221 (5) If a natural resources officer for the Division of Law Enforcement seizes a vehicle, the Division of Law Enforcement shall return the vehicle to a claimant in accordance with Section 23A-5-201.

224 ~~[(5)]~~ (6) If an agency is not required, or is no longer required, to retain or preserve property as evidence under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, and the agency seeks to return or dispose of the property, the agency shall exercise due diligence in attempting to notify the claimant of the property to advise the claimant that the property is to be returned.

228 ~~[(6)]~~ (7)

(a) Before an agency may return seized property to a person claiming ownership of the property, the person shall establish that the person:

230 (i) is the owner of the property; and 231 (ii) may lawfully possess the property.

232 (b) The person shall establish ownership under Subsection ~~[(6)(a)]~~ (7)(a) by providing to the agency:

234 (i) identifying proof or documentation of ownership of the property; or

235 (ii) a notarized statement if proof or documentation is not available.

236 (c) When seized property is returned to the owner, the owner shall sign a receipt listing in detail the property that is returned.

238 (d) The agency shall:

239 (i) retain a copy of the receipt; and

240 (ii) provide a copy of the receipt to the owner.

245 Section 3. Section 77-11a-305 is amended to read:

246 77-11a-305. Release of seized property to claimant when seized property is retained as evidence.

248 (1)

SB0252S01 compared with SB0252S03

(a) A claimant may file a petition with the court for the return of the property that is being retained as evidence in accordance with Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence.

(b) The claimant may file the petition in:

(i) the court in which criminal proceedings have commenced regarding the offense for which the property is being retained as evidence; or

(ii) the district court with venue under Section 77-11a-102 if there are no pending criminal proceedings.

(c) A claimant shall serve a copy of the petition on the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor and the agency with custody of the property.

(a) The court shall provide an opportunity for an expedited hearing.

(b) After the opportunity for an expedited hearing, the court may order that the property is:

(i) returned to the claimant if the claimant is the owner as determined by the court;

(ii) if the offense subjecting the property to seizure results in a conviction, applied directly or by proceeds of the sale of the property toward restitution, fines, or fees owed by the claimant in an amount set by the court;

(iii) converted to a public interest use;

(iv) held for further legal action;

(v) sold at public auction and the proceeds of the sale applied to a public interest use; or

(vi) destroyed.

(3) Before the court can order property be returned to a claimant, the claimant shall establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that the claimant:

(a) is the owner of the property; and

(b) may lawfully possess the property.

(a) [If] Subject to the provisions in Subsections (4)(b), (c), and (d), if the court orders the property to be returned to the claimant, the agency with custody of the property shall return the property to the claimant as expeditiously as possible.

(b) If the property at issue is a computer or a portable communication device that is not alleged to be contraband and that the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency alleges may contain evidence in the form of digital information stored on the computer or portable communication device, the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency with possession of the computer or portable communication device shall:

(i) make a digital copy, clone, or other reproduction of the digital information stored on the computer or portable communication device within:

(A) for a portable communication device, 30 days after the day on which the court orders the return of the portable communication device; or

(B) for a computer, 120 days after the day on which the court orders the return of the computer; and

(ii) allow the claimant to regain possession of the computer or portable communication device if ordered by the court on an expedited basis in accordance with Subsection (4)(a).

(c) If the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency with possession of the computer or portable communication device is unable to make a digital copy, clone, or other reproduction of the digital information stored on the computer or portable communication device within the deadlines described in Subsection (4)(b)(i), or alleges that continued possession of the computer or portable communication device itself, as opposed to a copy, clone, or reproduction, is necessary:

(i) the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency shall provide to the court:

(A) an explanation as to why the digital copy, clone, or other reproduction has not been completed and, if applicable, an estimate as to when the digital copy, clone, or other reproduction will be completed; or

(B) if applicable, the reasons as to why the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency contends that continued possession of the computer or portable communication device itself is necessary, as opposed to a digital copy, clone, or other reproduction; and

(ii) the court shall:

(A) consider the information described in Subsection (4)(c)(i), including, if applicable, whether the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency has demonstrated that continued possession of the computer or portable communication device itself, as opposed to a digital copy, clone, or other reproduction, is reasonable under the circumstances of the case; and

(B) retain jurisdiction over the matter, including making any necessary orders, until the property has been returned or the matter has otherwise been resolved.

(d) Digital information obtained from a computer or portable communication device under Subsection (4)(b)(i) remains subject to warrant requirements and evidentiary procedures.

