

1. Line 52 through 55a:

- 52            (h) "Tow truck motor carrier" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-9-102.
 53            (2) A motor carrier shall pay the costs associated with a recovery operation from the motor
 54            vehicle insurance policy issued for the power unit.
 55            (3) A commercial liability insurer that provides  $\hat{S}$ → [ { a rider } ] an endorsement ← $\hat{S}$
 55a           described in Subsection (7)(a) that

2. Line 56 through 61:

- 56            insures a vehicle or cargo recovered as part of a recovery operation shall pay the 57            recovery operator directly for all reasonable and necessary services involved in the
 58            recovery operation.
 59            (4) (a) A commercial liability insurer that provides  $\hat{S}$ → [ { a rider } ] an endorsement ← $\hat{S}$
 59a           described in Subsection (7)(a)
 60            that insures a vehicle recovered as part of a recovery operation shall, within 60 days
 61            after the day on which the insurer receives an invoice with documentation of the

3. Line 102 through 109:

- 102           recovered vehicle or cargo after compliance with Subsection (6)(c).
 103           (7) (a) In addition to any other coverage required by this title, a motor carrier operating in 104           this state shall obtain a motor vehicle liability insurance policy for a power unit that
 105           includes a separate coverage  $\hat{S}$ → [ { rider } ] endorsement ← $\hat{S}$  providing coverage
 105a           for costs associated with a
 106           recovery operation.
 107           (b) The  $\hat{S}$ → [ { rider } ] endorsement ← $\hat{S}$  requirement described in Subsection (7)(a)
 107a           applies to commercial vehicles
 108           covered by:
 109           (i) a liability-only insurance policy; or