

1. Line 233 through 234a:

233 (5) "Code red event" means a weather event in which the National Weather Service predicts
 234 a ~~HeatRisk of 2 - Moderate or greater,~~] HeatRisk of 3 - Major or greater, ←~~HeatRisk of 2 - Moderate or greater,~~
 234a including any other extreme weather conditions

2. Line 295 through 296a:

295 county for the duration of a code red alert:
 296 (a) ~~HeatRisk of 2 - Moderate or greater,~~ ←~~HeatRisk of 2 - Moderate or greater,~~ a homeless shelter may expand the 296a homeless shelter's capacity limit by up to 35% to

3. Line 309 through 311:

309 government entity, or local government entity may be used to provide temporary 310 shelter to individuals experiencing homelessness ~~and is exempt from the~~]
 310a in accordance with ←~~and is exempt from the~~ licensure
 311 requirements of Title 26B, Chapter 2, Licensing and Certifications, for the duration

4. Line 315 through 316a:

315 (e) homeless shelters, state and local government entities, and other organizations that 316 provide services to individuals experiencing homelessness ~~shall~~] may ←~~shall~~
 316a coordinate street

5. Line 318 through 320:

318 resources for survival in hot weather, including water, lightweight and light-colored
 319 clothing, a hat, sunscreen, or other items that may protect the individual from heat; ~~and~~ ←~~and~~
 319a and ←~~and~~
 320 (f) a state or local government entity, including a municipality, law enforcement agency,

6. Line 322 through 327e:

322 from individuals experiencing homelessness any personal items for survival in hot
 323 weather, including clothing, tents, or other items used for shade ~~;~~ and]
 324 [(g) a municipality or other local government entity may not enforce any ordinance or]
 ←~~and~~

325 ~~Ĥ→ [{ policy that limits or restricts the ability for the provisions described in Subsections }~~
326 ~~{ (1)(a) through (f) to take effect, including local zoning ordinances. }] ←Ĥ~~
327 (2) ~~Ĥ→~~ A homeless shelter owned by a municipality may expand the homeless shelter's
327a capacity limit to provide temporary shelter to any number of individuals experiencing
327b homelessness, so long as the homeless shelter is in compliance with the applicable
327c building code and fire code.
327d (3) ~~←Ĥ~~ A municipality or other local government entity ~~Ĥ→ [{ shall }]~~ may ~~←Ĥ~~ 327e prioritize providing shelter for