(ii) request a response by a specific date to the evaluation from the federal governmental entity;

(c) request a meeting, conducted in person or by electronic means, with the federal governmental entity, a representative from another state, or a United States Senator or Representative elected from the state to discuss the evaluation of federal law and any possible remedy; or

(d) give written notice of an evaluation and the conclusions of the commission to any other relevant entity.

(4) The commission may recommend to the governor that the governor call a special session of the Legislature to give the Legislature an opportunity to respond to the commission's evaluation of a federal law.

(5) A commission cochair may coordinate the evaluation of and response to federal law with another state as provided in Section 63C-4a-305.

(6) The commission shall keep a current list on the Legislature's website of:

(a) a federal law that the commission evaluates under Subsection (1);

(b) an action taken by a cochair of the commission or the commission under Subsection (3);

(c) any coordination undertaken with another state under Section 63C-4a-305; and

(d) any response received from a federal government entity that was requested under Subsection (3).

(7)(a) The commission shall develop curriculum for a seminar on the principles of federalism.

(b) The curriculum under Subsection (7)(a) shall be available to the general public and include:

(i) fundamental principles of federalism;

(ii) the sovereignty, supremacy, and jurisdiction of the individual states, including their police powers;

(iii) the history and practical implementation of the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution;

(iv) the authority and limits on the authority of the federal government as found in the United States Constitution;

(v) the relationship between the state and federal governments;

- (vi) methods of evaluating a federal law in the context of the principles of federalism;
- (vii) how and when challenges should be made to a federal law or regulation on the basis of federalism;
- (viii) the separate and independent powers of the state that serve as a check on the federal government;
- (ix) first amendment rights and freedoms contained therein; and
- (x) any other issues relating to federalism the commission considers necessary.
- (8) The commission may apply for and receive grants, and receive private donations to assist in funding the creation, enhancement, and dissemination of the curriculum.
- (9) The commission shall submit a report on or before November 30 of each year to the Government Operations Interim Committee and the Natural Resources, Agriculture, and Environment Interim Committee that:
- (a) describes any action taken by the commission under Section 63C-4a-303; and
- (b) includes any proposed legislation the commission recommends.
- (10) The commission shall comply with Section 19-1-110 in discussions with the Department of Environmental Quality on issues related to the environment or the functioning of the Department of Environmental Quality.
- (11) The commission shall:
- (a) coordinate with and make recommendations to the center concerning the center's federalism-related duties under Section 53B-29-402, including:
