13-32a-105. Central database -- Implementation -- Notification.

- (1) In accordance with this section, there is created a central database as a statewide repository for:
- (a) information that a pawn or secondhand business~~[- or a catalytic converter purchaser]~~ is required to submit in accordance with this chapter; and
- (b) the use of a participating law enforcement agency that meets the requirements of Section 13-32a-111.
- (2) The division shall:

SB0133 compared with SB0133S01

- 407 (a) establish and operate the central database; or 408 (b) contract with a third party to establish and operate the central database in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code.
- 410 (3) Funding for the creation and operation of the central database shall be from the account.
411 (4)
- . (a) An entity that operates the central database may not hold any financial or operating interest in a pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ in any state.
- 414 (b) The division shall verify before a bid is awarded that the selected entity meets the requirements of Subsection (4)(a).
- 416 (c) If any entity is awarded a bid under this Subsection (4) and is later found to hold any interest in violation of Subsection (4)(a), the award is subject to being opened again for request for proposal.
419 (5)
- . (a) Beginning January 1, 2020, upon a query by a pawnbroker, the central database shall provide notification of the volume of business an individual seeking to enter into a transaction with the pawnbroker has engaged in with any pawnbroker regulated by this chapter within the previous 30 days based on the records in the central database at the time of the query.
- 424 (b) Information entered in the central database shall be retained for five years and shall then be deleted.
- 426 (6) Upon request, the entity responsible for establishing and operating the central database under Subsection (2) shall provide technical information and advice for an information technology representative of a pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ that is required to provide information to the central database.

13-32a-109. Holding period for property -- Return of property -- Penalty.

(a) A pawnbroker may sell property pawned to the pawnbroker if:

(i) 15 calendar days have passed after the day on which the pawnbroker submits the information and any required photograph to the central database;

(ii) the contract period between the pawnbroker and the pledgor expires; and

(iii) the pawnbroker has complied with Sections 13-32a-104 and 13-32a-106.

(b) If property, including scrap jewelry, is purchased by a pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~, the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ may sell the property if the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ has held the property for 15 calendar days after the day on which the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ submits the information to the central database, and complied with Sections 13-32a-104, 13-32a-104.6, ~~[13-32a-104.7,]~~ and 13-32a-106, except that the pawn or secondhand business is not required to hold precious metals or numismatic items under this Subsection (1)(b).

(i) This Subsection (1) does not preclude a law enforcement agency from requiring a pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ to hold property if necessary in the course of an investigation.

(ii) If the property is pawned, the law enforcement agency may require the property be held beyond the terms of the contract between the pledgor and the pawnbroker.

SB0133 compared with SB0133S01

- (iii) If the property is sold to the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~, the law enforcement agency may require the property be held if the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ has not sold the article.
- 570 (d) If the law enforcement agency requesting a hold on property under this Subsection (1) is not the local law enforcement agency, the requesting law enforcement agency shall notify the local law enforcement agency of the request and also the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~.
- 574 (2) If a law enforcement agency requires the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ to hold property as part of an investigation, the law enforcement agency shall provide to the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ a hold form issued by the law enforcement agency, that:
- 578 (a) states the active case number;
- 579 (b) confirms the date of the hold request and the property to be held; and
- 580 (c) facilitates the ability of the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ to track the property when the prosecution takes over the case.
- 582 (3) If property is not seized by a law enforcement agency that has placed a hold on the property, the property shall remain in the custody of the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ until further disposition by the law enforcement agency, and in accordance with this chapter.
- 586 (4)
- . (a) The initial hold by a law enforcement agency is for a period of 90 days.
- 587 (b) If the property is not seized by the law enforcement agency, the property shall remain in the custody of the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ and is subject to the hold unless exigent circumstances require the property to be seized by the law enforcement agency.
- 591 (5)
- . (a) A law enforcement agency may extend any hold for up to an additional 90 days if circumstances require the extension.
- 593 (b) If there is an extension of a hold under Subsection (5)(a), the requesting law enforcement agency shall notify the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ that is subject to the hold before the expiration of the initial 90 days.
- 597

