Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof:

30 Section 1. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution, Article VI, Section 2, to read:

31 Article VI, Section 2 . [Time and location of budget and general sessions --

32 Location of sessions convened by the Governor or Legislature -- Sessions convened by the 33 Legislature.]

34 (1)(a) [~~Annual~~] Budget and general sessions of the Legislature shall be held at the seat of 35 government[~~and shall begin on the day in January designated by statute~~].

36 (b) An annual budget session of the Legislature, to consider only the budget and 37 appropriations, and if approved by two-thirds of the members of each house, bills
38 creating policy, shall begin on the day in February designated by statute.

39 (c)(i) A general session of the Legislature shall begin on the day in May designated 40 by statute.

41 (ii) A general session of the Legislature shall begin on the day in September
42 designated by statute.

43 (2)(a) A session convened by the Governor under Article VII, Section 6 and a session
44 convened by the Legislature under Subsection (3) shall be held at the seat of 45 government, unless convening at the seat of government is not feasible due to 46 epidemic, natural or human-caused disaster, enemy attack, or other public catastrophe.

47 (b) A session convened by the Governor under Article VII, Section 6, or a session
48 convened by the Legislature under Subsection (3) may address any issue that the 49 Legislature may consider at the annual budget session or a general session.

50 (3)(a) The President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives shall by 51 joint proclamation convene the Legislature into session if a poll conducted by the 52 President and Speaker of their respective houses indicates that two-thirds of all
53 members elected to each house are in favor of convening the Legislature into session
54 because in their opinion a persistent fiscal crisis, war, natural disaster, or emergency
55 in the affairs of the State necessitates convening the Legislature into session.

56 (b) The joint proclamation issued by the President and Speaker shall specify the business
57 for which the Legislature is to be convened, and the Legislature may not transact any 58 business other than that specified in the joint proclamation, except that the 59 Legislature may provide for the expenses of the session and other matters incidental
60 to the session.

61 (c) The Legislature may not be convened into session under this Subsection (3) during 62 the 30 calendar days immediately following the adjournment sine die of [~~an annual~~] a
63 budget or a general session of the Legislature.

64 (d) In a session convened under this Subsection (3), the cumulative amount of 65 appropriations that the Legislature makes may not exceed an amount equal to 1% of 66 the total amount appropriated by the Legislature for the immediately preceding 67 completed fiscal year.

68 (e) Nothing in this Subsection (3) affects the Governor's authority to convene the 69 Legislature under Article VII, Section 6.

70 Section 2. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution, Article VI, Section 16, to read:

71 Article VI, Section 16 . [Duration of sessions.]

72 Except in cases of impeachment:

73 (1) no ~~[annual]~~ budget or general session of the Legislature may exceed ~~[45]~~ 15 calendar
 74 days, excluding state holidays and federal holidays;

75 (2) no session of the Legislature convened by the Governor under Article VII, Section 6
 76 may exceed 30 calendar days; and

77 (3) no session of the Legislature convened by the Legislature under Article VI, Section 2,
 78 Subsection (3) may exceed 10 calendar days.

79 Section 3. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution, Article VI, Section 17, to read:

80 Article VI, Section 17 . [Impeachment by House.]

81 (1) The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment, but in order to 82 impeach, two-thirds of all the members elected must vote therefor.

83 (2) If not already convened in ~~[an annual]~~ a general session, the House of Representatives
 84 may convene for the purpose of impeachment if a poll of members conducted by the 85 Speaker of the House indicates that two-thirds of the members of the House of 86 Representatives are in favor of convening.

87 Section 4. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution, Article VI, Section 18, to read:

88 Article VI, Section 18 . [Trial of impeachment by Senate.]

89 (1) All impeachments shall be tried by the Senate, and senators, when sitting for that 90 purpose, shall take oath or make affirmation to do justice according to the law and the 91 evidence.

92 (2) Upon an impeachment by the House of Representatives, the Senate shall, if not already 93 convened in ~~[an annual]~~ a general session, convene for the purpose of trying the 94 impeachment.

