and dental care insurance for a dependent child; and

(ii) has affirmed that those listed as beneficiaries are in fact the intended beneficiaries after the divorce becomes final; and

(iii) understands that if no changes are made to the policy or contract, the beneficiaries currently listed will receive any funds paid by the insurance company under the terms of the policy or contract.

[~~(2)~~] (3) (a) The court may include, in an order determining child support, an order assigning financial responsibility for all or a portion of child care expenses incurred on behalf of a dependent child, necessitated by the employment or training of the custodial parent.

(b) If the court determines that the circumstances are appropriate and that the dependent child would be adequately cared for, the court may include an order allowing the noncustodial parent to provide child care for the dependent child, necessitated by the employment or training of the custodial parent.

[~~(3)~~] (4) The court has continuing jurisdiction to make subsequent changes or new orders for the custody of a child and the child's support, maintenance, health, and dental care, and for distribution of the property and obligations for debts as is reasonable and necessary.

[~~(4)~~] (5) Child support, custody, visitation, and other matters related to a child born to the parents after entry of the decree of divorce may be added to the decree by modification.

[~~(5)~~] (6) (a) In determining parent-time rights of parents and visitation rights of grandparents and other members of the immediate family, the court shall consider the best interest of the child.

(b) Upon a specific finding by the court of the need for peace officer enforcement, the court may include in an order establishing a parent-time or visitation schedule a provision, among other things, authorizing any peace officer to enforce a court-ordered parent-time or visitation schedule entered under this chapter.

[46] (7) If a petition for modification of child custody or parent-time provisions of a court order is made and denied, the court shall order the petitioner to pay the reasonable attorney fees expended by the prevailing party in that action, if the court determines that the petition was without merit and not asserted or defended against in good faith.

[47] (8) If a motion or petition alleges noncompliance with a parent-time order by a parent, or a visitation order by a grandparent or other member of the immediate family where a visitation or parent-time right has been previously granted by the court, the court may award to the prevailing party:

- (a) actual attorney fees incurred;
- (b) the costs incurred by the prevailing party because of the other party's failure to provide or exercise court-ordered visitation or parent-time, which may include:
  - (i) court costs;
  - (ii) child care expenses;
  - (iii) transportation expenses actually incurred;
  - (iv) lost wages, if ascertainable; and
  - (v) counseling for a child or parent if ordered or approved by the court;
- (c) make-up parent time consistent with the best interest of the child; and
- (d) any other appropriate equitable remedy.

[48] (9) (a) The court shall consider at least the following factors in determining alimony:

- (i) the financial condition and needs of the recipient spouse;
- (ii) the recipient's earning capacity or ability to produce income, including the impact of diminished workplace experience resulting from primarily caring for a child of the payor spouse;
- (iii) the ability of the payor spouse to provide support;
- (iv) the length of the marriage;
- (v) whether the recipient spouse has custody of a minor child requiring support;
- (vi) whether the recipient spouse worked in a business owned or operated by the payor spouse; and
- (vii) whether the recipient spouse directly contributed to any increase in the payor spouse's skill by paying for education received by the payor spouse or enabling the payor spouse to attend school during the marriage.

(b) The court may consider the fault of the parties in determining whether to award alimony and the terms of the alimony.

(c) "Fault" means any of the following wrongful conduct during the marriage that substantially contributed to the breakup of the marriage relationship:

- (i) engaging in sexual relations with ~~a person~~ an individual other than the party's spouse;
- (ii) knowingly and intentionally causing or attempting to cause physical harm to the other party or a minor child;
- (iii) knowingly and intentionally causing the other party or a minor child to reasonably fear life-threatening harm; or
- (iv) substantially undermining the financial stability of the other party or the minor child.

(d) The court may, when fault is at issue, close the proceedings and seal the court records.

(e) As a general rule, the court should look to the standard of living, existing at the time of separation, in determining alimony in accordance with Subsection [48] (9)(a). However, the court shall consider all relevant facts and equitable principles and may, in the court's discretion, base alimony on the standard of living that existed at the time of trial. In marriages of short duration, when no child has been conceived or born during the marriage, the court may consider the standard of living that existed at the time of the marriage.

