regulated occupation at least once every 10 years;

39 (3) review and respond to any legislator inquiry regarding a proposed or existing regulated occupation;[
~~and~~]

41 (4) publish on the office's website a submission form where an individual may provide feedback regarding an existing occupational regulation within the office's jurisdiction that the individual requests the office repeal or modify;

HB0474 compared with HB0474S02

(5) engage in a systematic review of the rules that relate to occupational regulations within the office's jurisdiction in accordance with Section 13-1b-302; and [(4)] (6) report to the Business and Labor Interim Committee in accordance with Section 13-1b-304.

Section 2. Section 13-1b-302 is amended to read:

13-1b-302. Review criteria.

{[In conducting a sunrise review]~~[or]~~, [a periodic review,] or a standalone review, { unless otherwise directed in accordance with Subsection 13-1b-203(3), the office shall consider the following criteria:}] The office shall consider the following criteria in conducting a sunrise review or a periodic review:whether the regulation of the occupation is necessary to address a {[present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health, safety, or financial welfare of the public]} harm;

(2) {[for any harm to the health, safety, or financial welfare of the public,]} if the office determines that a regulation is necessary to address a harm, the office shall determine and record the harm's:

(a) severity;

(b) probability; and

(c) permanence;

(3) if the office determines that a regulation is necessary to address a harm, the office shall:

{~~(a)~~} determine the extent to which the proposed or existing regulation of the occupation protects against or diminishes the harm described in Subsection (1);

{~~(b) articulate the harm with specificity; and~~}

{~~(c) document the office's findings in response to Subsections (2)(a) through (2)(e);~~}

(4) whether the proposed or existing regulation of the occupation:

(a) affects the supply of qualified practitioners;

(b) creates barriers to:

(i) a service {[that are]} when the barrier is not in the public financial welfare or interest; or

(ii) entry into the occupation{[or related occupations]} ;

(c) imposes new costs on existing practitioners;

(d) affects:

(i) license reciprocity with other jurisdictions; or

(ii) mobility of practitioners; or

HB0474 compared with HB0474S02

- (e) if the occupation involves a health care provider, impacts the health care provider's ability to obtain payment of benefits for the health care provider's treatment of an illness, injury, or health care condition under an insurance contract subject to Section 31A-22-618;
- (5) if the review involves licensing, the potential alternative pathways for {a person} an individual to obtain a license;
- (6) the costs to the state of regulating the occupation;
- (7) whether the proposed or existing administering agency has sufficient expertise and resources;
- (8) the regulation of the occupation in other jurisdictions;
- (9) the scope of the proposed or existing regulation, including:
 - (a) whether the occupation is clearly distinguishable from an already regulated occupation; and
 - (b) potential for regulating only certain occupational activities;
- (10) the potentially less burdensome alternatives to the proposed or existing regulation and the effect of implementing an alternative method of regulation on:
 - (a) the health, safety, or financial welfare of the public;
 - (b) the occupation; and
 - (c) practitioners of the occupation; and
- (11) any other criteria the office adopts, including criteria suggested in a stakeholder survey.

Section 3. Section 13-1b-304 is amended to read:

13-1b-304. Reporting.

- (1) ~~[Beginning in 2024,]~~ On or before October 1, the office shall annually prepare and submit a written report to the Business and Labor Interim Committee that describes the office's work during the prior year.
- (2) In a written report described in Subsection (1), the office shall include:
 - (a) a summary of each periodic review, each sunrise review, each rule review, and each response to a legislator inquiry; ~~[and]~~
 - (b) each recommendation the office made to another state executive branch agency regarding a regulated occupation~~[-]~~ ; and
 - (c) a summary of information received during the previous year by the office under Subsection 13-1b-203(4) including:
 - (i) the total number of submissions the office receives;
 - (ii) each rule for which an individual filed a submission.

HB0474 compared with HB0474S02

Section 3. Section 3 is enacted to read:

Part 4. Enforcement

13-1b-401. Enforcement.

(1)

(a) An individual may petition the office to repeal or modify an occupational regulation within the office's jurisdiction.

(b) Within 90 days after the day on which an individual petitions the office under Subsection (1)(a), the office shall:

(i) repeal the occupational regulation;

(ii) state the basis on which the office concludes that the regulation addresses the harm; or

(iii) modify the regulation to address the harm with a less burdensome alternative regulation or other means that is less burdensome than the regulation.

