144 76-5c-102 . Evidence related to a material's or performance's literary, artistic, 145 political, or scientific value.

146 (1) In a prosecution under this chapter, where circumstances of production, presentation, 147 sale, dissemination, distribution, exhibition, or publicity indicate that the matter is being 148 commercially exploited by the actor for the sake of the matter's prurient appeal, this 149 evidence is probative with respect to the nature of the matter and can justify the 150 conclusion that, in the context in which the matter is used, the matter has no serious 151 literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

152 (2) In a prosecution under this chapter neither the prosecution or the defense is required to 153 introduce expert witness testimony to testify as to whether a material or performance is

 155 abuse material, or as to any element of the definition of pornographic or obscene animal 156 abuse material, including contemporary community standards.

 162 animal abuse material, pornographic [materials] material, or [materials] material 163 harmful to minors by a county, city, or other political subdivision.

164 (b) Without limitation, a political subdivision may further regulate obscene animal abuse

 166 by ordinances relating to:

- 167 (i) zoning;
 168 (ii) licensing;

 170 (iv) a specific type of business such as adult bookstores or drive-in movies; or

172 (2) This chapter does not preclude the application of other laws of this state to obscene
 173 animal abuse material, pornographic [~~materials~~] material, or [~~materials~~] material harmful
 174 to minors and, without limitation, this chapter is not in derogation of Subsection
 175 76-9-1301(2) and Section 76-9-1306.

176 (3)(a) The commission of a crime under this chapter offends public decency under 177 Subsection 76-9-1301(2).

178 (b) It is the intent of this chapter to give the broadest meaning permissible under the 180 decency" in Subsection 76-9-1301(2).

181 Section 4. Section 76-5c-104 is amended to read:

 184 authority, and jurisdiction, upon application by any county attorney or city attorney 185 within the county attorney's or city attorney's respective jurisdictions or the attorney 186 general, to issue any and all proper restraining orders, preliminary and permanent 187 injunctions, and any other writs and processes appropriate to carry out and enforce 188 the provisions of this chapter.

189 (b) No restraining order or injunction, however, shall issue except upon notice to the 190 person sought to be enjoined.

191 (c) The person sought to be enjoined is entitled to a trial of the issues commencing 192 within three days after the day on which the answer to the complaint is filed and a 193 decision by the court is required to be rendered within two days after the conclusion 194 of the trial.

195 (d) If a final order or judgment of injunction is entered against the person sought to be 196 enjoined, this final order or judgment shall contain a provision directing the person to 197 surrender to the sheriff of the county in which the action was brought any 198 pornographic material in the person's possession which is subject to the injunction.

199 (e) The sheriff receiving the material described in Subsection (1)(d) shall be directed to 200 seize and destroy the material.

201 (2) Any person not qualified to do business in the state who sends or brings any obscene 202 animal abuse material or pornographic material into the state with the intent to distribute 203 or exhibit the obscene animal abuse material or pornographic material to others in this 204 state consents that the person may be sued in any proceedings commenced under this 205 section.

206 Section 5. Section 76-5c-106 is amended to read:

207 76-5c-106 . Corporate defendants -- Summons -- Subpoena duces tecum.

208 (1)(a) The attendance in court by a corporation for purposes of commencing or 209 prosecuting a criminal action against the corporation under this chapter may be 210 accomplished by the issuance and service of a summons issued by a magistrate if the 211 magistrate finds probable cause that material in the possession of the corporation is 212 obscene animal abuse material, pornographic, or harmful to minors, which finding 213 shall be upon affidavit describing with specificity the material alleged to be obscene 214 animal abuse material, pornographic, or harmful to minors or by another manner or 215 means the magistrate finds necessary.

216 (b) Where practical, the material alleged to be obscene animal abuse material, 217 pornographic, or harmful to minors shall be attached to the affidavit described in 218 Subsection (1)(a) to provide the magistrate with the opportunity to examine the 219 material.

220 (c) The summons must be served upon the corporation by delivery of the summons to an 221 officer, director, managing or general agent, or cashier, or assistant cashier of the 222 corporation.