(f) The court may, under appropriate circumstances, attempt to equalize the parties' respective standards of living.

(g) When a marriage of long duration dissolves on the threshold of a major change in the income of one of the spouses due to the collective efforts of both, that change shall be considered in dividing the marital property and in determining the amount of alimony. If one spouse's earning capacity has been greatly enhanced through the efforts of both spouses during the marriage, the court may make a compensating adjustment in dividing the marital property and awarding alimony.

(h) In determining alimony when a marriage of short duration dissolves, and no child has been conceived or born during the marriage, the court may consider restoring each party to the condition which existed at the time of the marriage.

[49] (10) (a) The court has continuing jurisdiction to make substantive changes and new orders regarding alimony based on a substantial material change in circumstances not foreseeable at the time of the divorce.

(b) Regardless of whether a party's retirement is foreseeable, the party's retirement is a substantial material change in circumstances that is subject to a petition to modify alimony, unless the divorce decree expressly states otherwise.

~~(iii)~~ (c) The court may not modify alimony or issue a new order for alimony to address needs of the recipient that did not exist at the time the decree was entered, unless the court finds extenuating circumstances that justify that action.

~~(iii)~~ (d) (i) In determining alimony, the income of any subsequent spouse of the payor may not be considered, except as provided in Subsection (9) or this Subsection ~~[(8)]~~ (10).

~~(A)~~ (ii) The court may consider the subsequent spouse's financial ability to share living expenses.

~~(B)~~ (iii) The court may consider the income of a subsequent spouse if the court finds that the payor's improper conduct justifies that consideration.

~~(j)~~ (e) ~~[Alimony may not be ordered]~~ The court may not order alimony for a duration longer than the number of years that the marriage existed unless, at any time before termination of alimony, the court finds extenuating circumstances that justify the payment of alimony for a longer period of time.

~~(9)~~ (11) Unless a decree of divorce specifically provides otherwise, any order of the court that a party pay alimony to a former spouse automatically terminates upon the remarriage or death of that former spouse. However, if the remarriage is annulled and found to be void ab initio, payment of alimony shall resume if the party paying alimony is made a party to the action of annulment and the payor party's rights are determined.

~~(10)~~ (12) (a) Subject to Subsection ~~[(10)]~~ (12)(b), an order of the court that a party pay alimony to a former spouse terminates upon establishment by the party paying alimony that the former spouse, after the order for alimony is issued, cohabits with another ~~[person]~~ individual, even if the former spouse is not cohabiting with another person when the party paying alimony files the motion to terminate alimony.

(b) A party paying alimony to a former spouse may not seek termination of alimony under Subsection ~~[(10)]~~ (12)(a), later than one year from the day on which the party knew or should have known that the former spouse has cohabited with another ~~[person]~~ individual.

or dental insurance plan is primary coverage and which parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is secondary coverage for a dependent child.

(b) The provisions of the court order required by Subsection (2)(a) shall:

(i) take effect if at any time a dependent child is covered by both parents' health, hospital, or dental insurance plans; and

If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child."

(c) A decree of divorce or related court order may not modify the language required by Subsection (2)(b)(ii).

(d) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(c), a court may allocate the payment of medical expenses including co-payments, deductibles, and co-insurance not covered by health insurance between the parents in accordance with Subsections ~~[30-3-5(1)(a)]~~ 30-3-5(2)(a) and 78B-12-212(7).

(3) In designating primary coverage pursuant to Subsection (2), a court may take into account:

(c) the parent with physical custody of the dependent child; or

(d) any other factor the court considers relevant.

Section 3. Section 78B-12-212 is amended to read:

78B-12-212. Medical expenses.

(1) A child support order issued or modified in this state on or after July 1, 2018, shall require compliance with this section as of the effective date of the child support order unless the court makes specific findings as to good cause to deviate from the requirements of this section.

(2) (a) The court shall order that health care coverage for the medical expenses of a minor child be provided by a parent.

(3) In determining which parent shall be ordered to maintain insurance for medical expenses, the court or administrative agency may consider the:

- (a) reasonableness of the cost;
- (b) availability of a group insurance policy;
- (c) coverage of the policy; and
- (d) preference of the custodial parent.

(4) The order shall require each parent to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance unless the court finds good cause to order otherwise.

(5) The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. If the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

(6) The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for a child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

(7) The order shall, in accordance with Subsection ~~[30-3-5(1)(b)]~~ 30-3-5(2)(a), include a cash medical support provision that requires each parent to equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for a dependent child, including deductibles and copayments unless the court finds good cause to order otherwise.

(8) The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

(10) In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsections (8) and (9).

  - (D) a water users association:
    - (I) in which one or more public entities own at least 70% of the outstanding shares; and

(c) "Shareholder" means the same as that term is defined in Section 73-3-3.5.

- (i) a municipality, water conservancy district, metropolitan water district, irrigation district, or other public agency;
- (ii) a water company regulated by the Public Service Commission; or

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b) or (e), when an appropriator or the appropriator's successor in interest abandons or ceases to beneficially use all or a portion of a water right for a period of at least seven years, the water right or the unused portion of that water right is subject to forfeiture in accordance with Subsection (2)(c).

(b) (i) An appropriator or the appropriator's successor in interest may file an application for nonuse with the state engineer.

(ii) A nonuse application may be filed on all or a portion of the water right, including water rights held by a water company.

(iii) After giving written notice to the water company, a shareholder may file a nonuse application with the state engineer on the water represented by the stock.

(iv) (A) The approval of a nonuse application excuses the requirement of beneficial use of water from the date of filing.

(B) The time during which an approved nonuse application is in effect does not count toward the seven-year period described in Subsection (2)(a).

(v) The filing or approval of a nonuse application or a series of nonuse applications under Subsection (3) does not:

(B) protect a water right that is already subject to forfeiture under this section; or

(C) bar a water right owner from:

(I) using the water under the water right as permitted under the water right; or

(II) claiming the benefit of Subsection (2)(e) or any other forfeiture defense provided by law.

(c) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(c)(ii), a water right or a portion of the water right may not be forfeited unless a judicial action to declare the right forfeited is commenced:

(A) within 15 years from the end of the latest period of nonuse of at least seven years; or

(B) within the combined time of 15 years from the end of the most recent period of nonuse of at least seven years and the time the water right was subject to one or more nonuse applications.

(ii) (A) The state engineer, in a proposed determination of rights filed with the court and prepared in accordance with Section 73-4-11, may not assert that a water right was forfeited unless the most recent period of nonuse of seven years ends or occurs:

(I) during the 15 years immediately preceding the day on which the state engineer files the proposed determination of rights with the court; or

(II) during the combined time immediately preceding the day on which the state engineer files the proposed determination of rights consisting of 15 years and the time the water right was subject to one or more approved nonuse applications.

(B) After the day on which a proposed determination of rights is filed with the court a person may not assert that a water right subject to that determination was forfeited before the issuance of the proposed determination, unless the state engineer asserts forfeiture in the proposed determination, or a person, in accordance with Section 73-4-11, makes an objection to the proposed determination that asserts forfeiture.

(iii) A water right, found to be valid in a decree entered in an action for general determination of rights under Chapter 4, Determination of Water Rights, is subject to a claim of forfeiture based on a seven-year period of nonuse that begins after the day on which the state engineer filed the related proposed determination of rights with the court, unless the decree provides otherwise.

(iv) If in a judicial action a court declares a water right forfeited, on the date on which the water right is forfeited:

(A) the right to beneficially use the water reverts to the public; and

(B) the water made available by the forfeiture:

(I) first, satisfies other water rights in the hydrologic system in order of priority date; and

(II) second, may be appropriated as provided in this title.

(d) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(e), this section applies whether the unused or abandoned water or a portion of the water is:

(i) permitted to run to waste; or

(ii) beneficially used by others without right with the knowledge of the water right holder.