SB0133 compared with SB0133S01

- (c) A law enforcement agency may not hold an item for more than the 180 days allowed under Subsections (5)(a) and (b) without obtaining a court order authorizing the hold.
- 599 (6) A hold on property under Subsection (2) takes precedence over any request to claim or purchase the property subject to the hold.
- 601 (7) If an original victim who has complied with Section 13-32a-115 has not been identified and the hold or seizure of the property is terminated, the law enforcement agency requiring the hold or seizure shall within 15 business days after the day on which the termination occurs:
- 605 (a) notify the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ in writing that the hold or seizure has been terminated;
- 607 (b) return the property subject to the seizure to the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~; or
- 609 (c) if the property is not returned to the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~, advise the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ either in writing or electronically of the specific alternative disposition of the property.
- 613 (8)
- . (a) If the original victim who has complied with Section 13-32a-115 has been identified and the hold or seizure of property is terminated, the law enforcement agency requiring the hold or seizure shall:
- 616 (i) document the original victim who has positively identified the property; and
- 617 (ii) provide the documented information concerning the original victim to the prosecuting agency to determine whether continued possession of the property is necessary for purposes of prosecution in accordance with Section 77-11a-301.
- 620 (b) If the prosecuting agency determines that continued possession of the property is not necessary for purposes of prosecution, the prosecuting agency shall provide a written or electronic notification to the law enforcement agency that authorizes the return of the property to an original victim who has complied with Section 13-32a-115.
- 624 (c)
- . (i) A law enforcement agency shall promptly provide notice to the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ of the authorized return of the property under this Subsection (8).
- 627 (ii) The notice shall identify the original victim, advise the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ that the original victim has identified the property, and direct the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ to release the property to the original victim at no cost to the original victim.

(iii) If the property was seized, the notice shall advise that the property will be returned to the original victim within 15 days after the day on which the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ receives the notice, except as provided under Subsection (8)(d).

(d) The pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ shall release property under Subsection (8)(c) unless within 15 days after the day on which the notice is received the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ complies with Section 13-32a-116.5.

(a) If the law enforcement agency does not notify the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ that a hold on the property has expired, the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ shall send a letter by registered or certified mail to the law enforcement agency that ordered the hold and inform the agency that the holding period has expired.

(b) The law enforcement agency shall respond within 30 days by:

(i) confirming that the hold period has expired and that the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ may manage the property as if acquired in the ordinary course of business; or

(ii) providing written notice to the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ that a court order has continued the period of time for which the item shall be held.

(10) The written notice under Subsection (9)(b)(ii) is considered provided when:

(a) personally delivered to the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ with a signed receipt of delivery;

(b) delivered to the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ by registered or certified mail; or

(c) delivered by any other means with the mutual assent of the law enforcement agency and the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~.

(11) If the law enforcement agency does not respond within 30 days under Subsection (9), the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ may manage the property as if acquired in the ordinary course of business.

(12) A violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor and is also subject to civil penalties under Section 13-32a-110.

- 774 (1) If the property pawned or sold to a pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ is the subject of a criminal investigation and a hold has been placed on the property under Section 13-32a-109, the original victim shall do the following to establish a claim:
- 778 (a) positively identify to law enforcement the property stolen or lost;
- 779 (b) if a police report has not already been filed for the original theft or loss of property, file a police report, and provide for the law enforcement agency information surrounding the original theft or loss of property; and
- 782 (c) give a sworn statement under penalty of law that:
- 783 (i) claims ownership of the property;
- 784 (ii) references the original theft or loss; and
- 785 (iii) identifies the perpetrator if known.
- 786 (2) The pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ shall retain possession of any property subject to a hold until a criminal prosecution is commenced relating to the property for which the hold was placed unless:
- 789 (a) during the course of a criminal investigation the actual physical possession by law enforcement of the property purchased or pawned is essential for the purpose of forensic testing of the property, or if the property contains unique or sensitive personal identifying information; or
- 793 (b) an agreement between the original victim and the pawn or secondhand business~~[-or catalytic converter purchaser]~~ to return the property is reached.
- 795 (3)

SB0133 compared with SB0133S01

(a) Upon the commencement of a criminal prosecution, any property subject to a hold for investigation under this chapter may be seized by the law enforcement agency that requested the hold.

(b) Subsequent disposition of the property shall be consistent with this chapter.

(4) At all times during the course of a criminal investigation and subsequent prosecution, the property subject to a law enforcement hold shall be kept secure by the pawn or secondhand business[~~or catalytic converter purchaser~~] subject to the hold unless the pawned or purchased property has been seized by the law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 13-32a-109.5.

835 63G-2-305. Protected records.

