          Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:
22
                  Section 1. Section 26B-2-117 is amended to read:
23
                  26B-2-117. Licensing residential treatment programs and recovery residences -- Notification of local government.
25
          (1) As used in this section:
26
          (a) "Regulated residential facility" means a licensed or certified:
27
          (i) residential treatment program;
28
          (ii) residential support program;
29
          (iii) recovery residence; or 30
          (iv) facility that provides social detoxification services.
31
          (b) "Regulated residential facility" does not include a congregate care program.
32
          (1)
          (a) {As used in this section, "} { \hat{\mathbf{H}} \rightarrow } {} {regulated } {} { \leftarrow \hat{\mathbf{H}} } {residential facility" means } { \hat{\mathbf{H}} \rightarrow } {}

          \{\frac{(1)}{(2)}\}
          {(a)} In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the office shall make rules that establish categories of residential treatment and recovery residence licenses based on differences in the types of residential treatment programs and recovery residences.
34
          (b) The categories referred to in Subsection [(1)(a)] (2)(a) may be based on differences in:
35
          (i) services offered;
36
          (ii) types of clients served;
37
          (iii) risks posed to the community; or 38
          (iv) other factors that make regulatory differences advisable.
39

- [(2)] (3) Subject to the requirements of federal and state law, and pursuant to the authority granted by Section 26B-2-104, the office shall establish and enforce rules that:
- 41 (a) relate generally to all categories of residential treatment program and recovery residence licenses; and
- (b) relate to specific categories of residential treatment program and recovery residence licenses on the basis of the regulatory needs, as determined by the office, of residential treatment programs and recovery residences within those specific categories.
- [(3)] (4)
 - (a) Beginning July 1, 2014, the office shall charge an annual licensing fee, set by the office in accordance with the procedures described in Section 63J-1-504, to a recovery residence in an amount that will pay for the cost of the licensing and inspection requirements described in this section and in Section 26B-2-104.
- 51 (b) The office shall deposit the licensing fees described in this section in the General Fund as a dedicated credit to be used solely to pay for the cost of the licensing and inspection requirements described in this section and in Section 26B-2-104.
- [(4)] (5) Before submitting an application for a license to operate a residential treatment program, the applicant shall serve notice of [its] the applicant's intent to operate a residential treatment program on the governing body of:
- 57 (a) the city in which the residential treatment program will be located; or
- (b) if the residential treatment program will be located in the unincorporated area of a county, the county in which the residential treatment program will be located.
- 62 (6) Within 30 days of providing services, a regulated residential facility shall provide notice of the facility's intent to begin operations to each property located within 300 feet of the location where the regulated residential facility will be located by:
- (a) mailing notice to the property or residence; or
- (b) attaching notice to the main entrance of the property or residence.
