(3) In seeking to balance these interests, it is necessary to avoid controls that might be so strict that they discourage capable and honorable persons from entering legislative service.

(4) It is recognized that public confidence in the Legislature should be promoted and that competent members should serve in the Legislature even though most of them have private interests of various types.

(5) It is also recognized that a citizen legislator is in a different position in doing business with the state and its political subdivisions than a public servant whose chief source of livelihood is derived from public funds.

(3) (a) As also required by Utah Code Section 36-19-1, a legislator, member of the legislator's household, or client may not be a party to or have an interest in the profits or benefits of a state contract when the state contract is the direct result of a bill sponsored by the legislator, unless the contract is let in compliance with state procurement policies and is open to the general public.

CHAPTER 4. SENATE CALENDARS

(a) read the legislation for the second time; and

- (b) place the legislation on the consent calendar.
- (2) (a) Whenever the consent calendar contains legislation, the presiding officer shall inform the Senate each day that:

 - (i) remove the legislation from the consent calendar; and

- (c) If the presiding officer hears any nays to the question, a roll call vote shall be taken immediately.
- (5) Notwithstanding the requirements of Subsection (4), any senator may, before the roll call vote is taken, make a motion to remove the bill from the consent calendar and place it on the bottom of the third reading calendar.
- (6) Nothing in this section prevents a senator from challenging the ruling of the chair or asking for a vote on any question.

Part 4. Concurrence Calendar

SR4-4-401. Concurrence calendar.

- (1) After the secretary of the Senate or the secretary's designee reads the transmittal letter from the House informing the Senate that the House has amended or substituted a piece of Senate legislation, the presiding officer shall place the legislation on the concurrence calendar.
- (2) (a) During the first 43 days of the annual general session, the legislation shall remain on the concurrence calendar over at least one night before the Senate may consider the question of concurrence.

(3) (a) When presenting legislation to the Senate for concurrence, the presiding officer shall ask the sponsor of the legislation for a motion.

(b) The sponsor of the legislation may move to either:

(i) concur with the House amendments; or

(2) other rules allowing matters to be set for a time certain.

CHAPTER 5. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

SR4-5-101. Committee of the whole -- Purpose -- Process.

(1) Because only members of the Senate may speak to the Senate while the Senate is conducting business on the floor, the Senate must resolve itself into a committee of the whole in order to allow nonmembers to address the Senate.

(2) The Senate may resolve itself into a committee of the whole if:

(a) a senator makes a motion for the Senate to resolve itself into a committee of the whole; and

(b) the motion is approved by a majority vote of those present.

SR4-5-102. Procedure in committee of the whole.

SR4-6-103. Sponsor may open and close debate.

After coming to a piece of legislation on a calendar or after accepting a motion, the presiding officer shall recognize the chief sponsor of the piece of legislation or of the motion and allow the chief sponsor to open and close debate on the legislation or motion.

SR4-6-104. Interruptions and questions.

(1) A senator may not interrupt or question another senator in debate without that senator's consent.

(2) (a) To obtain consent, the querying senator shall address the presiding officer and ask if the senator speaking will yield the floor to a question or series of questions.

(b) If the senator speaking consents to yield the floor to a question or series of questions, the presiding officer shall allow the querying senator to ask the question or questions.

(c) If the senator speaking declines to yield the floor to a question or series of questions, the presiding officer:

(i) shall inform the querying senator that the senator speaking has declined; and

(ii) may not allow the querying senator to ask a question or series of questions.

SR4-6-105. Senators not to speak more than twice -- Maximum speaking time.

SR4-6-106. Order of action.

If a senator makes a motion to amend or substitute legislation during debate on second or third reading, the presiding officer shall ensure that the Senate debates and passes or defeats the motion to amend or substitute before allowing debate and action on the legislation itself.

SR4-6-107. Substitute motions.

(1) A senator may, upon recognition by the presiding officer, make a substitute motion, which, if adopted by vote of a majority of the Senate, disposes of the original motion.

(2) If the substitute motion is not adopted, the original motion is revived.

(3) A senator may not make a substitute motion if another substitute motion has been made and is pending.

SR4-6-108. Dividing a motion or question.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(i), if a motion or a question in debate contains several points, a senator may ask to have the question divided for purposes of the vote.

(b) (i) A motion to strike out and insert is not subject to division.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(b)(i), the rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition does not preclude a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition.

(2) The request to divide shall clearly state how the motion or question is to be divided.