The following records are protected if properly classified by a governmental entity:

837 (1) trade secrets as defined in Section 13-24-2 if the person submitting the trade secret has provided the governmental entity with the information specified in Section 63G-2-309;

839 (2) commercial information or nonindividual financial information obtained from a person if:

841 (a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to result in unfair competitive injury to the person submitting the information or would impair the ability of the governmental entity to obtain necessary information in the future;

844 (b) the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access than the public in obtaining access; and

846 (c) the person submitting the information has provided the governmental entity with the information specified in Section 63G-2-309;

848 (3) commercial or financial information acquired or prepared by a governmental entity to the extent that disclosure would lead to financial speculations in currencies, securities, or commodities that will interfere with a planned transaction by the governmental entity or cause substantial financial injury to the governmental entity or state economy;

SB0133 compared with SB0133S01

- 852 (4) records, the disclosure of which could cause commercial injury to, or confer a competitive advantage upon a potential or actual competitor of, a commercial project entity as defined in Subsection 11-13-103(4);
- 855 (5) test questions and answers to be used in future license, certification, registration, employment, or academic examinations;
- 857 (6) records, the disclosure of which would impair governmental procurement proceedings or give an unfair advantage to any person proposing to enter into a contract or agreement with a governmental entity, except, subject to Subsections (1) and (2), that this Subsection (6) does not restrict the right of a person to have access to, after the contract or grant has been awarded and signed by all parties:
- 862 (a) a bid, proposal, application, or other information submitted to or by a governmental entity in response to:
- 864 (i) an invitation for bids;
- 865 (ii) a request for proposals;
- 866 (iii) a request for quotes;
- 867 (iv) a grant; or
- 868 (v) other similar document; or
- 869 (b) an unsolicited proposal, as defined in Section 63G-6a-712;
- 870 (7) information submitted to or by a governmental entity in response to a request for information, except, subject to Subsections (1) and (2), that this Subsection (7) does not restrict the right of a person to have access to the information, after:
- 873 (a) a contract directly relating to the subject of the request for information has been awarded and signed by all parties; or
- 875 (b)
- . (i) a final determination is made not to enter into a contract that relates to the subject of the request for information; and
- 877 (ii) at least two years have passed after the day on which the request for information is issued;
- 879 (8) records that would identify real property or the appraisal or estimated value of real or personal property, including intellectual property, under consideration for public acquisition before any rights to the property are acquired unless:
- 882 (a) public interest in obtaining access to the information is greater than or equal to the governmental entity's need to acquire the property on the best terms possible;

SB0133 compared with SB0133S01

- 884 (b) the information has already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a duty of confidentiality to the entity;
- 886 (c) in the case of records that would identify property, potential sellers of the described property have already learned of the governmental entity's plans to acquire the property;
- 889 (d) in the case of records that would identify the appraisal or estimated value of property, the potential sellers have already learned of the governmental entity's estimated value of the property; or
- 892 (e) the property under consideration for public acquisition is a single family residence and the governmental entity seeking to acquire the property has initiated negotiations to acquire the property as required under Section 78B-6-505;
- 895 (9) records prepared in contemplation of sale, exchange, lease, rental, or other compensated transaction of real or personal property including intellectual property, which, if disclosed prior to completion of the transaction, would reveal the appraisal or estimated value of the subject property, unless:
- 899 (a) the public interest in access is greater than or equal to the interests in restricting access, including the governmental entity's interest in maximizing the financial benefit of the transaction; or
- 902 (b) when prepared by or on behalf of a governmental entity, appraisals or estimates of the value of the subject property have already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a duty of confidentiality to the entity;
- 905 (10) records created or maintained for civil, criminal, or administrative enforcement purposes or audit purposes, or for discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes, if release of the records:
- 908 (a) reasonably could be expected to interfere with investigations undertaken for enforcement, discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes;
- 910 (b) reasonably could be expected to interfere with audits, disciplinary, or enforcement proceedings;
- 912 (c) would create a danger of depriving a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial hearing;
- 914 (d) reasonably could be expected to disclose the identity of a source who is not generally known outside of government and, in the case of a record compiled in the course of an investigation, disclose information furnished by a source not generally known outside of government if disclosure would compromise the source; or
- 918 (e) reasonably could be expected to disclose investigative or audit techniques, procedures, policies, or orders not generally known outside of government if disclosure would interfere with enforcement or audit efforts;
- 921 (11) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the life or safety of an individual;

