640 Section 8. Section 8 is enacted to read:

641 CHAPTER 35. Covered Entity Excise Tax

642 Part 1. General Provisions

643 59-35-101. (Effective 10/01/26)Legislative findings.

The Legislature finds that:

645 (1) minors in the state face an unprecedented mental health crisis, with rising rates of anxiety,
depression, and self-harm;

SB0073S02 compared with SB0073S03

- 647 (2) research demonstrates a correlation between minor access to material harmful to minors and negative mental health outcomes;
- 649 (3) existing state efforts to address minor access to material harmful to minors and to provide mental health services for minors have been inadequate due to limited resources;
- 651 (4) commercial entities that publish or distribute material harmful to minors have not voluntarily implemented effective age verification measures to prevent minor access;
- 653 (5) the state has a substantial and compelling interest in protecting minors from material harmful to minors;
- 655 (6) age verification requirements are an effective and minimally restrictive means of preventing minor access to material harmful to minors;
- 657 (7) additional funding is necessary to support mental health services for minors and to enforce age verification requirements; and
- 659 (8) entities required to implement age verification systems create regulatory costs and societal harms that warrant an excise tax to fund prevention and enforcement efforts.

661 Section 9. Section 9 is enacted to read:

662 59-35-102. (Effective 10/01/26)Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

- 664 (1) "Covered entity" means a commercial entity that is required to perform age verification under Section 78B-3-1002.
- 666 (2) "Covered transaction" means amounts paid to or charged by a covered entity for access to digital images, digital audio-visual works, digital audio works, digital books, or gaming services, including the streaming of or subscription for access to digital images, digital audio-visual works, digital audio works, digital books, or gaming services regardless of:
- 671 (a) the delivery method; or
- 672 (b) whether the amount paid or charged for access provides a right to:
- 673 (i) single-use access to the digital images, digital audio-visual works, digital audio works, digital books, or gaming services; or
- 675 (ii) access to the digital images, digital audio-visual works, digital audio works, digital books, or gaming services through a subscription, including a right that terminates upon the occurrence of a condition.
- 678 (3) "Division" means the Division of Consumer Protection created in Section 13-2-1.

SB0073S02 compared with SB0073S03

Section 10. Section 10 is enacted to read:

59-35-103. (Effective 10/01/26)Tax levy -- Rate -- Scope.

(1) An excise tax is imposed on a covered entity in an amount equal to 2% of the sales price of covered transactions.

(2) A covered entity shall pay the tax imposed under this section to the commission.

Section 11. Section 11 is enacted to read:

59-35-104. Collection and administration of tax.

(1) The commission shall administer, collect, and enforce the tax under this chapter in accordance with:

(a) Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies; and

(b) the same procedures used to administer, collect, and enforce the tax under Chapter 12, Part 1, Tax Collection.

(a) A covered entity that collects the tax imposed on covered transactions shall remit to the commission, in an electronic format approved by the commission:

(i) the tax due in the previous quarter; and

(ii) the tax return.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a), if a covered entity is required to file a sales and use tax return, the covered entity shall file the tax return and remit the tax imposed under this chapter in an electronic format the commission approves on the same schedule as the covered entity's sales and use tax filing.

(3) A covered entity shall maintain records of covered transactions to determine the amount of tax due under this part for a period of three years.

(4) The commission may make an assessment in accordance with Section 59-1-1405 for a deficiency of a tax, fee, or charge required to be paid under this chapter.

(5) In addition to the tax required by this part, a person shall pay a penalty as provided in Section 59-1-401, plus interest at the rate and in the manner provided in Section 59-1-402, if a person subject to this section fails to:

(a) pay the tax imposed by this part;

(b) pay the tax on time; or

(c) file a return or statement required by this part.

SB0073S02 compared with SB0073S03

(6) An overpayment of a tax imposed by this part shall accrue interest at the rate and in the manner provided in Section 59-1-402.

(7) The commission shall administer the tax imposed under this chapter based on referrals of covered entities from the division in accordance with Section 78B-3-1004.

Section 12. Section 12 is enacted to read:

59-35-105. Minor Mental Health Restricted Account -- Creation -- Deposits into account -- Distribution.

(1) There is created within the General Fund a restricted account known as the "Minor Mental Health Restricted Account."

(2) The account consists of:

(a) revenue collected from the tax imposed by Section 59-35-103;

(b) appropriations made to the account by the Legislature;

(c) interest and earnings on account money;

(d) donations or grants from public or private entities; and

(e) transfers from the Minor Online Safety Restricted Account as provided in Section 78B-3-1007.

(3) The Division of Finance shall:

(a) deposit 90% of the revenue described in Subsection (2)(a) into the account; and

(b) deposit 10% of the revenue described in Subsection (2)(a) into the Minor Online Safety Restricted Account created in Section 78B-3-1007.

