25 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

26 Section 1. Section 1 is enacted to read:

27 23A-4-711. Private landowner vouchers.

26 (1) As used in this section:

27 (a) "Applicant" means a person who:

28 (i) holds a fee simple ownership interest in at least 640 contiguous acres but not more than 8,999 contiguous acres of private land in Utah within a limited entry elk unit; and 31 (ii) has submitted an application to the division to participate in a landowner draw to hunt bull elk.

33 (b) "Block" means 640 contiguous acres that are not excluded under Subsection (2).

34 (c) "Voucher" means an authorization issued by the division that entitles a person to purchase a bull elk permit valid for the private land submitted in the application.

36 (2)

(a) An applicant may enter an annual landowner draw for a bull elk voucher for every complete block owned by the applicant.

38 (b) The private land that is the basis for determining whether there is a block for an application to qualify for a landowner draw shall have at least one common owner throughout the private land.

41 (c) In order for an applicant to qualify for a landowner draw, all the owners of the private land described in Subsection (2)(b) shall agree to the applicant applying for a landowner draw.

44 (d) Multiple applicants may not submit an application for the same block and the division may reject all applications for a block if more than one application is received for a single block.

47 (e) The following private land is not eligible for purposes of determining a block:

48 (i) private land within a cooperative wildlife management unit under Chapter 7, Cooperative Wildlife Management Units; or

HB0202S02 compared with HB0202S04

- (ii) private land within a {~~landowner~~} landowners association program established by the Wildlife Board {~~by rule made~~} in accordance with {~~Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act~~} Section 23A-4-712.
- 53 (3)
- (a) The division shall determine the number of vouchers in a bull elk landowner draw under this section by allocating an additional 5% of the total number of limited entry bull permits available in the public draw within a limited entry elk unit.
- 56 (b) The division shall allocate:
- 57 (i) 50% of the vouchers in a landowner draw to applicants with at least 4,000 contiguous acres but not more than 8,999 contiguous acres; and
- 59 (ii) 50% of the vouchers in the landowner draw to applicants with at least 640 contiguous acres but less than 4,000 contiguous acres.
- 61 (c) If there is an odd number of vouchers in a landowner draw, the division shall allocate the one extra voucher to:
- 63 (i) applicants described in Subsection (3)(b)(i) in years ending in odd numbers; and
- 64 (ii) applicants described in Subsection (3)(b)(ii) in years ending in even numbers.
- 65 (d) If a limited entry elk unit only has only one voucher available for the bull elk landowner draw described in Subsection (3)(a), the division shall allocate that voucher to an applicant with acreage of at least 640 contiguous acres but not more than 3,999 contiguous acres of private land.
- 69 (4)
- (a) To qualify as an applicant under Subsection (2), a person shall obtain approval of the information described in Subsection (4)(b) by the division.
- 71 (b) To seek approval, a person shall file an application with the division that includes:
- 72 (i) the name of the person;
- 73 (ii) the date of the application;
- 74 (iii) the number of blocks in which the person holds an ownership interest;
- 75 (iv) proof of the ownership interest in the private land for which the person is seeking a voucher;
- 77 (v) proof of the number of contiguous acres owned by the person within a limited entry elk unit; and
- 79 (vi) the location of the private land for which the person is seeking a voucher.
- 80 (c) The division shall:
- 81 (i) review an application; and

HB0202S02 compared with HB0202S04

- 82 (ii) verify that property submitted in an application is capable of harboring bull elk during the hunting season described in Subsection (5)(b).
- 84 (d) Once a person is approved as an applicant for a landowner draw, the applicant is automatically approved each year and does not need to reapply unless there is a change in land ownership, acreage, or habitat quality that would affect the person's level of participation in the landowner draw. If there is a change in ownership or acreage, the person shall file the information required under Subsection (4)(b) to be eligible for the next landowner draw.
- 90 (5)
- (a) An individual may redeem a voucher to obtain a permit to hunt bull elk:
- 91 (i) if the individual is the applicant or is an individual to whom the applicant sells, donates, or otherwise transfers the voucher; and
- 93 (ii) conditioned on the individual:
- 94 (A) being otherwise authorized to hunt big game under this title; and
- 95 (B) only hunting under that permit on the contiguous acres of private land owned by the applicant within a limited entry elk unit.
- 97 (b) ~~{ Notwithstanding a season for hunting bull elk designated by the Wildlife Board, an }~~ An individual who hunts on the applicant's private land pursuant to a voucher redeemed under Subsection (5)(a) may:
- 100 ~~{ (i) { use archery equipment, as defined by the Wildlife Board by rule made in accordance with Title~~
~~63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, from the start date of the archery bull hunt~~
~~on the corresponding limited entry elk unit; and } }~~
- 104 ~~{ (ii) (i) { convert to any } hunt with one type of legal weapon, as defined by the Wildlife Board by rule~~ made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act~~{, starting on~~ ~~September 1 and ending on October 31.} ; and~~
- 103 ~~(ii) hunt during one of the corresponding season dates for the type of legal weapon used by the~~ ~~individual that is established by the Wildlife Board for a bull elk hunt on the corresponding limited~~
~~entry elk unit.~~
- 107 (6)
- (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(f), an applicant that qualifies for a landowner draw under Subsections (2) through (5) and who owns at least 4,000 contiguous acres of private land but not more than 8,999 contiguous acres of private land within a limited entry elk unit ~~{ shall annually~~

