

S.B. 268

Religious Curriculum in Schools

House Amendments

Amendment 4

February 27, 2026 02:44 PM

---

Representative Matt MacPherson proposes the following amendments:

1. Line 110 through 120:

110 (1) (a) An LEA may not provide religious instruction.

111 (b) In accordance with Subsection (1)(a), an LEA may teach about religion and promote 112 religious liberty and respect for the religious views, or lack thereof, of all, including:

113 {~~(i)~~ philosophical questions concerning religion;}

114 {~~(ii)~~ (i) the history of religion;}

115 {~~(iii)~~ comparative religion;}

116 {~~(iv)~~ (ii) religious texts as literature; and}

117 {~~(v)~~ (iii) the  $\hat{S}$ → fundamental ← $\hat{S}$  role of religion in the history of the United States. {~~and~~}}

117a {other countries} .

118 (+) Except as provided in this section and in Section 53G-10-206, any instructional
119 activity, performance, or display which includes examination of or presentations about 120 religion, political or religious thought or expression, or the influence thereof on music,