Section 1. Section 1 is enacted to read:

Part 7. Law Enforcement Officer Employment Due Process

HB0465S01 compared with HB0465S03

53-25-701. Definitions.

As used in this part:

- (1) "Adverse employment decision" means a decision affecting a law enforcement officer's employment that could result in:
  - (a) reduction of rank;
  - (b) suspension without pay exceeding three days; or
  - (c) termination of employment.
- (2) "Formal interview" means an interview at which an employer:
  - (a) requires the employee to respond truthfully under the threat of disciplinary action or termination;
and
  - (b) provides the employee with the assurance that the statement cannot be used against the employee in any criminal proceeding.
- (3) "Legal representative" means an attorney, who is licensed to practice law in this state.

Section 2. Section 2 is enacted to read:

53-25-702. Notice of internal investigation -- Discovery -- Right to counsel.

- (1) If a law enforcement officer is the subject of an internal investigation by the law enforcement agency that employs the law enforcement officer that could result in an adverse employment decision against the law enforcement officer, the law enforcement agency shall, at least 48 hours before any formal interview of the law enforcement officer related to the internal investigation:
  - (a) notify the law enforcement officer that the law enforcement officer is the subject of the internal investigation;
  - (b) provide the time and location for the formal interview; and
  - (c) notify the law enforcement officer that the law enforcement officer may bring a legal representative to the interview to assist the law enforcement officer in the formal interview.
- (2) During an internal investigation conducted regarding a law enforcement officer that could result in an adverse employment decision against the law enforcement officer, the law enforcement officer has the right to have a legal representative, paid for at the law enforcement officer's expense, present during any formal interview of the law enforcement officer conducted during an internal investigation.

HB0465S01 compared with HB0465S03

- (3) Except as provided in Subsection (4), at any disciplinary meeting that could result in an adverse employment decision against a law enforcement officer, the law enforcement officer or, if applicable, a legal representative, paid for at the law enforcement officer's expense, has the right to:
- 80 (a) receive written notification of the allegations against the law enforcement officer and the proposed discipline;
- 82 (b) provide written statements;
- 83 (c) review any statement made by the officer in the formal interview;
- 84 (d) meet with the agency head or the agency head's designee;
- 85 (e) present, in writing or in person, comments or reasons as to why the proposed adverse employment decision should not be taken; and
- 87 (f) present documents, affidavits, or other written materials.
- 88 (4)
- (a) A law enforcement officer, or a legal representative of the law enforcement officer, is not entitled to present or discover documents within the possession or control of the law enforcement agency that are private, protected, or controlled under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Part 3, Classification.
- 92 (b) A law enforcement agency undertaking a disciplinary meeting under Subsection (3) is not required to receive or allow other witnesses to testify at the disciplinary meeting on behalf of the law enforcement officer.
- 95 (5) For a law enforcement officer who has completed any employment probationary period, a law enforcement agency may only terminate the law enforcement officer's employment after an internal investigation and disciplinary meeting if the law enforcement agency has:
- 99 (a) given the officer five working days to reply to the notice of the disciplinary meeting;
- 100 (b) provided an opportunity for the law enforcement officer to speak to the complaint and results of the internal investigation; and
- 102 (c) substantiated the complaint that resulted in the internal investigation against the law enforcement officer by clear and convincing evidence.
- 104 (6) After a disciplinary meeting is held under Subsection (3), the law enforcement agency shall notify the law enforcement officer in writing of the law enforcement agency's decision, and the reasons for the decision.
- 107 (7) This section does not:
- 108