~~receive~~ } may qualify for up to an additional two bull elk vouchers annually that are determined by the division based on Subsection (4)(c)(ii) and rules for criteria made by the Wildlife Board in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

- 111 (b) An individual may redeem a voucher obtained under this Subsection (6) in accordance with Subsection (5).
- 113 (c) An applicant described in Subsection (6)(a) may sell, donate, or otherwise transfer a voucher received under Subsection (6)(a).
- 115 (d) A voucher under this Subsection (6) is in addition to and not taken from the 5% additional bull elk permits that are designated for the landowner draw under Subsection (3).
- 118 (e) An applicant that receives a voucher under this Subsection (6) may also enter a landowner draw for a bull elk voucher in accordance with Subsection (2).
- 120 (f) ~~{An applicant}~~ The division may ~~{receive only one voucher}~~ eliminate or reduce the number of vouchers issued to an applicant under ~~{this Subsection (6)}~~ Subsection (6)(a) for any year in which the average age of the harvested bull elk in the limited entry elk unit where the voucher applies is lower than the age objective in the applicable elk management plan. The ~~{limitation of only one voucher}~~ elimination or reduction of vouchers under this Subsection (6)(f) applies until the average age of the harvested bull elk for that limited entry elk unit in a year equals or exceeds the age objective in the applicable elk management plan.
- 129 (g) The division shall review a voucher issued under Subsection (6)(a) every three years to determine if the correct number of vouchers are being issued based on Subsection (4)(c)(ii) and rules described in Subsection (6)(a).
- 132 (h) This Subsection (6) does not apply to land or a landowner within a limited entry elk unit that has a landowners association on May 7, 2025, or that is a member of a landowners association on May 7, 2025.
- 135 (i) This Subsection (6) does not apply to land or a landowner that has the option of joining a cooperative wildlife management unit or who is in a cooperative wildlife management unit that is issued a certificate of registration before May 7, 2025.
- 126 (7) During the fiscal year in which an applicant receives a bull elk voucher, the applicant may not receive a depredation bull elk permit or submit a claim for compensation for wildlife damage to the applicant's private land {used to qualify for a landowner draw} within the limited entry elk unit.

HB0202S02 compared with HB0202S04

(8) An individual who redeems a voucher under this section shall comply with the other applicable provisions of this title and rules or proclamations of the Wildlife Board.

131 (9)

(a) The Wildlife Board may make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, that are necessary to administer this section.

133 (b) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(a), a rule made by the Wildlife Board shall be consistent with this section.

147 Section 2. Section 2 is enacted to read:

148 23A-4-712. Landowners association program.

149 (1) As used in this section:

150 (a) "Landowners association" means an organization consisting of private landowners working with the division to implement this section and whose land:

152 (i) provides habitat for deer, elk, or pronghorn as determined by the division; and 153 (ii) is not enrolled in another private lands permit program.

154 (b) "Voucher" means an authorization issued by the division to a landowner that entitles the landowner or a permitted transferee of the landowner to purchase a permit from the division.

157 (2) The landowners association program under this section:

158 (a) provides an incentive for a private landowner to manage the private landowner's land as quality habitat for public wildlife;

160 (b) assists and supports the division in managing big game populations;

161 (c) increases private landowner tolerance of big game on the private landowner's private land;

163 (d) increases big game hunting opportunities;

164 (e) increases and secures public hunting access on a participating landowner's private land;

166 (f) reduces the division's obligations in responding to and compensating for depredation events occurring on private lands;

168 (g) uses objective criteria to determine how hunting opportunities are allocated to the landowners association program; and

170 (h) allocates hunting opportunities in a manner that fluctuates in proportion to variations in public draw permits.

172 (3) A landowners association may not be established or operate without first obtaining a certificate of registration from the Wildlife Board.

HB0202S02 compared with HB0202S04

- 174 (4)
- (a) The division shall establish the number of limited entry landowners association program vouchers available on an annual basis by:
- 176 (i) identifying the total number of public draw permits in a limited entry unit for the previous hunt year;
- 178 (ii) identifying the total acreage of private land in a limited entry unit enrolled in the landowners association;
- 180 (iii) calculating the percentage of habitat of a big game species in the landowners association by dividing the habitat acreage represented by the landowners association by the habitat acreage in the whole limited entry unit; and
- 183 (iv) applying the percentage described in Subsection (4)(a)(iii) to the total number of available public draw permits from the previous year to determine the number of limited entry landowners association program vouchers to be allocated to the landowners association.
- 187 (b) The division shall round numbers when determining permit numbers by rounding down when the number is .49 or less and rounding up when the number is .50 or greater.
- 190 (c) An approved landowners association that qualifies for less than one voucher under Subsection (4)(a) does not receive a voucher under Subsection (4)(a), but shall annually receive one voucher in accordance with Subsection (4)(d).
- 193 (d) The division shall annually allocate one additional voucher to each landowners association described in Subsection (4)(a) or (c).
- 195 (5) A landowner participating in the landowners association program may not submit a claim for compensation for wildlife damage under Chapter 8, Part 4, Damage by Big Game, to the landowner's private land that is enrolled in the landowners association program.
- 199 (6) The Wildlife Board may make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and enforce rules applicable to the landowners association program organized for the hunting of big game that in the Wildlife Board's judgment are necessary to administer and enforce this section.

203 Section 3. Effective date.

This bill takes effect on May 7, 2025.