SB0252S01 compared with SB0252S03

- 341 (b) a court orders the agency to return evidence that is property to a claimant under Section 77-11a-305;
or
- 343 (c) the evidence is wildlife or parts of wildlife.
- 344 (2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), the agency may not dispose of evidence of a misdemeanor offense that is a sexual assault kit before the day on which the time period described in Section 77-11c-201 expires if:
- 347 (a) the agency sends a notice to the victim as described in Section 53-10-905; and
- 348 (b) the victim submits a written request for retention of the evidence within the 180-day period described in Section 53-10-905.
- 350 (3)
- (a) Subsection (1) does not require an agency to return or dispose of evidence of a misdemeanor offense.
- 352 (b) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply when the return or disposal of evidence of a misdemeanor offense is in compliance with a memorandum of understanding between the agency and the prosecuting attorney.
- 355 (4) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a controlled substance, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the controlled substance by:
- 357 (a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance for independent testing and use as evidence;
- 359 (b) taking a photographic or video record of the controlled substance with identifying case numbers;
- 361 (c) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the controlled substance if a chemical analysis
was performed by the agency; and
- 363 (d) if the controlled substance exceeds 10 pounds, retain at least one pound of the controlled substance that is randomly selected from the controlled substance.
- 365 (5) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is drug paraphernalia, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the drug paraphernalia by:
- 367 (a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance from the drug paraphernalia for independent testing and use as evidence;
- 369 (b) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the drug paraphernalia if a chemical analysis
was performed by the agency; and
- 371 (c) taking a photographic or video record of the drug paraphernalia with identifying case numbers.

- 373 (6) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a computer or portable communication device, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the computer or portable 375 communication device by:
- 377 (a) extracting all data from the computer or portable communication device that would be evidence in a prosecution of an individual for the offense; and
- 379 (b) taking a photographic or video record of the computer or portable communication device with identifying case numbers.
- 379 (7) For any other type of evidence, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1) (a)(ii) of the property, contraband, item, or substance by taking a photographic or video record of the property, contraband, item, or substance with identifying case numbers.
- 462 Section 6. Section 77-11c-302 is amended to read:
- 463 77-11c-302. Requirements for not retaining evidence of felony offense -- Preservation of sufficient evidence.
- 386 (1) An agency is not required to retain evidence of a felony offense under Section 77-11c-301 if:
- 388 (a)
- 389 (i) the agency determines that:
- 392 (A) the size, bulk, or physical character of the evidence renders retention impracticable or the evidence poses a security or safety problem for the agency; and
- 393 (B) the evidence no longer has any significant evidentiary value;
- 395 (ii) the agency preserves sufficient evidence from the property, contraband, item, or substance for use as evidence in a prosecution of the offense; and
- 397 (iii) a prosecuting attorney or a court authorizes the agency to return or dispose of the evidence as described in Subsection 77-11c-303;
- 399 (b) a court orders the agency to return evidence that is property to a claimant under Section 77-11a-305;
or
- 400 (c) the evidence is wildlife or parts of wildlife.
- 400 (2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), the agency may not dispose of evidence of a felony offense that is a sexual assault kit before the day on which the time period described in Section 77-11c-301 expires if:
- 403 (a) the agency sends a notice to the victim in accordance with Section 53-10-905; and
- 404

SB0252S01 compared with SB0252S03

(b) the victim submits a written request for retention of the evidence within the 180-day period described in Section 53-10-905.

(3) Subsection (1) does not require an agency to return or dispose of evidence of a felony offense.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to biological evidence of a violent felony offense because an agency is required to retain biological evidence of a violent felony offense as described in Part 4, Preservation of Biological Evidence for Violent Felony Offenses.

(5) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a controlled substance, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the controlled substance by:

(a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance for independent testing and use as evidence;

(b) taking a photographic or video record of the controlled substance with identifying case numbers;

(c) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the controlled substance if a chemical analysis was performed by the agency;

(d) if the controlled substance exceeds 10 pounds, retaining at least one pound of the controlled substance that is randomly selected from the controlled substance; and

(e) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence from the controlled substance as described in Section 77-11c-401.

(6) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is drug paraphernalia, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the drug paraphernalia by:

(a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance from the drug paraphernalia for independent testing and use as evidence;

(b) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the drug paraphernalia if a chemical analysis was performed by the agency;

(c) taking a photographic or video record of the drug paraphernalia with identifying case numbers; and

(d) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence from the drug paraphernalia as described in Section 77-11c-401.

(7) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a computer or portable communication device, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the computer or portable communication device by:

(a) extracting all data from the computer or portable communication device that would be evidence in a prosecution of an individual for the offense;