(a) An individual who petitions the office under Subsection (1)(a) may bring an action in a court with jurisdiction under Title 78A, Judiciary and Judicial Administration, challenging an occupational regulation upon which the petition is based if:

(i) the office fails to comply with Subsection (1)(b); or

(ii) if the individual disagrees with the action taken by the office in response to the petition.

(b) An individual shall bring an action within 180 days after the day on which the individual petitions the office under Subsection (1)(a).

(c) The individual may bring an action in accordance with Subsection (2)(a) without exhausting remedies available under Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act.

(3) A court shall enjoin enforcement of the challenged occupational regulation if the court finds that:

(a) the challenged occupational regulation is not necessary to address a harm; or

(b) the office could address the harm through an occupational regulation or other means that is less burdensome than the challenged occupational regulation.

(4) If the court enjoins enforcement of the challenged occupational regulation, the court may award reasonable attorney fees and costs to the plaintiff.

178 Section 5. Section 63G-3-301 is amended to read:

179 63G-3-301. Rulemaking procedure. <compare mode="add">(Compare Error)</compare>

245 (1) An agency authorized to make rules is also authorized to amend or repeal those rules.

246 (2) Except as provided in Sections 63G-3-303 and 63G-3-304, when making, amending, or repealing a rule, agencies shall comply with:

248 (a) the requirements of this section;

249 (b) consistent procedures required by other statutes;

250 (c) applicable federal mandates; and

251 (d) rules made by the office to implement this chapter.

252 (3) Subject to the requirements of this chapter, each agency shall develop and use flexible approaches in drafting rules that meet the needs of the agency and that involve persons affected by the agency's rules.

255 (4)

(a) Each agency shall file the agency's proposed rule and rule analysis with the office.

256 (b) Rule amendments shall be marked with new language underlined and deleted language struck out.

258 (c)

(i) The office shall publish the information required under Subsection (8) on the rule analysis and the text of the proposed rule in the next issue of the bulletin.

260 (ii) For rule amendments, only the section or subsection of the rule being amended need be printed.

262 (iii) If the director determines that the rule is too long to publish, the office shall publish the rule analysis and shall publish the rule by reference to a copy on file with the office.

HB0474 compared with HB0474S02

(5) Before filing a rule with the office, the agency shall conduct a thorough analysis, consistent with the criteria established by the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget, of the fiscal impact a rule may have on businesses, which criteria may include:

(a) the type of industries that will be impacted by the rule, and for each identified industry, an estimate of the total number of businesses within the industry, and an estimate of the number of those businesses that are small businesses;

(b) the individual fiscal impact that would incur to a ~~typical~~ single business for a one-year period;

(c) the aggregated total fiscal impact that would incur to all businesses within the state for a one-year period;

(d) the total cost that would incur to all impacted entities over a five-year period; and

(e) the department head's comments on the analysis.

(6) If the agency reasonably expects that a proposed rule will have a measurable negative fiscal impact on small businesses, the agency shall consider, as allowed by federal law, each of the following methods of reducing the impact of the rule on small businesses:

(a) establishing less stringent compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;

(b) establishing less stringent schedules or deadlines for compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;

(c) consolidating or simplifying compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;

(d) establishing performance standards for small businesses to replace design or operational standards required in the proposed rule; and

(e) exempting small businesses from all or any part of the requirements contained in the proposed rule.

(7) If during the public comment period an agency receives comment that the proposed rule will cost small business more than one day's annual average gross receipts, and the agency had not previously performed the analysis in Subsection (6), the agency shall perform the analysis described in Subsection (6).

(8) The rule analysis shall contain:

(a) a summary of the rule or change;

(b) the purpose of the rule or reason for the change;

(c) the statutory authority or federal requirement for the rule;

(d) the anticipated cost or savings to:

(i) the state budget;