(e) This section does not apply to:

(i) the beneficial use of water according to a lease or other agreement with the appropriator or the appropriator's successor in interest;

(ii) a water right if its place of use is contracted under an approved state agreement or federal conservation following program;

(iii) those periods of time when a surface water or groundwater source fails to yield sufficient water to satisfy the water right;

(iv) a water right when water is unavailable because of the water right's priority date;

(v) a water right to store water in a surface reservoir or an aquifer, in accordance with Title 73, Chapter 3b, Groundwater Recharge and Recovery Act, if:

(A) the water is stored for present or future beneficial use; or

(B) storage is limited by a safety, regulatory, or engineering restraint that the appropriator or the appropriator's successor in interest cannot reasonably correct;

(vi) a water right if a water user has beneficially used substantially all of the water right within a seven-year period, provided that this exemption does not apply to the adjudication of a water right in a general determination of water rights under Chapter 4, Determination of Water Rights;

(vii) except as provided by Subsection (2)(g), a water right:

(A) (I) owned by a public water supplier;

(II) represented by a public water supplier's ownership interest in a water company; or

(III) to which a public water supplier owns the right of beneficial use; and

(B) conserved or held for the reasonable future water requirement of the public, which is determined according to Subsection (2)(f);

(viii) a supplemental water right during a period of time when another water right available to the appropriator or the appropriator's successor in interest provides sufficient water so as to not require beneficial use of the supplemental water right; ~~or~~

(ix) a period of nonuse of a water right during the time the water right is subject to an approved change application where the applicant is diligently pursuing certification~~[-];~~ or

(x) a water right subject to an approved change application for use within a water bank that has been authorized but not dissolved under Chapter 31, Water Banking Act, during the period of time the state engineer authorizes the water right to be used within the water bank.

(ii) the state engineer approves the change application.

(3) (a) The state engineer shall furnish a nonuse application form requiring the following information:

(e) After further investigation, the state engineer may approve or reject the application.

(4) (a) The state engineer shall grant a nonuse application on all or a portion of a water right for a period of time not exceeding seven years if the applicant shows a reasonable cause for nonuse.

(b) A reasonable cause for nonuse includes:

(ii) a physical ~~[causes or changes]~~ cause or change that ~~[fender]~~ renders use beyond the reasonable control of the water right owner so long as the water right owner acts with reasonable diligence to resume or restore the use;

(iii) the initiation of water conservation or an efficiency ~~[practices]~~ practice, or the operation of a groundwater recharge recovery program approved by the state engineer;

(iv) operation of a legal ~~[proceedings]~~ proceeding;

(vii) the loss of capacity caused by deterioration of the water supply or delivery equipment if the applicant submits, with the application, a specific plan to resume full use of the water right by replacing, restoring, or improving the equipment.

(5) (a) Sixty days before the expiration of a nonuse application, the state engineer shall notify the applicant by mail or by any form of electronic communication through which receipt is verifiable, of the date when the nonuse application will expire.

Section 1. Section 36-12-7 is amended to read:*36-12-7. Legislative Management Committee -- Duties -- Litigation.

(1) The Senate or House Management Committee shall:

(b) assign to interim committees of the same house, matters of legislative study not specifically contained in a legislative resolution but considered significant to the welfare of the state;

(d) establish a budget account for interim committee day as designated by Legislative Management Committee and for all other legislative committees of its house and allocate to that account sufficient funds to adequately provide for the work of the committee; and

(e) designate the time and place for periodic meetings of the interim committees.

(2) To maximize the use of legislators' available time, the Senate and House Management Committees should attempt to schedule the committee meetings of their respective houses during the same one or two-day period each month. This does not preclude an interim committee from meeting at any time it determines necessary to complete its business.