223 (2) The production of material alleged to be obscene animal abuse material, pornographic, 224 or harmful to minors in any proceedings under this chapter against a corporation may be 225 compelled by the issuance and service of a subpoena duces tecum.

226 (3) This section does not prohibit or limit the use of a subpoena duces tecum in proceedings 227 against individuals under this chapter.

231 cumulative.

232 (1)(a) An affidavit for a search warrant shall be filed with a magistrate describing with

- 233 specificity the material sought to be seized.
- 234 (b) Where practical, the material alleged to be obscene animal abuse material, 235 pornographic, or harmful to minors shall be attached to the affidavit for a search
236 warrant described in Subsection (1)(a) to provide the magistrate with the opportunity 237 to examine the material.
- 238 (2)(a) Upon the filing of an affidavit for a search warrant under Subsection (1), the 239 magistrate shall determine, by examination of the material sought to be seized if 240 attached, by examination of the affidavit describing the material, or by another 241 manner or means that the magistrate finds necessary, whether probable cause exists 242 to believe that the material is obscene animal abuse material, pornographic, or 243 harmful to minors and whether probable cause exists for the immediate issuance of a 244 search warrant.
- 245 (b) Upon making the determination that probable cause exists under Subsection (2)(a), 246 the magistrate shall issue a search warrant ordering the seizure of the material
247 described in the affidavit for a search warrant according to the provisions of the Utah
248 Rules of Criminal Procedure.
- 249 (3)(a) If a search warrant is issued under Subsection (2) and the material alleged to be 250 obscene animal abuse material, pornographic, or harmful to minors is seized under 251 the provisions of this section, any person claiming to be in possession of this material 252 or claiming ownership of the material at the time of the material's seizure may file a 253 notice in writing with the magistrate within 10 days after the day on which the 254 material was seized, to assert that the material is not obscene animal abuse material, 255 pornographic, or harmful to minors.
- 256 (b) The magistrate shall set a hearing within seven days after the filing of the notice
257 described in Subsection (3)(a), or at another time with the consent of the claimant, at 258 which evidence may be presented regarding whether there is probable cause to 259 believe that the material seized is obscene animal abuse material, pornographic, or 260 harmful to minors.
- 261 (c)(i) At the conclusion of the hearing described in Subsection (3)(b), the magistrate 262 shall make a further determination of whether probable cause exists to believe that 263 the material is obscene animal abuse material, pornographic, or harmful to minors.
- 264 (ii) The magistrate's determination described in Subsection (3)(c)(i) shall be rendered 265 by the court within two days after the day on which the hearing described in 266 Subsection (3)(b) concludes.

267 (d) If at the hearing described in Subsection (3)(b) the magistrate finds that no probable 268 cause exists to believe that the material is obscene animal abuse material, 269 pornographic, or harmful to minors, the material shall be returned to the person from 270 whom it was seized.

271 (e) If the material seized is a film, and the claimant demonstrates that no other copy of 272 the film is available to the claimant, the court shall allow the film to be copied at the 273 claimant's expense pending the hearing described in Subsection (3)(b).

274 (4) If a motion to suppress the evidence is granted on the grounds of an unlawful seizure, 275 the property shall be restored unless it is subject to confiscation as contraband, in which 276 case the property may not be returned.

277 (5)(a) Procedures under this section for the seizure of allegedly obscene animal abuse 278 material, pornographic material, or material harmful to minors are cumulative of all 279 other lawful means of obtaining evidence as provided by the laws of this state.

280 (b) This section does not prevent the obtaining of allegedly obscene animal abuse 281 material, pornographic material, or material harmful to minors by purchase, subpoena 282 duces tecum, or under injunction proceedings as authorized by this act or by any 283 other provision of law of the state.

284 Section 7. Section 76-5c-109 is amended to read:

285 76-5c-109 . Affirmative defenses.

286 (1) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this chapter that the distribution of

 288 persons having scientific, educational, governmental, or other similar justification for 289 possessing obscene animal abuse material or pornographic material.

290 (2) It is not a defense to a prosecution under this chapter that the actor is a motion picture