95 (3) When the Governor is on trial, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall preside.

96 (4) No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the senators
 97 elected.

98 Section 5. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution, Article VI, Section 31, to read:

99 Article VI, Section 31 . [Additional compensation of legislators.]

100 For attendance at meetings of interim committees established by law to function
101 between [~~legislative~~] budget, general, and special sessions, members of the Legislature shall 102 receive additional per diem compensation and mileage at a rate not to exceed that provided in 103 this Constitution for [~~regular legislative-~~]sessions.

104 Section 6. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution, Article VII, Section 5, to read:

105 Article VII, Section 5 . [Executive power vested in Governor -- Duties -- Legal 106 counsel.]

107 (1) The executive power of the state shall be vested in the Governor who shall see that the 108 laws are faithfully executed.

109 (2) The Governor shall transact all executive business with the officers of the government,
110 civil and military, and may require information in writing from the officers of the 111 Executive Department, and from the officers and managers of state institutions upon any 112 subject relating to the condition, management, and expenses of their respective offices
113 and institutions. The Governor may at any time when the Legislature is not in session, if 114 deemed necessary, appoint a committee to investigate and report to the Governor upon 115 the condition of any executive office or state institution.

116 (3) The Governor shall communicate by message the condition of the state to the
117 Legislature at [~~every annual general~~] the budget session and recommend such measures
118 as may be deemed expedient.

119 (4) The Governor may appoint legal counsel to advise the Governor.

120 Section 7. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution, Article VII, Section 12, to read:

121 Article VII, Section 12 . [Board of Pardons and Parole -- Appointment -- Powers
122 and procedures -- Governor's powers and duties -- Legislature's powers.]

123 (1) There is created a Board of Pardons and Parole. The Governor shall appoint the 124 members of the board with the consent of the Senate. The terms of office shall be as 125 provided by statute.

126 (2)(a) The Board of Pardons and Parole, by majority vote and upon other conditions as 127 provided by statute, may grant parole, remit fines, forfeitures, and restitution orders, 128 commute punishments, and grant pardons after convictions, in all cases except 129 treason and impeachments, subject to regulations as provided by statute.

130 (b) A fine, forfeiture, or restitution order may not be remitted and a commutation,
131 parole, or pardon may not be granted except after a full hearing before the board, in

132 open session, and after previous notice of the time and place of the hearing has been 133 given.

134 (c) The proceedings and decisions of the board, the reasons therefor in each case, and the 135 dissent of any member who may disagree shall be recorded and filed as provided by 136 statute with all papers used upon the hearing.

137 (3)(a) The Governor may grant respites or reprieves in all cases of convictions for 138 offenses against the state except treason or conviction on impeachment. These 139 respites or reprieves may not extend beyond the next session of the board. At that 140 session, the board shall continue or determine the respite or reprieve, commute the 141 punishment, or pardon the offense as [-]provided in this section.

142 (b) In case of conviction for treason, the Governor may suspend execution of the 143 sentence until the case is reported to the Legislature at its next [~~annual~~]general
 144 session, when the Legislature shall pardon or commute the sentence, or direct its 145 execution. If the Legislature takes no action on the case before adjournment of that 146 session, the sentence shall be executed.

147 Section 8. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution, Article IX, Section 1, to read:

148 Article IX, Section 1 . [Dividing the state into districts.]

149 No later than the [~~annual-general~~] budget session next following the Legislature's receipt
 150 of the results of an enumeration made by the authority of the United States, the Legislature
 151 shall divide the state into congressional, legislative, and other districts accordingly.

152 Section 9. Submittal to voters.

153 The lieutenant governor is directed to submit this proposed amendment to the voters of 154 the state at the next regular general election in the manner provided by law.

155 Section 10. Contingent effective date.

156 If the amendment proposed by this joint resolution is approved by a majority of those 157 voting on it at the next regular general election, the amendment shall take effect on January 1, 158 2028.
