181 (c)

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c)(ii), if the division provides a service through a private contract, the division shall post the name of the service provider on the division's website.

184 (ii) Subsection (3)(c)(i) does not apply to a foster parent placement.

185 (4)

(a) The division may:

186 (i) receive gifts, grants, devises, and donations;

187 (ii) encourage merchants and service providers to:

188 (A) donate goods or services; or

189 (B) provide goods or services at a nominal price or below cost;

190 (iii) distribute goods to applicants or consumers of division services free or for a nominal charge and tax free; and

192 (iv) appeal to the public for funds to meet needs of applicants or consumers of division services that are not otherwise provided by law, including Sub-for-Santa programs, recreational programs for minors, and requests for household appliances and home repairs.

196 (b) If requested by the donor and subject to state and federal law, the division shall use a gift, grant, devise, donation, or proceeds from the gift, grant, devise, or donation for the purpose requested by the donor.

199 (5)

(a) In carrying out the requirements of Subsection (2)(f), the division shall:

200 (i) cooperate with the juvenile courts, the Division of Juvenile Justice and Youth Services, and with all public and private licensed child welfare agencies and institutions to develop and administer a broad range of services and support;

203 (ii) take the initiative in all matters involving the protection of abused or neglected children, if adequate provisions have not been made or are not likely to be made; and 206 (iii) make expenditures necessary for the care and protection of the children described in Subsection (5)(a)(ii), within the division's budget.

208 (b) If an individual is referred to a local substance abuse authority or other private or public resource for court-ordered drug screening under Subsection (2)(n), the court shall order the individual to pay all costs of the tests unless:

SB0115S01 compared with SB0115S02

- (i) the cost of the drug screening is specifically funded or provided for by other federal or state programs;
- 213 (ii) the individual is a participant in a drug court; or
- 214 (iii) the court finds that the individual is an indigent individual.
- 215 (6) Except to the extent provided by rules made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the division is not required to investigate domestic violence in the presence of a child, as described in Section 76-5-114.
- 218 (7)
- (a) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(b), the division may not:
- 219 (i) require a parent who has a child in the custody of the division to pay for some or all of the cost of any drug testing the parent is required to undergo; or
- 221 (ii) refer an individual who is receiving services from the division for drug testing by means of a hair, fingernail, or saliva test that is administered to detect the presence of drugs.
- 224 (b) Notwithstanding Subsection (7)(a)(ii), the division may refer an individual who is receiving services from the division for drug testing by means of a saliva test if:
- 226 (i) the individual consents to drug testing by means of a saliva test; or
- 227 (ii) the court, based on a finding that a saliva test is necessary in the circumstances, orders the individual to complete drug testing by means of a saliva test.
- 229 (8)
- (a) The division may notify a local county or municipal animal control authority if the division:
- 231 (i) supports a finding of child abuse or neglect; and
- 232 (ii) is aware of an animal in the same home as the child.
- 233 (b) The division may only release private and protected information and records in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.
- 236 ~~{Section 5. Section 80-2-701 is amended to read: }~~
- 237 80-2-701. Division preremoval investigation -- Supported or unsupported reports -- Convening of child protection team -- Coordination with law enforcement -- Consultation with child protection team before close of investigation.
- 240 (1)

SB0115S01 compared with SB0115S02

- (a) The division shall conduct a thorough preremoval investigation upon receiving a report under Section 80-2-602 or 80-2-603 if there is reasonable cause to suspect that a situation of abuse, neglect, or the circumstances described in Subsection 80-2-603(2) exist.
- 244 (b) The primary purpose of the preremoval investigation described in Subsection (1)(a) shall be protection of the child.
- 246 (2) The preremoval investigation described in Subsection (1)(a) shall meet the reasonable professional standards described in Section 80-2-702.
- 248 (3) The division shall make a written report of the division's preremoval investigation under Subsection (1)(a) that includes a determination regarding whether the alleged abuse or neglect in the report described in Subsection (1)(a) is supported, unsupported, or without merit.
- 252 (4) The division:
- 253 (a) shall use an interdisciplinary approach if appropriate in dealing with a report made under Section 80-2-602, 80-2-603, or 80-2-604;
- 255 (b) in accordance with Section 80-2-706, shall convene a child protection team to assist the division in the division's protective, diagnostic, assessment, treatment, and coordination services; and
- 258 (c) may include a member of the child protection team in the division's protective, diagnostic, assessment, treatment, or coordination services.
- 260 (5) If a report of neglect is based on or includes an allegation of educational neglect, the division shall immediately consult with school authorities to verify the child's status in accordance with Sections 53G-6-201 through 53G-6-206.
- 263 (6) Upon completion of the initial preremoval investigation under this section, the division shall give notice of the completion to the person who made the initial report described in Subsection (1)(a).
- 266 (7) A division child welfare caseworker:
- 267 (a) has authority to:
- 268 (i) enter upon public or private premises, using appropriate legal processes; and
- 269 (ii) ~~[to]~~investigate a report of alleged child abuse or neglect, upon notice to a parent of the parent's rights under the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 5106, or any successor thereof; and
- 272 (b) may take a child into protective custody in accordance with Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child.
- 274

SB0115S01 compared with SB0115S02

(8) In a case, if law enforcement has investigated or is conducting an investigation of alleged abuse or neglect of a child, the division:

(a) shall coordinate with law enforcement to ensure that there is an adequate safety plan to protect the child from further abuse or neglect; and

(b) is not required to duplicate an aspect of the investigation that, in the division's determination, has been satisfactorily completed by law enforcement.

(9) In a mutual case in which a child protection team is involved in the investigation of alleged abuse or neglect of a child, the division shall consult with the child protection team before closing the case.

(10) A division child welfare caseworker that is investigating alleged abuse or neglect of a child may report a concern of animal abuse or neglect to a local animal control authority or law enforcement agency.