HB0474 compared with HB0474S02

- 299 (ii) local governments;
300 (iii) small businesses; and
301 (iv) persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local governmental entities;
302 (e) the compliance cost for affected persons;
303 (f) how interested persons may review the full text of the rule;
304 (g) how interested persons may present their views on the rule;
305 (h) the time and place of any scheduled public hearing;
306 (i) the name and telephone number of an agency employee who may be contacted about the rule;
308 (j) the name of the agency head or designee who authorized the rule;
309 (k) the date on which the rule may become effective following the public comment period;
311 (l) the agency's analysis on the fiscal impact of the rule as required under Subsection (5); 312 (m) any additional comments the department head may choose to submit regarding the fiscal impact the rule may have on businesses; and 314 (n) if applicable, a summary of the agency's efforts to comply with the requirements of Subsection (6).
316 (9)
(a) For a rule being repealed and reenacted, the rule analysis shall contain a summary that generally includes the following:
318 (i) a summary of substantive provisions in the repealed rule which are eliminated from the enacted rule; and
320 (ii) a summary of new substantive provisions appearing only in the enacted rule.
321 (b) The summary required under this Subsection (9) is to aid in review and may not be used to contest any rule on the ground of noncompliance with the procedural requirements of this chapter.
324 (10) ~~[A-]~~ An agency shall mail a copy of the rule analysis ~~[shall be mailed to all persons who have~~ ~~made timely request]~~ to a person that makes a timely request of the agency for advance notice of the agency's rulemaking proceedings and to any other person ~~[who]~~ that, by statutory or federal mandate or in the judgment of the agency, should also receive notice.
329 (11)
(a) Following the publication date, the agency shall allow at least 30 days for public comment on the rule.
331

HB0474 compared with HB0474S02

(b) The agency shall review and evaluate all public comments submitted in writing within the time period under Subsection (11)(a) or presented at public hearings conducted by the agency within the time period under Subsection (11)(a).

(12)

(a) Except as provided in Sections 63G-3-303 and 63G-3-304, a proposed rule becomes effective on any date specified by the agency that is:

(i) no fewer than seven calendar days after the day on which the public comment period closes under Subsection (11); and

(ii) no more than 120 days after the day on which the rule is published.

(b) The agency shall provide notice of the rule's effective date to the office in the form required by the office.

(c) The notice of effective date may not provide for an effective date before the day on which the office receives the notice.

(d) The office shall publish notice of the effective date of the rule in the next issue of the bulletin.

(e) A proposed rule lapses if a notice of effective date or a change to a proposed rule is not filed with the office within 120 days after the day on which the rule is published.

~~(i)[Except as provided in Subsection (13)(d), before-]~~ Before an agency enacts a rule, the agency shall submit to the appropriations subcommittee and interim committee with jurisdiction over the agency the agency's proposed rule for review, if the proposed rule, over a ~~three-~~ five-year ~~year~~ five-year ~~←H~~ period, has a fiscal impact of more than ~~←H~~ [:] $1,000,000 statewide. ~~←H~~

~~[(i) ←H → (A) $250,000 to a single person; or] ←H~~

~~[(ii) ←H → (B) $7,500,000 to a group of persons.] ←H~~

(b) An appropriations subcommittee or interim committee that reviews a rule ~~[submitted]~~ an agency submits under Subsection (13)(a) shall:

(i) before the review, directly inform the chairs of the Rules Review and General Oversight Committee of the coming review, including the date, time, and place of the review; and

(ii) after the review, directly inform the chairs of the Rules Review and General Oversight Committee of the outcome of the review, including any recommendation.

HB0474 compared with HB0474S02

(c) An appropriations subcommittee or interim committee that reviews a rule [submitted] an agency submits under Subsection (13)(a) may recommend to the Rules Review and General Oversight Committee that the Rules Review and General Oversight Committee not recommend reauthorization of the rule in the legislation described in Section 63G-3-502.

(d) Unless an agency cannot implement a statute §→ or execute a federally delegated authority ←§ without making a rule that is estimated to have substantial fiscal impact, the agency may not make the rule.

{(e) ~~The agency shall calculate the substantial fiscal impact in accordance with Subsection (5).~~}

~~[(d)]~~ (f) described in ~~[Subsection (13)(a) does]~~ Subsections (13)(a) and (13)(b) do not apply to:

(i) the State Tax Commission; or

(ii) the State Board of Education.

(14)

(a) As used in this Subsection (14), "initiate rulemaking proceedings" means the filing, for the purposes of publication in accordance with Subsection (4), of an agency's proposed rule that is required by state statute.

(b) A state agency shall initiate rulemaking proceedings no later than 180 days after the day on which the statutory provision that specifically requires the rulemaking takes effect, except under Subsection (14)(c).

(c) When a statute is enacted that requires agency rulemaking and the affected agency already has rules in place that meet the statutory requirement, the agency shall submit the rules to the Rules Review and General Oversight Committee for review within 60 days after the day on which the statute requiring the rulemaking takes effect.

(d) If a state agency does not initiate rulemaking proceedings in accordance with the time requirements in Subsection (14)(b), the state agency shall appear before the legislative Rules Review and General Oversight Committee and provide the reasons for the delay.

Section 6. Section 72-16-203 is amended to read:

72-16-203. Rulemaking.

(1) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and the provisions of this chapter the committee may make rules:
