DIGEST OF LEGISLATION
2014 GENERAL SESSION
of the 60th Legislature

INTRODUCTION

This Digest of Legislation provides long titles of bills and resolutions enacted by the 60th Legislature in the 2014 General Session, the First House Session, the First Special Session, and the Second Special Session. The digest lists the sponsor, sections of the Utah Code affected, effective date, session law chapter number for each bill enacted, and whether the bill was studied and approved by an interim committee (in italics). Bills and resolutions not passed are indexed by subject. Statistical summary data are also included.

An electronic version of this year's publication, the complete bill text and a subject, numerical, and sponsor index for all bills introduced each session can be found online at <http://le.utah.gov>.

If more detailed information is needed, please contact the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel at (801) 538-1032.

HCR 10 Concurrent Resolution on School and Institutional Trust Lands Exchange Act (Michael E. Noel)

This concurrent resolution of the Legislature and the Governor urges the United States Congress to enact legislation affirming the federal land grant process and eliminating barriers to federal-state land exchanges.

This resolution:

- ▶ urges the United States Congress to enact legislation that:
  - affirms and clarifies that Congress and federal land management agencies recognize their historic role of establishing land grants to the states for the support of educational and other public institutions;
  - establishes that the United States has a continuing affirmative obligation to assist the states in fulfilling the purposes of the various grants;
  - establishes that rationalizing the land ownership pattern to reposition lands more suited to the management mandates of each owner is an important public purpose equivalent in character to all of the other management mandates required of federal land management and federal resource regulatory agencies;
  - establishes that land exchanges between the United States and the respective states are transactions between coequal sovereign governments and require standards of prioritization, evaluation, and processing that may differ from those involving private parties; and
  - eliminates unnecessary obstacles to federal-state land exchanges contained in the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 by:
    - creating the presumption in federal environmental and land use planning that state-federal land exchanges are in the public interest;
    - requiring federal land management agencies to give priority to land exchanges that remove state land grant properties from areas of federal land or resource management provisions that restrict the state's ability to generate revenue; and
    - setting a goal for federal land management agencies and managers of state land exchange proposals to work from the feasibility study through the transaction-closing phases of state-federal land exchanges in two years or less.

Governor's Veto Message

Dear Speaker Lockhart and President Niederhauser:

April 2, 2014

As required by Article VII, Section 8 of the Utah Constitution, I am writing to provide you with my objections to House Bill 102, ASSESSMENT AREA AMENDMENTS, and to explain my decision to veto the bill.

After reviewing HB 102, I understand the original purpose was to reform and revise potential problems that exist in the creation of Special Assessment Areas. However, because of the complexity of these revisions and the time constraints of the session, a decision was made to amend HB 102 to place a one-year moratorium on the creation of new Special Assessment Areas.

Unbeknownst to the bill sponsor, several rural counties have been working for years on projects to expand critical natural gas infrastructure to communities and businesses that do not have access to the benefits of this energy resource. Over the past few months, these counties have received the regulatory changes necessary to make these projects happen. Currently, there are six projects planned for later this year that will favorably impact hundreds of families and millions of dollars in business investment for these economically challenged areas. Unfortunately, the only vehicle available for these changes will be the creation of new Special Assessment Area.

I have spoken with the bill sponsor, Representative Webb, and the floor sponsor, Senator Adams, and both understand the importance of these projects and never intended for their delay. Please note that a veto of this bill is not a commentary on the underlying effort to improve the Special Assessment Areas creation process. Indeed, I support the efforts of the bill sponsor to continue this process during the interim. Furthermore, I urge the League of Cities and Towns, the Utah Association of Counties and other interested parties to work diligently with the bill sponsor to solve these issues.

For these reasons, I veto House Bill 102, ASSESSMENT AREA AMENDMENTS and return it to the House of Representatives.

Gary R. Herbert, Governor

HB 414 Legislative Subpoena Amendments (James A. Dunnigan)

This bill amends provisions relating to a legislative subpoena.

This bill:

- ▶ defines terms;
- ▶ describes the nature and purpose of a legislative subpoena;
- ▶ establishes a process for the subject of a legislative subpoena to challenge a legislative subpoena before a legislative review committee;
- ▶ provides that a legislative review committee has the sole and final authority to hear and rule on a challenge to a legislative subpoena;
- ▶ describes the grounds upon which the subject of a subpoena may challenge a legislative subpoena;
- ▶ describes the action that a legislative review committee may take after a hearing on a challenge to a legislative subpoena;
- ▶ establishes a process for the issuer of a legislative subpoena to file a motion with a legislative review committee to find a person in civil contempt of the Legislature and to compel obedience to the legislative subpoena;
- ▶ describes the action that a legislative review committee may take after a hearing on a motion described in the preceding section;
- ▶ provides for a legislative subpoena to be reissued as a court subpoena in order to assist with enforcement of the subpoena outside of Utah;
- ▶ establishes and describes the membership and functioning of a legislative review committee;
- ▶ provides for the civil enforcement of a legislative subpoena by a court; and

Governor's Veto Message

Dear Speaker Lockhart and President Niederhauser:

April 2, 2014

As required by Article VII, Section 8 of the Utah Constitution, I am writing to provide you with my objections to House Bill 414, LEGISLATIVE SUBPOENA AMENDMENTS, and to explain my decision to veto the bill.

In vetoing HB 414, I do not question the Legislature's authority to seek information through subpoenas and to conduct investigations. The State is best served when policy makers have complete information in order to make informed decisions. Further, I recognize this bill was passed in response to the investigation of former Attorney General John Swallow, and was a result of the frustration the Legislature experienced in conducting that investigation. While I am sympathetic to that frustration, history has repeatedly shown us that government response to scandals can often be excessive and overreaching. Regardless of the motives for passing HB 414, I cannot sign a bill that demands information of anyone, at any time, on any subject, for any purpose, and denies our citizens their fundamental constitutional rights of defense and due process.

HB 414 ignores the checks and balances that are the basis for our system of government by exempting legislative subpoenas from judicial oversight. The bill violates the open courts provision of the Utah Constitution by denying citizens the ability to seek redress in the courts. In fact, the bill specifically states that "A person may not file with a court, and a court does not have jurisdiction to hear or decide, a disputative motion or any other motion or action challenging the scope, breadth, or validity of a legislative subpoena." The bill subjects, not only public officials, but also private citizens to unlimited and unrestrained subpoena power. And most egregiously, the bill criminalizes any attempt by an individual to seek relief from anyone other than the legislative body itself, punishable by up to one year in jail.

The problems with HB 414 might have been resolved with sufficient vetting and public debate, but instead, this bill was voted on late in the session, too quickly, and without public hearing or input. The final version of HB 414 did not have a committee hearing in either the House or Senate, and the only debate on the final version of the bill was related to a motion to concur. While the flaws in the bill were acknowledged and discussed in that final vote, the message was, we know it is flawed but we can fix it later. That sentiment may work with technical corrections to governmental programs, but should never be applied to a bill that denies citizens their civil rights.

I am confident that when concepts in this bill are looked at more carefully and are given more scrutiny by the public and members of the Legislature, the original purpose of this bill can be accomplished without jeopardizing the rights of our citizens.

For these reasons, I disapprove of and veto House Bill 414, LEGISLATIVE SUBPOENA AMENDMENTS, and return it to the House of Representatives.

Gary R. Herbert, Governor

- ▶ makes technical changes.

Amends 53A-1-603

Governor's Veto Message

Dear Speaker Lockhart and President Niederhauser:

April 2, 2014

As required by Article VII, Section 8 of the Utah Constitution, I am writing to provide you with my objections to Senate Bill 257, PARENT REVIEW OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS AND CURRICULUM, and to explain my decision to veto the bill.

While I greatly appreciate the sponsors' call for increased parent participation in decisions related to curriculum and instructional materials, the participation and dialog should happen with teachers and elected school board members, community councils, and charter officials - at a local level.

Senate Bill 257 calls for a review of curriculum complaints by an appointed state level panel of parents. Decisions about curriculum and instructional materials are made at the local level: local teachers, schools, school districts, and charter schools make decisions about materials, textbooks, and methods they will use in the classroom. Locally elected school board members and charter board members have the responsibility to work with their teachers and administrators to monitor the instructional materials used in their schools and to respond to parent concerns. Most already have formal processes in place to do this.

In discussions about this bill, the stakeholders, including members of the parent panel given the responsibility by the bill acknowledged the need for school districts and charter schools to have policies in place that outline a clear process to address parent concerns about curriculum issues. I intend to work with the State Board of Education and sponsors of this bill to assure these policies are in place and implemented on a local level and in a way that will be truly meaningful.

For these reasons, I disapprove of and veto Senate Bill 257, PARENT REVIEW OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS AND CURRICULUM, and return it to the House of Representatives.

Gary R. Herbert, Governor

Governor's Line Item Veto Message to H.B. 3

Dear Speaker Lockhart and President Niederhauser:

April 2, 2014

As required by Article VII, Section 8 of the Utah Constitution, I am writing to provide you with my statement of the item of appropriation of which I disapprove in House Bill 3, APPROPRIATIONS ADJUSTMENTS.

I disapprove of lines 802 through 807 of HB 3. This will correct the unintentional double funding of Senate Bi11104, Improvement of Reading Instruction, which appropriates $100,000 from the Education Fund to the University of Utah to carry out the provisions of the bill. This bill, HB 3, includes a duplicate appropriation from the Education Fund to the University of Utah for the same purpose. This veto removes the duplicate appropriation.

For these reasons, I veto lines 802 through 807 of House Bill 3, APPROPRIATIONS ADJUSTMENTS.

Gary R. Herbert, Governor
