34 "Fundamental alteration" means a change so significant in an examination, assignment, or activity that the change:

36 alters the essential nature, objectives, or standards of a class, program, or degree; and

38 negatively impacts the student's ability, as a neutral arbiter, whom the institution designates under

Subsection (5)(f) determines, to:

40 master essential learning outcomes of the course, program, or degree; or

41 acquire the knowledge, skills, or competencies necessary to pass the course, program, or degree.

43 "Matter of public concern" means speech that relates to a political, social, religious, moral, or community matter.

28 "Reasonably accommodate" means taking reasonable steps to modify expectations for a student's participation in an examination or other academic requirement by:

30 excusing participation;

31 offering an alternative deadline or schedule; or

32 offering an alternative examination, assignment, or activity.

33 {(1)} {(2)}

50 [(1)] (2)[An]In accordance with Subsection (3), an institution shall:

34 (a) {institution shall,} for any course:

HB0204 compared with HB0204S01

{(a)} (i) reasonably accommodate a student's absence from an examination or other academic requirement under the circumstances described in Subsection [(2) for reasons of:

37 [({i}) (A) the student's [faith]{religion} religious or conscience belief; or

38 [({ii}) (B) the student's participation in an organized activity conducted under the auspices of the student's religious tradition or religious organization; and

40 ({b}) (ii) ensure that an accommodation described in Subsection [(1)(a)(a)(i){. does not adversely impact the student's academic opportunities[.]; and

42 {An institution shall} for a course that the institution mandates for graduation or for an academic major, reasonably accommodate a student's objection to a required assignment or activity for reasons of the student's sincerely held religious or conscience beliefif the requested accommodation does not create a fundamental alteration.

46 [(2)] (3) An institution shall make an accommodation described in Subsection (1) if:

47 (a) for an accommodation described in Subsection (2)(a), the time at which an examination or academic requirement is scheduled to occur [creates an undue hardship for a student due to]conflicts with the student's sincerely held religious or conscience belief; and

51 (b) for any accommodation described in Subsection (2), the student provides [a written]prior notice to the instructor of the course for which the student seeks the accommodation regarding [the date of the examination or academic requirement for which the student seeks] the request for the accommodation.

73 (4)

74 (a) An instructor shall:

76 (i) respond to a request for an accommodation as soon as practicable and in accordance with institutional polices described in Subsection (5); and

(ii) if the instructor denies the request, notify the student and the institution of the denial, including the reason for the denial, as soon as practicable and in accordance with the institutional policies described in Subsection (5).

79 (b) An instructor may not compel a student to publicly take or communicate a specified position on a matter of public concern as the student's own, including by requiring a student to write a letter to a lawmaker, write a letter to an editor, write an article for publication, publish an opinion online or on social media, or create or publish a podcast.

HB0204 compared with HB0204S01

[{3}]{4}{5} An institution shall establish policies and procedures, with guidance from the board, related to the accommodation described in Subsection (1) that:

- 56 (a) require the institution to provide the accommodation with respect to [when the student participates] the student's participation in examinations and other academic requirements;
- 59 (b) allow an instructor who receives a notice described in Subsection (2)(b)(b) to:
  - 60 (i) schedule an alternative examination time before or after the regularly scheduled examination; or
  - 62 {(ii) and}
  - 92 (ii) make accommodations for other academic requirements related to the accommodation; [ and]
