Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has led locally, regionally, and nationally in supporting family engagement and advocating on behalf of all children and families;

WHEREAS, this centennial year provides an opportunity to reflect on the many accomplishments of the Utah Parent Teacher Association and celebrate 100 years as a powerful voice for children, a trusted resource for parents, and a strong advocate for public education;

WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has been instrumental in establishing programs and services that improve children's lives;

WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has defended public education and ensured stable funding;

31        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has advanced parent and family
32        engagement in Utah schools;

33        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association was instrumental in creating kindergarten
34        with full day options;

35        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has promoted child-labor laws and 36        public-health services;

37        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has supported hot-and-healthy lunch
38        programs in Utah schools;

39        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has worked to strengthen the juvenile 40        justice system;

41        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has protected and ensured growth of 42        public trust lands that benefit Utah school children;

43        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has promoted arts in education;

44        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has championed school safety;

45        WHEREAS, the founders of the National Parent Teacher Association, Phoebe Apperson
46        Hearst and Alice McLellan Birney, together with Selena Sloan Butler, founder of Georgia's
47        Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers, were visionary women of imagination and courage;

48        WHEREAS, these remarkable leaders broke through the barriers of their time to improve
49        the lives of children and families, leaving a legacy that continues to inspire action today;

50        WHEREAS, these leaders shared a simple yet profound idea to improve the lives and
51        futures of all children;

52        WHEREAS, though our nation has changed, that vision endures as local Parent Teacher
53        Associations continue to keep it alive;

54        WHEREAS, at the founding meeting of the National Congress of Mothers in February
55        1897, Mrs. C. E. Allen and Mrs. Arthur Brown of the International Kindergarten Union in Salt
56        Lake City, Utah, were in attendance;

57        WHEREAS, since that time, the organization has steadfastly advocated for the education,
58        health, safety, and well-being of all children, earning broad public appreciation and 59        recognition;

60        WHEREAS, in October 1925, at the annual convention of the Utah Education Association,
61        Margaretta Reeves, President of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, officially
62        invited the Utah Mother's Congress to join the national organization;

63        WHEREAS, accepting this invitation, Utah became the Utah Congress of Parents and
64        Teachers, with Lucille Young Reid as its first President;

65        WHEREAS, this marked a new era of parent and family engagement in Utah;

66        WHEREAS, today, the Utah Parent Teacher Association is the largest volunteer
67        child-advocacy organization in Utah;

68        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association unites parents, caregivers, grandparents,
69        educators, and other caring adults in a shared mission to make every child's potential a reality;

70        WHEREAS, for a century, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has left a lasting impact on
71        schools, families, and communities across the state;

72        WHEREAS, the Utah Parent Teacher Association has fostered leadership and empowered
73        voices throughout Utah; and

74        WHEREAS, generations of children have benefited from stronger educational 75        opportunities, healthier environments, and a greater sense of belonging through the work of the 76        Utah Parent Teacher Association:

77        NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the
78        Governor concurring therein, honors the 100th anniversary of the Utah Parent Teacher
79        Association and the thousands of hours parent volunteers have dedicated to support the 80        education of Utah's students.

81        BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor encourage all
82        citizens of Utah to actively participate in the education of Utah's most precious resource: the 83        state's children and youth.