- 2007 (2)
- . (a) A merchant may request an individual on the merchant's premises to place or keep in full view any merchandise the individual may have removed, or which the merchant has reason to believe the individual may have removed, from its place of display or elsewhere, whether for examination, purchase, or for any other reasonable purpose.
- 2012 (b) The merchant may not be criminally or civilly liable for having made the request.
- 2013 (3)
- . (a) A merchant who has reason to believe that an individual has committed any of the offenses listed in Subsection [~~76-6-404(3)(b)(iii)(A), (B), or (C)~~] 76-6-404(3)(b)(ii)(A), (B), or (C) and that the merchant can recover the merchandise by taking the individual into custody and detaining the individual may, for the purpose of attempting to recover the merchandise or for the purpose of informing a peace officer of the circumstances of the detention, take the individual into custody and detain the individual in a reasonable manner and for a reasonable length of time.
- 2020 (b) Neither the merchant nor the merchant's employee may be criminally or civilly liable for false arrest, false imprisonment, slander, or unlawful detention or for any other type of claim or action unless the custody and detention are unreasonable under all the circumstances.
- 2024 (4)
- . (a) A merchant may prohibit an individual who has committed any of the offenses listed in Subsection [~~76-6-404(3)(b)(iii)~~] 76-6-404(3)(b)(ii) from reentering the premises on which the individual has committed the offense.
- 2027 (b) The merchant shall give written notice of this prohibition to the individual under Subsection (4)(a).
The notice may be served by:
- 2029 (i) delivering a copy to the individual personally;
- 2030 (ii) sending a copy through registered or certified mail addressed to the individual at the individual's residence or usual place of business;
- 2032

SB0133 compared with SB0133S01

- (iii) leaving a copy with an individual of suitable age and discretion at either location under Subsection (4)(b)(ii) and mailing a copy to the individual at the individual's residence or place of business if the individual is absent from the residence or usual place of business; or
- 2036 (iv) affixing a copy in a conspicuous place at the individual's residence or place of business.
- 2038 (c) The individual serving the notice may authenticate service with the individual's signature, the method of service, and legibly documenting the date and time of service.
- 2041 (5) An adult who commits any of the offenses listed in Subsection [~~76-6-404(3)(b)(iii)(A), (B), or (C)~~] 76-6-404(3)(b)(ii)(A), (B), or (C) is also liable in a civil action for:
- 2043 (a) actual damages;
- 2044 (b) a penalty to the merchant in the amount of the retail price of the merchandise not to exceed $1,000; and
- 2046 (c) an additional penalty as determined by the court of not less than $100 nor more than $500, plus court costs and reasonable attorney fees.
- 2048 (6) A minor who commits any of the offenses listed in Subsection [~~76-6-404(3)(b)(iii)(A), (B), or (C)~~] 76-6-404(3)(b)(ii)(A), (B), or (C) and the minor's parents or legal guardian are jointly and severally liable in a civil action to the merchant for:
- 2051 (a) actual damages;
- 2052 (b) a penalty to be remitted to the merchant in the amount of the retail price of the merchandise not to exceed $500 plus an additional penalty as determined by the court of not less than $50 nor more than $500; and
- 2055 (c) court costs and reasonable attorney fees.
- 2056 (7) A parent or guardian is not liable for damages under this section if the parent or guardian made a reasonable effort to restrain the wrongful taking and reported it to the merchant involved or to the law enforcement agency having primary jurisdiction once the parent or guardian knew of the minor's unlawful act. A report is not required under this section if the minor was arrested or apprehended by a peace officer or by anyone acting on behalf of the merchant involved.
- 2062 (8) A conviction in a criminal action for any of the offenses listed in Subsection [~~76-6-404(3)(b)(iii)(A), (B), or (C)~~] 76-6-404(3)(b)(ii)(A), (B), or (C) is not a condition precedent to a civil action authorized under Subsection (5) or (6).
- 2065 (9)

SB0133 compared with SB0133S01

(a) A merchant demanding payment of a penalty under Subsection (5) or (6) shall give written notice to the individual or individuals from whom the penalty is sought. The notice shall state:

2068 "IMPORTANT NOTICE: The payment of any penalty demanded of you does not prevent criminal prosecution under a related criminal provision."

2070 (b) This notice shall be boldly and conspicuously displayed, in at least the same size type as is used in the demand, and shall be sent with the demand for payment of the penalty described in Subsection (5) or (6).

2073 (10) The provision of Section 78B-8-201 requiring that compensatory or general damages be awarded in order to award punitive damages does not prohibit an award of a penalty under Subsection (5) or (6) whether or not restitution has been paid to the merchant either prior to or as part of a civil action.
