115	with another individual; and
116	(iii) the employee would present a serious threat of harm to another individual due to
117	the employee's prior conviction or adjudication;
118	(c) an offense committed by an employee involving a motor vehicle if:
119	(i) the employee operates a motor vehicle as part of the employee's employment; and
120	(ii) the employee was previously convicted or adjudicated in this state or another
121	jurisdiction of an offense involving a motor vehicle; or
122	(d) unless the employer instituted a reasonable drug or alcohol testing program to ensure
123	the sobriety of the employee, an offense committed by an employee involving a
124	substance abuse offense if the employee was previously convicted or adjudicated in
125	this state or another jurisdiction of an offense involving drugs or alcohol.
126	(5) In determining whether a drug or alcohol testing program is reasonable under
127	Subsection (4)(d), the court shall consider:
128	(a) the length of time that the employee was sober before the commission of the
129	substance abuse offense;
130	(b) whether the employer has given the employee access to:
131	(i) alcohol or drugs; or
132	(ii) any equipment that would place another individual at risk of harm; and
133	(c) any other factor that the court considers relevant.
