310 formal probation, and intake probation; and
311 (k) for each minor charged in the juvenile court with a firearm-related offense:
312 (i) the minor's age at the time the offense was committed or allegedly committed;
313 (ii) the minor's zip code at the time that the offense was referred to the juvenile court;
314 (iii) whether the minor is a restricted person under Subsection 76-11-302(4) or 315 76-11-303(4);
316 (iv) the type of offense for which the minor is charged;
317 (v) the outcome of the minor's case in juvenile court, including whether the minor
318 was bound over to the district court or adjudicated by the juvenile court; and
319 (vi) if a disposition was entered by the juvenile court, whether the disposition
320 resulted in secure care, community-based placement, formal probation, or intake
321 probation.

322 (3) The State Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall track the disposition of a
323 case resulting from a firearm-related offense committed, or allegedly committed, by a
324 minor when the minor is found in possession of a firearm while school is in session or 325 during a school-sponsored activity.

326 (4) In collaboration with the Administrative Office of the Courts, the division, and other
327 agencies, the State Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall collect data for 328 the preceding calendar year on:
329 (a) the length of time that minors spend in the juvenile justice system, including the total
330 amount of time minors spend under juvenile court jurisdiction, on community
331 supervision, and in each out-of-home placement;
332 (b) [reidivism of minors who are diverted to a nonjudicial adjustment and minors for 333 whom dispositions are ordered by the juvenile court] juvenile recidivism, including 334 tracking minors into the adult corrections system;

335 (c) school-based recidivism;
336 (d) school-based referrals;
337 [(e)] (e) changes in aggregate risk levels from the time minors receive services, are under 338 supervision, and are in out-of-home placement; and 339 [(f)] (f) dosages of programming.

340 (5) On and before October 1 of each year, the State Commission on Criminal and Juvenile 341 Justice shall prepare and submit a written report to the Judiciary Interim Committee and 342 the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Interim Committee that includes:
343 (a) data collected by the State Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice under this 344 section;
345 (b) data collected by the State Board of Education under Section 53E-3-516; and
346 (c) recommendations for legislative action with respect to the data described in this
347 Subsection (5).

348 (6) After submitting the written report described in Subsection (5), the State Commission
349 on Criminal and Juvenile Justice may supplement the report at a later time with updated
350 data and information the State Board of Education collects under Section 53E-3-516.
351 (7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the disclosure of information or 352 data that is classified as controlled, private, or protected under Title 63G, Chapter 2,
353 Government Records Access and Management Act.

354 Section 6. Section 80-6-507 is amended to read:

355 80-6-507 . Commitment of a minor by a district court -- Provisional housing of a
356 minor in a secure care facility.

357 (1) When sentencing a minor, the district court shall order the minor to make restitution in 358 accordance with Title 77, Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act.

359 [(f)] (2)(a) If the district court determines that probation is not appropriate and 360 commitment to prison is an appropriate sentence when sentencing a minor:

361 (i) the district court shall order the minor committed to prison; and 362 (ii) except as provided in Subsection (3) or (7), the minor shall be provisionally 363 housed in a secure care facility[-] until the minor reaches 25 years old, unless 364 released earlier from incarceration by the Board of Pardons and Parole.

365 (b) [Subsection (1)] This Subsection (2) applies to any minor being provisionally housed
366 in a secure care facility as described in Subsection [(f)(a)] (2)(a) on or after May 4, 367 2022.

368 [(e) ~~The district court shall, as a part of sentencing, order the minor to make restitution~~

in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act.]

(3) The district court may order a minor to be committed to the physical custody of the Department of Corrections and housed in a correctional facility rather than secure care facility under Subsection (2)(a)(ii) if:

- (a) the minor is convicted of aggravated murder under Section 76-5-202;
- (b) the minor was 17 years old at the time that the aggravated murder occurred; and
- (c) the minor is 18 years old or older at the time of sentencing.

[(2)(a) The division shall adopt procedures by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, regarding the transfer of a minor provisionally housed in a secure care facility under Subsection (1) to the physical custody of the Department of Corrections.]

[b) If, in accordance with the rules adopted under Subsection (2)(a), the division determines that housing the minor in a secure care facility presents an unreasonable risk to others or that it is not in the best interest of the minor, the division shall transfer the physical custody of the minor to the Department of Corrections.]

[~~(3)~~] ~~(4)~~(a) When a minor is committed to prison but provisionally housed in a secure care facility [-]under this section, the district court and the division shall immediately notify the Board of Pardons and Parole so that the minor may be scheduled for a hearing according to board procedures.

(b) If a minor who is provisionally housed in a secure care facility [-]under this section has not been paroled or otherwise released from incarceration by the time the minor reaches 25 years old, the division shall as soon as reasonably possible, but not later than when the minor reaches 25 years and 6 months old, transfer the minor to the physical custody of the Department of Corrections.

[44] (5) Upon the commitment of a minor to the custody of the division or the Department of Corrections under this section, the Board of Pardons and Parole has authority over the minor for purposes of parole, pardon, commutation, termination of sentence, remission of restitution, fines or forfeitures, and all other purposes authorized by law.

[~~(5)~~] (6) The authority[-] shall:

- (a) hold hearings, receive reports, or otherwise keep informed of the progress of a minor in the custody of the division under this section; and
- (b) forward to the Board of Pardons and Parole any information or recommendations concerning the minor.

(7) Upon a motion by a prosecuting attorney, the Board of Pardons and Parole may:

403 (a) review the status of a minor who is provisionally housed in a secure care facility as 404 described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii); and 405 (b) order that the minor be committed to the physical custody of the Department of 406 Corrections and housed in a correctional facility if:
407 (i) the minor meets the requirements described in Subsections (3)(a) through (c); and 408 (ii) the Board of Pardons and Parole finds that the commitment and transfer is 409 warranted.

410 (8)(a) The division shall adopt procedures by rule, in accordance with Title 63G,
411 Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, regarding the transfer of a minor
412 provisionally housed in a secure care facility as described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii).
413 (b) The division shall transfer the physical custody of a minor to the Department of 414 Corrections if, in accordance with the rules adopted under Subsection (8)(a), the 415 division determines that housing a minor in a secure care facility:
416 (i) presents an unreasonable risk to others; or
417 (ii) it is not in the best interest of the minor.

418 [(6)] (9) Commitment of a minor under this section is a prison commitment for all
419 sentencing purposes.

420 Section 7. Section 80-6-704 is amended to read:

421 80-6-704 . Detention or alternative to detention -- Limitations.

422 (1)(a) The juvenile court may order a minor to detention, or an alternative to detention,
423 if the minor is adjudicated for:
424 (i) an offense under Section 80-6-701; or
425 (ii) contempt of court under Section 78A-6-353.
426 (b) Except as provided in Subsection 78A-6-353(4), and subject to the juvenile court
427 retaining continuing jurisdiction over a minor's case, the juvenile court may order a
428 minor to detention, or an alternative to detention, under Subsection (1)(a) for a period
429 not to exceed 30 cumulative days for an adjudication.
430 (c) If a minor is held in detention before an adjudication, the time spent in detention
431 before the adjudication shall be credited toward the 30 cumulative days eligible as a
432 disposition under Subsection (1)(b).
433 (d) If a minor spent more than 30 days in detention before a disposition, the juvenile 434 court may not order the minor to detention under this section.
435 (2) An order for detention under Subsection (1) may not be suspended upon conditions
436 ordered by the juvenile court.

437 (3) A juvenile court may not order a minor to detention for:

438 (a) contempt of court, except to the extent permitted under Section 78A-6-353;

439 (b) a violation of probation;

440 (c) failure to pay a fine, fee, restitution, or other financial obligation;

441 (d) unfinished compensatory or community service hours;

442 (e) an infraction; or

443 (f) a status offense.

444 ~~(4) A juvenile court may not order a minor be placed in a correctional facility that is intended to hold adults accused or convicted of offenses as an alternative to detention under Subsection (1).]~~

445 ~~(5) (4)(a) If a minor is held in detention under this section, the minor is eligible to receive credit for good behavior against the period of detention.~~

446 (b) The rate of credit is one day of credit for good behavior for every three days spent in detention.

447 ~~(6) (5)(a) A minor may not be held in secure detention following a disposition by the juvenile court:~~

448 (i) under Chapter 3, Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency Proceedings; or

449 (ii) except as provided in Subsection ~~(6)(b)~~ (5)(b), for a community-based program.

450 (b) If a minor is awaiting placement by the division under Section 80-6-703, a minor may not be held in secure detention for longer than 72 hours, excluding weekends and holidays.

451 (c) The period of detention under Subsection ~~(6)(b)~~ (5)(b) may be extended by the juvenile court for a cumulative total of seven calendar days if:

452 (i) the division, or another agency responsible for placement, files a written petition with the juvenile court requesting the extension and setting forth good cause; and

453 (ii) the juvenile court enters a written finding that it is in the best interests of both the minor and the community to extend the period of detention.

454 (d) The juvenile court may extend the period of detention beyond the seven calendar days if the juvenile court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

455 (i) the division, or another agency responsible for placement, does not have space for the minor; and

456 (ii) the safety of the minor and community requires an extension of the period of detention.

457 (e) The division, or the agency with custody of the minor, shall report to the juvenile court every 48 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, regarding whether the division, or another agency responsible for placement, has space for the minor.

(f) The division, or agency, requesting an extension shall promptly notify the detention facility that a written petition has been filed.

(g) The juvenile court shall promptly notify the detention facility regarding the juvenile court's initial disposition and any ruling on a petition for an extension, whether granted or denied.

Section 8. Effective Date.
