77-32b-105 , as last amended by Laws of Utah 2025, Chapter 259

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 77-32b-105 is amended to read:

77-32b-105. Petition for remittance or modification of a criminal accounts receivable before termination of a sentence.

(1) At any time before a defendant's sentence terminates, the defendant may petition the sentencing court to:

(a) correct an error in a criminal accounts receivable;

(b) modify the payment schedule for the defendant's criminal accounts receivable in accordance with this section if the defendant is not under the jurisdiction of the board; or

(c) remit, in whole or in part, an unpaid amount of the defendant's criminal accounts receivable that is not the principal or interest amount owed for restitution in accordance with this section.

(2){ (a) } If a defendant files a petition under Subsection (1), and the sentencing court is satisfied that payment of an unpaid amount of a criminal accounts receivable will impose manifest hardship on the defendant or the defendant's family, the court shall allow the defendant{ ~~regardless of whether the criminal accounts receivable is delinquent or in default~~ } :

(a){ (i) } to satisfy an unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable, that is not the principal or interest amount owed for restitution, with proof of compensatory service completed by the defendant at a rate of credit not less than { ~~$10~~ } $12 for each hour of compensatory service; and

(b){ (ii) } to reduce the unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable, that is not the principal or interest amount owed for restitution, in the amount of the cost of any treatment or course if:

(i){ (A) } the treatment or course was ordered by the court as part of the case;

(ii){ (B) } the defendant has completed the court's requirements related to the treatment or course; and

(iii){ (C) } the defendant provides proof that the defendant completed the court's requirements and paid the cost of the treatment or course.

{ ~~(2)~~ } (3) Subsection (2)(a) applies regardless of whether:

(i) the criminal accounts receivable is delinquent or in default; or

(ii) the court's imposition of an amount of the criminal accounts receivable was required by law or discretionary.