(3) (a) The presiding officer shall determine how many divisions may be made to any motion or question.

(b) The Senate may seek to overrule the chair's decision only once.

(c) The presiding officer shall grant priority to the motions listed in Subsection (1)(a) according to the order in which they are listed in that rule.

(2) A senator may not make, and the presiding officer may not accept, a motion for the previous question, which is a call for an end to debate and a vote on the matter under discussion.

(3) If a motion to postpone a piece of legislation to a day certain or a motion to refer a piece of legislation to a committee is defeated, a senator may not make the same motion on the same piece of legislation during the same reading of the legislation.

(1) A motion to circle a piece of legislation holds the legislation in place on the calendar.

(2) (a) A motion to circle preserves all amendments or substitutes to the legislation already adopted by the Senate.

(b) A motion to circle extinguishes all amendments or substitutes pending at the time that the motion is made.

(3) When a motion to uncircle is made:

(a) amendments, substitutes, or both that were already adopted by the Senate are part of the legislation; and

(b) any amendments or substitutes that were being discussed at the time the legislation was circled are extinguished and a new motion to amend or substitute must be made in order to revive them.

SR4-6-203. Motion to strike the enacting clause.

(1) When a motion to strike the enacting clause passes by a constitutional majority, the bill from which the enacting clause was stricken is dead and may not be revived.

(4) The representative who made a motion may withdraw it any time before the vote on the motion.

HR4-6-103. Sponsor may open and close debate.

When a piece of legislation is on a calendar and ready for debate, or after accepting a motion, the presiding officer shall:

(1) recognize the chief sponsor of the piece of legislation or of the motion and allow the chief sponsor to open and close debate on the legislation or motion; and

(2) allow the chief sponsor to close debate even if a motion to end debate has passed the House.

HR4-6-104. Interruptions and questions.

(1) A representative may not interrupt or question another representative in debate without that representative's consent.

(2) (a) To obtain consent, the querying representative shall address the presiding officer and, upon recognition by the presiding officer, ask if the representative speaking will yield the floor to a question.

(b) If the representative speaking consents to yield the floor to a question, the presiding officer shall allow the querying representative to ask the question.

(c) If the representative speaking declines to yield the floor to a question, the presiding officer:

(i) shall inform the querying representative that the representative speaking has declined; and

(ii) may not allow the querying representative to ask a question.

HR4-6-104.5. Yielding time -- Prohibition on motions.

(1) With the approval of the presiding officer, a representative who has the floor may yield all or part of the representative's remaining time to another representative.

(2) A representative who has the floor as a result of time yielded from another representative may not make a motion.

HR4-6-105. Representatives not to speak more than twice -- Maximum speaking time.

(1) (a) Without permission from the House, a representative may not speak more than twice on the same piece of legislation, substitute legislation, or amendment in any one debate on the same day and on the same reading of the legislation.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(ii), the presiding officer may not grant a representative who has spoken once permission to speak again on the same piece of legislation or substitute if any representative who has not spoken wishes to speak.

(ii) The presiding officer may grant a representative who has spoken once permission to respond to a question if the representative consents to a request that the representative yield to a question under HR4-6-104.

(2) A representative may not speak longer than 10 minutes at any time, unless another representative yields that representative's time to the representative who has the floor.

(3) Unless extended by a majority vote:

(a) during the first 38 days of an annual general session, the presiding officer may not allow the House to debate a piece of legislation for more than eight hours; and

HR4-6-105.5. Reference to committee action or debate prohibited.

During debate on the House floor, a representative may not allude to or discuss what was done or said in committee in relation to the legislation under debate, except that a representative may allude to or discuss information contained on a House or Senate committee report.

HR4-6-106. Order of action.

If a representative makes a motion to amend or substitute legislation during debate on third reading, the presiding officer shall ensure that the House debates and passes or defeats the motion to amend or substitute before allowing debate and action on the legislation itself.

HR4-6-107. Substitute motions.

(1) A representative may, upon recognition by the presiding officer, make a substitute motion, which, if adopted by vote of a majority of the House, disposes of the original motion.

(2) If the substitute motion is not adopted, the original motion is revived.

(3) A representative may not:

(a) make a substitute motion if another substitute motion has been made and is pending;

or

(b) make a motion to end debate (call the previous question) as a substitute motion.

HR4-6-108. Dividing a motion or question.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(i), if a motion or a question in debate contains several points, a representative may ask to have the question divided for purposes of the vote.

