Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 36-2-2 is amended to read:

36-2-2. Salaries and expenses of members -- Compensation of in-session employees.

(a) [~~Unless rejected or lowered~~] Except as provided in Section 36-2-3, beginning in 2001 and in each odd-numbered year after that year, members of the Legislature shall receive a salary equal to the amount recommended by the Legislative Compensation Commission in the last report issued by the commission in the previous even-numbered year.

(b) [~~Unless rejected or lowered~~] Except as provided in Section 36-2-3, beginning in 2001 and in each odd-numbered year after that year, members of the Legislature shall receive a salary for attendance at a veto-override, special session, and other authorized legislative meetings equal to the amount recommended by the Legislative Compensation Commission in the last report issued by the commission in the previous even-numbered year.

(a) [~~Unless rejected or lowered~~] Except as provided in Section 36-2-3, beginning in 2001 and in each odd-numbered year after that year, the president of the Senate and the speaker of the House of Representatives shall receive a salary equal to the amount recommended by the Legislative Compensation Commission in the last report issued by the commission in the previous even-numbered year.

(b) [~~Beginning~~] Except as provided in Section 36-2-3, beginning in 2001 and in each odd-numbered year after that year, the majority and minority leadership of each chamber shall receive a salary equal to the amount recommended by the Legislative Compensation Commission in the last report issued by the commission in the previous even-numbered year.

(3) The Legislature shall:

(a) establish, by joint rule of the Legislature, the expenses of its members; and

(b) ensure that the rules governing expenses are based upon:

(i) payment of necessary expenses for attendance during legislative sessions;

(ii) a mileage allowance; and

(iii) reimbursement for other expenses involved in the performance of legislative duties.

Section 2. Section 36-2-3 is amended to read:

36-2-3. Salaries of members set by Legislature and State Board of Education based on recommendations of Legislative Compensation Commission.

(1)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)~~[-(3)]~~, (3), or (4), the salaries of members of the Legislature shall automatically be set beginning January 1 of each odd-numbered year at the amount recommended by the Legislative Compensation Commission in the last report issued by the commission in the preceding even-numbered year.

(b) This salary recommendation shall be based on either:

(i) a daily basis:

(A) for each calendar day for annual general sessions; and

(B) for each day a legislator attends veto-override and special sessions and other authorized legislative meetings; or

(ii) an annualized salary.

(c) In preparing its report, the commission may recommend salary amounts that:

(i) take into account the amounts received by legislators for legislative expenses; and

(ii) provide alternative salary amounts based upon the occurrence of various contingencies.

(a) During an even-numbered annual general session or special session in the year immediately preceding the effective date of any salary change, the Legislature may reject or decrease the salary recommendation, but may not increase the salary recommendation.

HB0409S01 compared with HB0409S02

(b) If the Legislature does not act as provided in Subsection (2)(a), they have by law accepted the Legislative Compensation Commission's recommendations contained in the last report issued by the commission in the preceding even-numbered year.

(3) If the last report issued by the commission in an even-numbered year recommends a salary contingent upon certain action being taken by the Legislature, that contingent legislative salary:

(a) takes effect on the day after the day that the contingent action is taken by the Legislature; and

(b) supersedes any other salary in effect as of January 1.

(4) If a legislator elects to use legislator leave as provided in Section 53G-11-210 or 63A-17-513, the legislator may not receive salary under this part for any day {during which the Legislature is convened in the annual general session} for which the legislator elects to use legislator leave.

~~[(4)]~~ (5)

(a) The salary for a member of the State Board of Education shall be:

(i) the same as the salary for a member of the Legislature; and

(ii) except as provided in Subsection ~~[(4)(b)]~~ (5)(b), set in accordance with this section and Subsection 36-2-2(1).

(b) For purposes of setting the salary for a member of the State Board of Education:

(i) a calendar day for the annual general session described in Subsection (1)(b)(i)(A) is interpreted as a calendar day of:

(A) a meeting of the State Board of Education; and

(B) any other meeting authorized by the State Board of Education; and

(ii) unless the Legislative Compensation Commission issues a revised report on or after July 1, 2016, the salary for a member of the State Board of Education through calendar year 2016 is $273 per day for each calendar day that a member attends a meeting described in Subsection ~~[(4)(b)(i)(A)]~~ (5)(b)(i)(A) or (B).

Section 3. Section 3 is enacted to read:

49-11-506. Effect of legislator leave on service credit accrual and retirement related contributions.

{During an annual general session} For any day for which an employee elects to use legislator leave as provided in Section

{provided in Section} 53G-11-210 or 63A-17-513:

(1) the employee will continue to accrue service credit;

- 116 (2) the participating employer shall continue to pay the employee's retirement related contributions; and 118 (3) the employee may not accrue service credit or receive retirement related contributions for the employee's service as a legislator.

118 Section 4. Section 4 is enacted to read:

119 53G-11-210. Legislator leave.

122 (1) As used in this section:

123 (a) "Authorized legislative day" means the same as that term is defined in Section 63A-17-513.

125 (b) "Legislator" means:

126 (i) a member of the Utah Senate;

127 (ii) a member of the Utah House of Representatives; or

128 (iii) an individual who has been elected as a member described in Subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii), but has not yet been sworn in or begun the individual's term of office.

130 (c) "Legislator leave" means the leave described in Subsection (2)(a).

131 (d) "Teacher" means an individual employed by a school district or charter school who is required to hold an educator license issued by the state board and who has an assignment to teach in a classroom.

134 (2)

(a) An LEA shall develop a leave policy that grants a teacher who is a legislator paid leave for an authorized legislative day for the number of hours the legislator requests.

136 (b) In a policy described in Subsection (2)(a), the LEA shall:

137 (i) require a legislator who wishes to use legislator leave for an authorized legislative day that is during an annual general session, to use legislator leave for the total number of hours that the legislator is absent from the legislator's position during the annual general session; and 141 (ii) ensure the policy is no more restrictive than the provisions of Section 63A-17-513.

142 (3)

(a) Subject to legislative appropriation and Subsection (3)(b), upon request by a legislator's employer, the legislator's chamber shall reimburse the legislator's employer for the cost of any legislator leave the employer granted the legislator during the immediately preceding annual general session.

146 (b) The total amount of reimbursements made under Subsection (3)(a) and Subsection 63A-17-513(4) may not exceed the amount equal to the total savings resulting from legislators' ineligibility for salary under Section 36-2-3 and retirement related contributions under Section 49-11-506.

HB0409S01 compared with HB0409S02

(4) If a legislator chooses not to use legislator leave for an authorized legislative day, the legislator and the LEA may agree to a different arrangement that accommodates the legislator's legislative service for the authorized legislative day.

Section 5. Section 63A-17-513 is amended to read:

63A-17-513. State employer required to provide legislator leave.

(1) As used in this section:
