- 171 (25) "Smart phone" means a portable electronic device that combines a cellular phone with 172 a hand-held computer, typically offering Internet access, data storage, and text, email, 173 and similar capabilities.
- 174 (26) "Tablet" means a portable electronic device that:
- 175 (a) is equipped with a mobile operating system, touchscreen display, and rechargeable 176 battery; and
- 177 (b) has the ability to support access to a cellular network.
- 178 Section 2. Section 77-11a-301 is amended to read:
- 179 77-11a-301 . Return of seized property to claimant -- Generally --
- 180 Noncontraband computer or portable communication device.
- 181 (1)(a) An agency with custody of seized property, or the prosecuting attorney, may 182 return the property to a claimant if the agency or the prosecuting attorney:
- 183 (i) determines that the agency does not need to retain or preserve the property as 184 evidence under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence; or
- 185 (ii) seeks to return the property to the claimant because the agency or prosecuting 186 attorney determines that the claimant is an innocent owner or an interest holder.
- 187 (b) An agency with custody of seized property, or the prosecuting attorney, may not 188 return property under this Subsection (1) if the property is subject to retention or 189 preservation under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence.
- 190 (2) An agency with custody of the seized property, or the prosecuting attorney, shall return 191 the property to a claimant if:
- 192 (a) the claimant posts a surety bond or cash with the court in accordance with Section 193 77-11a-302;
- 194 (b) the court orders the return of property to the claimant for hardship purposes under 195 Section 77-11a-303;
- 196 (c) a claimant establishes that the claimant is an innocent owner or an interest holder 197 under Section 77-11a-304; or
- 198 (d) the court orders property retained as evidence to be returned to the claimant under Section 77-11a-305.

(3)(a)(i) For a computer or portable communication device determined to be contraband, a court may order the reasonable extraction and return of specifically described personal digital data to the owner of the computer or portable communication device.

[(b)] (ii) The agency shall determine a reasonable cost to extract the data described in Subsection (3)(a)(i).

[(e)] (iii) At the time of the request to extract the data, the owner of the computer or portable communication device shall pay the agency the cost to extract the data described in Subsection (3)(a)(i).

(b)(i) For a computer or portable communication device that is not alleged to be contraband but is alleged to contain evidence in the form of digital data contained on the computer or portable communication device, the computer or portable communication device may be returned under this section, or the owner of the computer or portable communication device may follow the procedures described in Section 77-11a-305 to regain possession of the computer or portable communication device.

(ii) The cost of the copying or extraction of data from a computer or portable communication device described in Subsection (3)(b)(i) may not be charged to the owner of the computer or portable communication device.

(iii) A law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency may not condition the return of a computer or portable communication device described in Subsection (3)(b)(i):

(A) on the owner providing the owner's password or otherwise unlocking, accessing, or de-encrypting the computer or portable communication device; or

(B) on the owner consenting to a search of the digital contents of the computer or portable communication device.

(4) If a natural resources officer for the Division of Law Enforcement seizes a vehicle, the Division of Law Enforcement shall return the vehicle to a claimant in accordance with

Section 23A-5-201.

(5) If an agency is not required, or is no longer required, to retain or preserve property as evidence under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, and the agency seeks to return or dispose of the property, the agency shall exercise due diligence in attempting to notify the claimant of the property to advise the claimant that the property is to be returned.

(6)(a) Before an agency may return seized property to a person claiming ownership of the property, the person shall establish that the person:

(i) is the owner of the property; and

(ii) may lawfully possess the property.

(b) The person shall establish ownership under Subsection (6)(a) by providing to the agency:

(i) identifying proof or documentation of ownership of the property; or

(ii) a notarized statement if proof or documentation is not available.

(c) When seized property is returned to the owner, the owner shall sign a receipt listing in detail the property that is returned.

(d) The agency shall:

(i) retain a copy of the receipt; and

(ii) provide a copy of the receipt to the owner.

Section 3. Section 77-11a-305 is amended to read:

77-11a-305 . Release of seized property to claimant when seized property is retained as evidence.

(1)(a) A claimant may file a petition with the court for the return of the property that is being retained as evidence in accordance with Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence.

(b) The claimant may file the petition in:

(i) the court in which criminal proceedings have commenced regarding the offense for which the property is being retained as evidence; or

(ii) the district court with venue under Section 77-11a-102 if there are no pending criminal proceedings.