(b) (i) A motion to strike out and insert is not subject to division.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(b)(i), the rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition does not preclude a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition.

(2) The request to divide must clearly state how the motion or question is to be divided.

(3) (a) The presiding officer shall determine how many divisions may be made to any motion or question.

(b) The House may seek to overrule the chair's decision only once.

HR4-6-109. Motions in order during debate.

(1) (a) When a motion or question is being debated, the presiding officer may not accept any other motion except a motion:

(i) to adjourn, which is nondebatable;
(ii) to determine the time to which to adjourn, which is debatable;
(iii) to recess, which is nondebatable;
(iv) to end debate (call the previous question), which is nondebatable and requires a two-thirds vote to pass;

(v) to refer to a committee, which is debatable;
(vi) to limit debate, which is debatable;
(vii) to postpone to a time certain, which is debatable;
(viii) to circle, which is debatable;
(ix) to strike the enacting clause, which is debatable;
(x) to substitute, which is debatable; or
(xi) to amend, which is debatable.

(b) Points of order and appeals of the decision of the presiding officer are not motions and are always in order.

(c) The presiding officer shall grant priority to the motions listed in Subsection (1)(a) according to the order in which they are listed in that rule.

(2) (a) If an amendment or substitute to a piece of legislation has been proposed and is under consideration by the House, the presiding officer shall treat a motion to end debate (call the previous question) as directed only toward the amendment or substitute.

(b) If no motion to amend or substitute a piece of legislation has been made, the chair shall treat a motion to end debate (call the previous question) as directed toward action on the legislation itself.

(3) If a motion to postpone a piece of legislation to a day certain or a motion to return a piece of legislation to the House Rules committee is defeated, a representative may not make the same motion on the same piece of legislation during the same reading of the legislation.

(4) When a motion to refer to committee, to postpone to a time certain, or to circle is made, the presiding officer may not allow consideration of amendments or debate on the main question.

(5) During a roll call, no motion or other business is in order except for a call of the House, until after the announcement of the result of the vote.

HR4-6-110. Nondebatable motions.

(1) The presiding officer may not allow debate on a motion:

(a) to adjourn;
(b) to recess;

(2) The presiding officer shall decide all points of order arising from one of the above motions without debate.

Part 2. Specific Motions

- (3) Legislation that has been circled may only be uncircled by the:

 - (b) representative designated by the chief Senate sponsor to be the House floor sponsor of the legislation.
- (4) When a motion to uncircle is made:

HR4-6-203. Motion to strike the enacting clause.

- (1) When a motion to strike the enacting clause passes by a constitutional majority, the bill from which the enacting clause was stricken is dead and may not be revived.

A lobbyist, volunteer lobbyist, or government official may not:

- (1) attempt to influence a representative, elected or appointed state official, state employee, or legislative employee by means of deceit or by threat of violence or economic or political reprisal against any person or property, with intent by doing so to alter or affect the representative's, elected or appointed state official's, state employee's, or legislative employee's decision, vote, opinion, or action concerning any matter that is to be considered or performed by the representative, official, or employee or the agency or body of which the representative, official, or employee is a member;

(3) (a) A complaint filed under this rule is a protected record under Utah Code Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, until referred to the House Management Committee for action, because disclosure of the information in the complaint would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy and that disclosure is not in the public interest.

(b) A complaint filed under this rule that is dismissed by the speaker and minority leader is a protected record under Utah Code Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, because disclosure of the information in the complaint would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy and that disclosure is not in the public interest.

(d) The committee may allow other persons with information relevant to the complaint to address and be questioned by the committee.

(e) (i) The complainants, the lobbyist, volunteer lobbyist, or government official, and any witness appearing before the committee may have legal counsel present.

(ii) That counsel may privately advise their client about the client's legal rights when specifically requested to do so by their client, but may not address the committee, ask questions of any party or witness, or engage in oral arguments with the committee.

(iii) If counsel fails to abide by any of these rules, the committee may exclude the counsel from the meeting.

HR5-3-104. Enforcement -- Penalty.

(1) If the House Management Committee determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the lobbyist, volunteer lobbyist, or government official has violated one or more provisions of HR5-2-101, the committee may impose any sanction against the lobbyist, volunteer lobbyist, or government official that is not forbidden by the United States Constitution or the Utah Constitution.

(2) Appropriate sanctions include, but are not limited to, any, all, or some combination of the following:

(a) prohibiting the lobbyist, volunteer lobbyist, or government official from access to some or all of the legislative area of the state capitol for a period of time; and
