Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah.

WHEREAS, the state's commitment to educational excellence depends on thoughtful policy-making that considers the full impact of legislation on all levels of the education system;

WHEREAS, local education agencies serve as the primary implementers of state education policy and are directly affected by legislative decisions;

WHEREAS, the Legislature values partnerships with education stakeholders, including the state board, local school boards, charter governing boards, superintendents, business

31 administrators, charter directors, and education associations in creating effective education
32 policy;

33 WHEREAS, legislation affecting education often has varying fiscal impacts across different
34 local education agencies based on factors such as enrollment size, geographic location, student
35 demographics, and existing infrastructure;

36 WHEREAS, current fiscal note processes primarily focus on state-level fiscal impacts and 37 may not fully capture the diverse effects of legislation on individual local education agencies;

38 WHEREAS, local education agency business administrators and financial officers possess
39 specialized knowledge about operational costs, funding mechanisms, and implementation
40 challenges that is essential for comprehensive fiscal analysis;

41 WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes that informed decision-making requires
42 understanding both state-level and local-level fiscal implications of proposed legislation;

43 WHEREAS, timely access to local education agency fiscal impact information during the 44 legislative session would enhance the Legislature's ability to make well-informed policy
45 decisions;

46 WHEREAS, collaborative processes between state and local education entities strengthen 47 the education system and ensure effective use of public resources;

48 WHEREAS, transparency in fiscal impact analysis supports public accountability and 49 builds trust between state government and local communities;

50 WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes that multiple mechanisms could enhance local 51 education agency fiscal impact analysis, including the state board utilizing the local impact
52 section of fiscal note submissions to provide timely local education agency fiscal impact
53 assessments;

54 WHEREAS, establishing a rotating committee of local education agency business 55 administrators to review proposed legislation during the legislative session could provide 56 valuable fiscal impact feedback from practitioners with direct implementation experience;

57 WHEREAS, the state board could create an accessible online tracking system or document
58 that would provide real-time local education agency fiscal impact information for legislators,
59 stakeholders, and the public;

60 WHEREAS, developing standardized templates and methodologies for local education
61 agency fiscal impact analysis would ensure consistency and accuracy across different local 62 education agencies;

63 WHEREAS, establishing rapid response protocols for high-priority legislation could help
64 identify significant impacts on local education agencies before final legislative action;

65 WHEREAS, creating feedback mechanisms that allow local education agencies to report
66 actual versus projected fiscal impacts of enacted legislation would improve future impact
67 analysis accuracy;

68 WHEREAS, the state board has established relationships with key stakeholder
69 organizations, including the Joint Leadership Council, the Utah School Boards Association,
70 the Utah Association of School Business Officials, the Utah School Superintendents
71 Association, and charter school associations;

72 WHEREAS, local education agencies employ subject matter experts in education finance,
73 including business administrators, financial officers, and budget analysts, who possess
74 essential knowledge for accurate fiscal impact assessments;

75 WHEREAS, training and resources would help local education agencies participate
76 effectively in fiscal impact analysis processes and standardize assessment methodologies
77 across districts and charter schools;

78 WHEREAS, regular updates to legislative committees on implementation and effectiveness 79 would ensure accountability and continuous improvement of local education agency fiscal 80 impact analysis systems; and

81 WHEREAS, effective fiscal impact analysis requires ongoing collaboration and 82 communication between state and local education entities supported by appropriate legislative 83 processes and resources:

84 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature supports the development of 85 comprehensive systems or processes to analyze and communicate the fiscal impacts of 86 legislation on local education agencies.

87 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature supports the state board in working 88 collaboratively with local education agencies and stakeholder organizations to establish 89 processes for providing local education agency-level fiscal impact information during 90 legislative sessions.

91 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature calls on the state board to develop and 92 implement mechanisms for gathering and disseminating local education agency fiscal impact 93 information as outlined in the whereas clauses of this resolution.
