17 Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

18

WHEREAS, Utah is one of the fastest growing states, by population, in the United States;

WHEREAS, this rapid population growth has significantly increased the demand for housing across all income levels and regions of the state;

WHEREAS, the Kem C. Gardner Policy Institute and the Office of the Legislator Auditor General identified a persistent and growing gap between housing supply and housing demand, which contributes to rising home purchasing prices;

WHEREAS, high housing costs negatively impact workforce recruitment, economic competitiveness, and quality of life for Utah businesses and residents;

WHEREAS, housing assistance programs, economic incentive programs, and housing planning initiatives exist within multiple government agencies resulting in housing development delays and subsequently, increased housing costs;

WHEREAS, a comprehensive statewide housing strategy is needed to align land use, infrastructure investment, transportation planning, and economic development goals to meet Utah's housing needs;

WHEREAS, during the 2025 General Session, H.C.R.14, House Concurrent Resolution Supporting Streamlining Utah Housing Policies, recommended streamlining and consolidating Utah's housing programs to increase alignment and coordination among governmental entities;

WHEREAS, H.B. 37, Utah Housing Amendments, from the 2025 General Session required the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget to develop a state housing plan no later than December 31, 2025; and

WHEREAS, the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget, in partnership with more than 100 stakeholders, including legislators, completed the development of the Utah Housing Strategic Plan that outlines Utah's housing goals and includes guiding principles, outcome metrics, and recommendations to meet Utah's housing needs:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, ~~{ finds a lack }~~ find that implementation of ~~{ alignment and coordination among government }~~ the Utah Housing Strategic Plan agencies causes housing development delays and increased housing costs, which adversely affect Utah's economic growth and quality of life.

meets the state's goals of creating government efficiency and reducing duplication of services and confusion for political subdivisions, state government, and stakeholders by combining the housing-related policy efforts of the state.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor support implementing the Utah Housing Strategic Plan to align and coordinate statewide efforts to increase housing supply and improve affordability.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor commit to track the Utah Housing Strategic Plan implementation and results to ensure the plan remains responsive to Utah's changing housing needs.
