AMENDS:

29 76-5b-201, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2025, Chapters 173, 223 and 320

30 78B-3-1001, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2023, Chapter 262

31 ENACTS:

32 78B-3-1004, Utah Code Annotated 1953

34 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

35 Section 1. Section 76-5b-201 is amended to read:

36 76-5b-201 . Sexual exploitation of a minor -- Offenses.

37 (1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

38 (2) An actor commits sexual exploitation of a minor when the actor knowingly possesses,
39 views, accesses with the intent to view, or maintains access with the intent to view, child
40 sexual abuse material.

41 (3)(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.

42 (b) It is a separate offense under this section:

43 (i) for each minor depicted in the child sexual abuse material; and
44 (ii) for each time the same minor is depicted in different child sexual abuse material.

45 (4) For a charge of violating this section, it is an affirmative defense that:

46 (a) the defendant:

47 (i) did not solicit the child sexual abuse material from the minor depicted in the child
48 sexual abuse material;
49 (ii) is not more than two years older than the minor depicted in the child sexual abuse
50 material; and
51 (iii) upon request of a law enforcement agent or the minor depicted in the child
52 sexual abuse material, removes from an electronic device or destroys the child
53 sexual abuse material and all copies of the child sexual abuse material in the 54 defendant's possession; and

55 (b) the child sexual abuse material does not depict an offense under Chapter 5, Part 4,
56 Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, 76-5-418, 76-5-419, or 76-5-420.

57 (5) In proving a violation of this section in relation to an identifiable minor, proof of the 58 actual identity of the identifiable minor is not required.

59 (6) The following are not criminally or civilly liable under this section when acting in good
60 faith compliance with Section 77-4-201 or 78B-3-1004:

61 (a) an entity or an employee, director, officer, or agent of an entity when acting within 62 the scope of employment, for the good faith performance of:

- (i) reporting or data preservation duties required under federal or state law; or
- (ii) implementing a policy of attempting to prevent the presence of child sexual abuse material on tangible or intangible property, or of detecting and reporting the presence of child sexual abuse material on the property;
- (b) a law enforcement officer, a civilian employee of a law enforcement agency, or an independent contractor who is contracted with a law enforcement agency, acting within the scope of a criminal investigation;
- (c) an employee of a court who may be required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of and within the scope of the employee's employment;
- (d) a juror who may be required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of the individual's service as a juror;
- (e) an attorney or agent or employee of an attorney who is required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of a judicial process and while acting within the scope of employment or agency relationship;
- (f) an employee of the Department of Health and Human Services who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the employee's employment;
- (g) an employee, independent contractor, or designated interviewer of a Children's Justice Center, who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the employee's, independent contractor's, or designated interviewer's scope of employment or assignment; or
- (h) an attorney who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the attorney's responsibility to represent the Department of Health and Human Services, including the divisions and offices within the Department of Health and Human Services.

172 obscenity or child sexual abuse material on the internet within the state, or possesses,
173 purchases, or distributes a child sex doll in the state if:

174 (a) the person is subject to personal jurisdiction in this state;

175 (b)(i) the obscenity, child sexual abuse material, or child sex doll depicts the 176 individual or the individual's likeness;

177 (ii) the person displays the obscenity or child sexual abuse material in a manner that
178 makes the obscenity or child sexual abuse material accessible to the individual; or

179 (iii) the person possesses, purchases, or distributes a child sex doll in the state; and

180 (c)(i) the individual bringing the action is a resident of this state; or

181 (ii) the conduct described in Subsection (2)(b) occurs in this state.

182 (3) If an individual brings an action against a person in accordance with Subsection (2), a
183 court may award the individual:

184 (a) injunctive relief;

185 (b) nominal damages;

186 (c) actual damages;

187 (d) punitive damages; and

188 (e) reasonable attorney fees and court costs.

189 (4)(a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), an individual may not bring an action
190 under this section against an online intermediary for providing access to or 191 connection to or from a website or other content on the internet that contains 192 obscenity or child sexual abuse material, if the online intermediary is not responsible,
193 in whole or in part, for the creation or development of the obscenity or child sexual 194 abuse material, including through the use of an algorithm.

195 (b) Subject to Subsection (4)(c), an individual may bring a cause of action against an
196 online intermediary for a violation of Subsection (2) if the online intermediary
197 provides access to or connection to content on the internet that contains obscenity or 198 child sexual abuse material.

199 (c) An individual may not bring a cause of action against an online intermediary under 200 Subsection (4)(b) if:
201 (i) the online intermediary states in the online intermediary's terms of service that a
202 person may not use the online intermediary's service to provide access to 203 obscenity or child sexual abuse material; and 204 (ii) the online intermediary demonstrates that the online intermediary takes voluntary,
205 good faith action to prevent the obscenity or child sexual abuse material from 206 appearing in the content to which the online intermediary provides access.
207 (5) An individual with a claim under this section who satisfies the applicable standards for
208 joinder or class action may combine the individual's claim with one or more individuals
209 with a claim under this section into one action.
210 (6) An individual may bring an action under this section regardless of whether the action
211 that gives rise to a cause of action under Subsection (2) has resulted in a criminal
212 conviction.

213 Section 4. Effective Date.

214 This bill takes effect on May 6, 2026.