(4) Upon appropriation by the Legislature, money in the account shall be distributed to the Department of Health and Human Services for:

(a) mental health treatment programs for minors affected by material harmful to minors;

(b) educational programs for parents, guardians, educators, and minors on the mental health risks associated with material harmful to minors;

(c) early prevention and intervention programs for minors at risk of mental health harm from material harmful to minors; and

(d) research and public awareness campaigns addressing mental health harm to minors caused by material harmful to minors.

Section 13. Section 78B-3-1001 is amended to read:

- 799 Section 14. Section 78B-3-1002 is amended to read:
- 800 78B-3-1002. Age verification requirement -- Retention of data -- Exceptions.
- 799 (1)
- (a) A commercial entity that knowingly and intentionally publishes or distributes material harmful to minors on the [~~Internet~~] internet from a website that contains a substantial portion of material harmful to minors~~[such material]~~ shall ~~[be held liable if the entity fails to]~~ perform reasonable age verification methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access the material.

SB0073S02 compared with SB0073S03

(b) There is a rebuttable presumption that a website contains a substantial portion of material harmful to minors if the commercial entity:

(i) markets or brands the website as primarily providing material harmful to minors;

(ii) uses a website name, domain name, or subdomain that indicates the website primarily provides material harmful to minors; or

(iii) advertises or promotes material harmful to minors as a primary feature of the website.

(2) A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification shall not retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the material.

(3) ~~[A commercial entity that is found to have violated this section shall be liable to an individual for damages resulting from a minor's accessing the material, including court costs and reasonable attorney fees as ordered by the court.]~~ An individual is considered to be accessing the website from this state if the individual is actually located in the state, regardless of whether the individual is using a virtual private network, proxy server, or other means to disguise or misrepresent the individual's geographic location to make it appear that the individual is accessing a website from a location outside this state.

(4) A commercial entity that operates a website that contains a substantial portion of material harmful to minors may not facilitate or encourage the use of a virtual private network, proxy server, or other means to circumvent age verification requirements, including by providing:

(a) instructions on how to use a virtual private network or proxy server to access the website; or

(b) means for individuals in this state to circumvent geofencing or blocking.

~~[(4) A commercial entity that is found to have knowingly retained identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the individual shall be liable to the individual for damages resulting from retaining the identifying information, including court costs and reasonable attorney fees as ordered by the court.]~~

(5) This section shall not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event and shall not be construed to affect the rights of a news-gathering organization.

(6) No ~~[Internet]~~ internet service provider, affiliate or subsidiary of an ~~[Internet]~~ internet service provider, search engine, or cloud service provider shall be held to have violated the provisions of this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the ~~[Internet]~~ internet, or a facility, system, or network not under that provider's control, including transmission, downloading, storing, or providing access, to the extent that such provider is not responsible for the creation of the content of the communication that constitutes material harmful to minors.

Section 15. Section 78B-3-1003 is amended to read:

78B-3-1003. Liability for publishers and distributors -- Liability of a parent or guardian for repeated offenses by a minor on school grounds.

(1) A commercial entity that is found to have violated Section 78B-3-1002 shall be liable to an individual for damages resulting from a minor's accessing the material, including court costs and reasonable attorney fees as ordered by the court.

(2) A commercial entity that is found to have knowingly retained identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the individual shall be liable to the individual for damages resulting from retaining the identifying information, including court costs and reasonable attorney fees as ordered by the court.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection ~~[(6)]~~ (3)(f), if a person suffers damages from a minor committing the same offense repeatedly on school grounds for an offense in Title 76, Utah Criminal Code, or Title 80, Utah Juvenile Code, the person may bring a cause of action against a parent or guardian with legal custody of the minor to recover costs and damages caused by the repeated offense.

~~[(2)]~~ (b) The parent or guardian is not liable for costs or damages under Subsection ~~[(1)]~~ (3)(a) if the parent or guardian made a reasonable effort to supervise and direct the minor.

~~[(3)]~~ (c) If a parent or guardian is found liable under this section, the court may waive part or all of the parent's or guardian's liability for costs or damages if the court finds:

~~[(a)]~~ (i) good cause; or

~~[(b)]~~ (ii) that the parent or guardian reported the minor's wrongful conduct to law enforcement after the parent or guardian knew of the minor's wrongful conduct.

~~[(4)]~~ (d) A report is not required under Subsection ~~[(3)(b)(ii)]~~ (3)(c)(ii) from a parent or guardian if the minor was arrested or apprehended by law enforcement.

~~[(5)]~~ (e) An adjudication or a conviction of a minor for a repeated offense under Title 76, Utah Criminal Code, or Title 80, Utah Juvenile Code, is not required for a civil action to be brought under this section.

~~[(6)]~~ (f) A person may not bring a cause of action against the state, an agency of the state, or a contracted provider of an agency of the state, under this ~~[section]~~ Subsection (3).