(c) A claimant shall serve a copy of the petition on the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor and the agency with custody of the property.

(2)(a) The court shall provide an opportunity for an expedited hearing.

(b) After the opportunity for an expedited hearing, the court may order that the property is:

(i) returned to the claimant if the claimant is the owner as determined by the court;

(ii) if the offense subjecting the property to seizure results in a conviction, applied directly or by proceeds of the sale of the property toward restitution, fines, or fees owed by the claimant in an amount set by the court;

(iii) converted to a public interest use;

(iv) held for further legal action;

(v) sold at public auction and the proceeds of the sale applied to a public interest use;

- 267 or 268 (vi) destroyed.
- 269 (3) Before the court can order property be returned to a claimant, the claimant shall 270 establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that the claimant:
271 (a) is the owner of the property; and 272 (b) may lawfully possess the property.
- 273 (4)(a) [Hf] Subject to the provisions in Subsections (4)(b), (c), and (d), the court orders
274 the property to be returned to the claimant, the agency with custody of the property 275 shall return the property to the claimant as expeditiously as possible.
- 276 (b) If the property at issue is a computer or a portable communication device that is not 277 alleged to be contraband and that the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency 278 alleges may contain evidence in the form of digital information stored on the 279 computer or portable communication device, the law enforcement agency or 280 prosecuting agency with possession of the computer or portable communication 281 device shall:
- 282 (i) make a digital copy, clone, or other reproduction of the digital information stored 283 on the computer or portable communication device within:
- 284 (A) for a portable communication device, 30 days after the day on which the 285 claimant files the petition described in Subsection (1)(a); or
- 286 (B) for a computer, 120 days after the day on which the claimant files the petition 287 described in Subsection (1)(a); and
- 288 (ii) allow the claimant to regain possession of the computer or portable 289 communication device if ordered by the court on an expedited basis in accordance 290 with Subsection (4)(a).
- 291 (c) If the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency with possession of the 292 computer or portable communication device is unable to make a digital copy, clone, 293 or other reproduction of the digital information stored on the computer or portable 294 communication device within the deadlines described in Subsection (4)(b)(i):
- 295 (i) the law enforcement agency or prosecuting agency shall explain to the court why 296 the action has not taken place and provide an estimate as to when the action will 297 be completed; and
- 298 (ii) the court shall retain jurisdiction over the matter until the property has been 299 returned or the matter has otherwise been resolved.
- 300 (d) Digital information obtained from a computer or portable communication device under Subsection (4)(b)(i) remains subject to warrant requirements and evidentiary procedures.

Section 5. Section 77-11c-202 is amended to read:

77-11c-202 . Requirements for not retaining evidence of a misdemeanor offense -- Preservation of sufficient evidence.

(1) An agency is not required to retain evidence of a misdemeanor offense under Section 77-11c-201 if:

(a)(i) the agency determines that:

(A) the size, bulk, or physical character of the evidence renders retention impracticable; or

(B) the evidence poses a security or safety problem for the agency;

(ii) the agency preserves sufficient evidence of the property, contraband, item, or substance for use as evidence in a prosecution of the offense;

(iii) the agency sends a written request under Subsection 77-11c-203(1) to the

- 403 prosecuting attorney for permission to return or dispose of the evidence; and 404 (iv) the prosecuting attorney grants the agency's written request in accordance with 405 Section 77-11c-203;
- 406 (b) a court orders the agency to return evidence that is property to a claimant under 407 Section 77-11a-305; or
- 408 (c) the evidence is wildlife or parts of wildlife.
- 409 (2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), the agency may not dispose of evidence of a 410 misdemeanor offense that is a sexual assault kit before the day on which the time period 411 described in Section 77-11c-201 expires if:
- 412 (a) the agency sends a notice to the victim as described in Section 53-10-905; and 413 (b) the victim submits a written request for retention of the evidence within the 180-day
414 period described in Section 53-10-905.
- 415 (3)(a) Subsection (1) does not require an agency to return or dispose of evidence of a 416 misdemeanor offense.
- 417 (b) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply when the return or disposal of evidence of a 418 misdemeanor offense is in compliance with a memorandum of understanding 419 between the agency and the prosecuting attorney.
- 420 (4) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a controlled substance, an agency shall 421 preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the controlled substance by:
- 422 (a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance for independent 423 testing and use as evidence;
- 424 (b) taking a photographic or video record of the controlled substance with identifying 425 case numbers;
- 426 (c) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the controlled substance if a 427 chemical analysis was performed by the agency; and
- 428 (d) if the controlled substance exceeds 10 pounds, retain at least one pound of the 429 controlled substance that is randomly selected from the controlled substance.
- 430 (5) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is drug paraphernalia, an agency shall 431 preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the drug paraphernalia by:
- 432 (a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance from the drug 433 paraphernalia for independent testing and use as evidence;
- 434 (b) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the drug paraphernalia if a 435 chemical analysis was performed by the agency; and
- 436 (c) taking a photographic or video record of the drug paraphernalia with identifying case 437 numbers.