(3) The Legislative Management Committee shall:

(a) employ, after recommendation of the appropriate subcommittee of the Legislative Management Committee, without regard to political affiliation, and subject to approval of a majority vote of both houses, persons qualified for the positions of director of the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel, legislative fiscal analyst, legislative general counsel, and legislative auditor general. Appointments to these positions shall be for terms of six years subject to renewal under the same procedure as the original appointment. A person may be removed from any of these offices before the expiration of the person's term only by a majority vote of both houses of the Legislature or by a two-thirds vote of the management committee for such causes as inefficiency, incompetency, failure to maintain skills or adequate performance levels, insubordination, misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office. If a vacancy occurs in any of these offices after adjournment of the Legislature, the committee shall appoint an individual to fill the vacancy until such time as the person is approved or rejected by majority vote of the next session of the Legislature;

(b) develop policies for personnel management, compensation, and training of all professional legislative staff;

(c) develop a policy within the limits of legislative appropriation for the authorization and payment to legislators of compensation and travel expenses, including out-of-state travel;

(d) approve special study budget requests of the legislative directors; and

(e) assist the speaker-elect of the House of Representatives and the president-elect of the Senate, upon selection by their majority party caucus, to organize their respective houses of the Legislature and assume the direction of the operation of the Legislature in the forthcoming annual general session.

(4) (a) The Legislature delegates to the Legislative Management Committee the authority, by means of a majority vote of the committee, to direct the legislative general counsel in matters involving the Legislature's participation in litigation.

(b) The Legislature has an unconditional right to intervene in a state court action and may provide evidence or argument, written or oral, if a party to that court action challenges:

- (i) the constitutionality of a state statute;
- (ii) the validity of legislation; or
- (iii) any action of the Legislature.

(c) In a federal court action that challenges the constitutionality of a state statute, the validity of legislation, or any action of the Legislature, the Legislature may seek to intervene, to file an amicus brief, or to present argument in accordance with federal rules of procedure.

(d) Intervention by the Legislature pursuant to Subsection (4)(b) or (c) does not limit the duty of the attorney general to appear and prosecute legal actions or defend state agencies, officers or employees as otherwise provided by law.

(e) In any action in which the Legislature intervenes or participates, legislative counsel and the attorney general shall function independently from each other in the representation of their respective clients.

(f) The attorney general shall notify the legislative general counsel of a claim in accordance with Subsection 67-5-1(24).

Section 2. Section 67-5-1 is amended to read:

(2) (a) If the amount of an estate tax marital or charitable deduction is reduced because a fiduciary deducts an amount paid from principal for income tax purposes instead of deducting ~~[it]~~ the amount for estate tax purposes and, as a result, estate taxes paid from principal are increased and income taxes paid by the fiduciary or a beneficiary are decreased, the fiduciary shall charge each beneficiary that benefits from the decrease in income tax to reimburse the principal from which the increase in estate tax is paid.

(b) The total reimbursement must equal the increase in the estate tax, to the extent that the principal used to pay the increase would have qualified for a marital or charitable deduction but for the payment.

(c) The share of the reimbursement for each fiduciary or beneficiary whose income taxes are reduced ~~[must]~~ shall be the same as ~~[its]~~ the fiduciary's or beneficiary's share of the total decrease in income tax.

(3) A fiduciary that charges a beneficiary under Subsection (2) may offset the charge by obtaining payment from the beneficiary, withholding an amount from future distributions to the beneficiary, or adopting another method or combination of methods.

~~[(4)] (5) If a decedent's will, the terms of a trust, or applicable law provides for the payment of interest or the equivalent of interest to a beneficiary that receives a pecuniary amount outright, the fiduciary shall make the payment from net income determined under Subsection (3) or from principal to the extent that net income is insufficient.~~

~~[(5)] (6) If a beneficiary is to receive a pecuniary amount outright from a trust after an income interest ends because of an income beneficiary's death, and no payment of interest or the equivalent of interest is provided for by the terms of the trust or applicable law, the fiduciary shall pay the interest or the equivalent of interest to which the beneficiary would be entitled under applicable law if the pecuniary amount were required to be paid under a will.~~

the fiduciary recovers or expects to recover the payment from a third party.

