there is no other reasonable method to present the minor child's testimony.

359 (b)

(i) The court may inquire and take into consideration the minor child's desires regarding future custody or parent-time schedules, but the expressed desires are not controlling and the court may determine emotional needs of the minor child at issue; and

- 379 (ii) the parent with a disability lacks sufficient human, monetary, or other resources available to supplement the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of the minor child at issue.
- 382 (c) Nothing in this section may be construed to apply to adoption proceedings under Chapter 13,

- 384 (7) This section does not establish:
- 385 (a) a preference for either parent solely because of the gender of the parent; or
- 386 (b) a preference for or against joint physical custody or sole physical custody, but allows the court and the family the widest discretion to choose a parenting plan that is in the best interest of the minor child.
- 389 (8) When an issue before the court involves custodial responsibility in the event of a deployment of a parent who is a service member and the service member has not yet been notified of deployment, the court shall resolve the issue based on the standards in Sections 81-10-306 through 81-10-309.

Section 5. Section 81-9-206 is amended to read:

(3) In accordance with Section 81-9-104, when ordering a parent-time schedule a court shall consider:

(a) evidence of domestic violence, physical abuse, or sexual abuse involving the minor child, a parent, or a household member of the parent; and

(4) A court may consider the following when ordering a parent-time schedule:

~~[(a)]~~ ~~(b)~~ evidence of psychological maltreatment;

~~[(b)]~~ ~~(c)~~ the distance between the residency of the minor child and the noncustodial parent;

485 ~~[(m)]~~ (n) the lack of reasonable alternatives to the needs of a nursing minor child; and 486 ~~[(m)]~~ (o) any other criteria the court determines relevant to the best interests of the minor child.

488 (5) The court shall enter the reasons underlying the court's order for parent-time that:

489 (a) incorporates a parent-time schedule described in Section 81-9-302 or 81-9-304; or 490 (b) provides more or less parent-time than a parent-time schedule described in Section 81-9-302 or 81-9-304.

492 (6) A court may not order a parent-time schedule unless the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the parent-time schedule is in the best interest of the minor child.

495 (7) Once the parent-time schedule has been established, the parties may not alter the parent-time schedule except by mutual consent of the parties or a court order.

497 (8)

(a) If the court orders parent-time and a protective order or stalking injunction is still in place, the court shall consider whether to order the parents to conduct parent-time pick-up and transfer through a third party.

500 (b) The parent who is the stated victim in the protective order or stalking injunction may submit to the court, and the court shall consider, the name of a person considered suitable to act as the third party.

503 (c) If the court orders the parents to conduct parent-time through a third party, the parenting plan shall specify the time, day, place, manner, and the third party to be used to implement the exchange.

506 (9) If there is a protective order, stalking injunction, or the court finds that a parent has committed domestic violence, the court shall:

508 (a) consider the impact of domestic violence in awarding parent-time; and 509 (b) make specific findings regarding the award of parent-time.

HB0303S02 compared with HB0303S03

510 (10) Upon a specific finding by the court of the need for peace officer enforcement, the court may include a provision in an order for parent-time that authorizes a peace officer to enforce the order for parent-time.

513 (11) When parent-time has not taken place for an extended period of time and the minor child lacks an appropriate bond with the noncustodial parent, both parents shall consider the possible adverse effects upon the minor child and gradually reintroduce an appropriate parent-time plan for the noncustodial parent.