438 (6) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a computer or portable communication 439 device, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the 440 computer or portable communication device by:

441 (a) extracting all data from the computer or portable communication device that would 442 be evidence in a prosecution of an individual for the offense; and

443 (b) taking a photographic or video record of the computer or portable communication
444 device with identifying case numbers.

445 (7) For any other type of evidence, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under 446 Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the property, contraband, item, or substance by taking a 447 photographic or video record of the property, contraband, item, or substance with 448 identifying case numbers.

449 Section 6. Section 77-11c-302 is amended to read:

450 77-11c-302 . Requirements for not retaining evidence of felony offense --
451 Preservation of sufficient evidence.

452 (1) An agency is not required to retain evidence of a felony offense under Section 453 77-11c-301 if:

454 (a)(i) the agency determines that:

455 (A) the size, bulk, or physical character of the evidence renders retention 456 impracticable or the evidence poses a security or safety problem for the 457 agency; and

458 (B) the evidence no longer has any significant evidentiary value;

459 (ii) the agency preserves sufficient evidence from the property, contraband, item, or 460 substance for use as evidence in a prosecution of the offense; and

461 (iii) a prosecuting attorney or a court authorizes the agency to return or dispose of the 462 evidence as described in Subsection 77-11c-303;

463 (b) a court orders the agency to return evidence that is property to a claimant under 464 Section 77-11a-305; or

465 (c) the evidence is wildlife or parts of wildlife.

466 (2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), the agency may not dispose of evidence of a felony 467 offense that is a sexual assault kit before the day on which the time period described in 468 Section 77-11c-301 expires if:

469 (a) the agency sends a notice to the victim in accordance with Section 53-10-905; and

470 (b) the victim submits a written request for retention of the evidence within the 180-day period described in Section 53-10-905.

(3) Subsection (1) does not require an agency to return or dispose of evidence of a felony offense.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to biological evidence of a violent felony offense because an agency is required to retain biological evidence of a violent felony offense as described in Part 4, Preservation of Biological Evidence for Violent Felony Offenses.

(5) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a controlled substance, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the controlled substance by:

(a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance for independent testing and use as evidence;

(b) taking a photographic or video record of the controlled substance with identifying case numbers;

(c) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the controlled substance if a chemical analysis was performed by the agency;

(d) if the controlled substance exceeds 10 pounds, retaining at least one pound of the controlled substance that is randomly selected from the controlled substance; and

(e) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence from the controlled substance as described in Section 77-11c-401.

(6) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is drug paraphernalia, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the drug paraphernalia by:

(a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance from the drug paraphernalia for independent testing and use as evidence;

(b) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the drug paraphernalia if a chemical analysis was performed by the agency;

(c) taking a photographic or video record of the drug paraphernalia with identifying case numbers; and

(d) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence from the drug paraphernalia as described in Section 77-11c-401.

(7) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a computer or portable communication device, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the computer or portable communication device by:

(a) extracting all data from the computer or portable communication device that would be evidence in a prosecution of an individual for the offense;

(b) taking a photographic or video record of the computer or portable communication

505 device with identifying case numbers; and 506 (c) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence from the 507 computer or portable communication device as described in Section 77-11c-401.
508 (8) For any other type of evidence, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under 509 Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the property, contraband, item, or substance by:
510 (a) taking a photographic or video record of the property, contraband, item, or substance 511 with identifying case numbers; and 512 (b) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence as 513 described in Section 77-11c-401.
514 Section 7. Effective Date.
515 This bill takes effect on May 7, 2025.