(b) The net income and principal receipts from the property ~~[must]~~ shall be determined by including the amount the fiduciary receives or pays regarding the property, whether the amount accrued or became due before, on, or after the date of the decedent's death or an income interest's terminating event, and making a reasonable provision for an amount the estate or income interest may become obligated to pay after the property is distributed.

maintain records showing the interest of each beneficiary in the net income.

(4) If this section applies to income from an asset, a fiduciary may apply ~~[the rules in this section]~~ Subsection (2) to net gain or loss realized from the disposition of the asset after the decedent's death, an income interest's terminating event, or the preceding distribution by the fiduciary.

Section 44. Section 30-3-37 is amended to read:

30-3-37. Relocation.

(1) For purposes of this section, "relocation" means moving 150 miles or more from the residence of the other parent.

(2) The relocating parent shall provide 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. The written notice of relocation shall contain statements affirming the following:

(a) the parent-time provisions in Subsection [(5)] (6) or a schedule approved by both parties will be followed; and

(b) neither parent will interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court ordered parent-time arrangements, or the schedule approved by both parties.

(3) The court shall, upon motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, schedule a hearing with notice to review the notice of relocation and parent-time schedule as provided in Section 30-3-35 and make appropriate orders regarding the parent-time and costs for parent-time transportation.

(4) In a hearing to review the notice of relocation, the court shall, in determining if the relocation of a custodial parent is in the best interest of the child, consider any other factors that the court considers relevant to the determination. If the court determines that relocation is not in the best interest of the child, and the custodial parent relocates, the court may order a change of custody.

(5) If the court finds that the relocation is in the best interest of the child, the court shall determine the parent-time schedule and allocate the transportation costs that will be incurred for the child to visit the noncustodial parent. In making its determination, court shall consider:

(a) the reason for the parent's relocation;

(b) the additional costs or difficulty to both parents in exercising parent-time;

(c) the economic resources of both parents; and

(d) other factors the court considers necessary and relevant.

(6) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, upon the relocation, as defined in Subsection (1), of one of the parties the following schedule shall be the minimum requirements for parent-time for children 5 to 18 years of age:

(a) in years ending in an odd number, the child shall spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

(i) Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and

(ii) Spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;

(b) in years ending in an even number, the child shall spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

- (i) the entire winter school break period; and
- (ii) the Fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;
- (c) extended parent-time equal to 1/2 of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks. The children should be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins; however, this week shall be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period; and
- (d) one weekend per month, at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent.

(7) The court may also set a parent-time schedule for children under the age of five. The schedule shall take into consideration the following:

- (a) the age of the child;
- (b) the developmental needs of the child;
- (c) the distance between the parents' homes;
- (d) the travel arrangements and cost;
- (e) the level of attachment between the child and the noncustodial parent; and
- (f) any other factors relevant to the best interest of the child.

(8) The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

(a) If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent shall receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to the next to the last weekend of the month.

(b) If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend shall be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

(c) If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection (6) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days shall be included in the weekend parent-time.

(9) The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

(10) In the event finances and distance preclude the exercise of minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent during the school year, the court should consider awarding more time for the noncustodial parent during the summer time if it is in the best interests of the children.

(11) Upon the motion of any party, the court may order uninterrupted parent-time with the noncustodial parent for a minimum of 30 days during extended parent-time, unless the court finds it is not in the best interests of the child. If the court orders uninterrupted parent-time during a period not covered by this section, it shall specify in its order which parent is responsible for the child's travel expenses.

(12) Unless otherwise ordered by the court the relocating party shall be responsible for all the child's travel expenses relating to Subsections (6)(a) and (b) and 1/2 of the child's travel expenses relating to Subsection (6)(c), provided the noncustodial parent is current on all support obligations. If the noncustodial parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, the noncustodial parent shall be responsible for all of the child's travel expenses under Subsection (6), unless the court rules otherwise. Reimbursement by either responsible party to the other for the child's travel expenses shall be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

(13) The court may apply this provision to any preexisting decree of divorce.

(14) Any action under this section may be set for an expedited hearing.

(15) A parent who fails to comply with the notice of relocation in Subsection (2) shall be in contempt of the court's order.
